

“GANDHI”

In order to get the most out of this film it would probably be wise to do some background research on India and, particularly, its relationship with Britain, on the history of Pakistan – and on Mahatma Gandhi himself. The film is long, chances are you won't see it more than once, so it is best to prepare well if you really want to understand and enjoy it to the full.

QUESTIONS AND ASSIGNMENTS

- 1) Briefly describe the life story of Mahatma Gandhi: his profession, his struggle and aspirations, his movements across countries, major landmarks of his biography as pictured in the film.
- 2) What was the situation in India back then? Describe the major events of the British-Indian relationship (it probably would need some research on your part). Where was this relationship at the time of Gandhi's life and work?
- 3) State in your own words (or you can quote different people in the film) the case of Britain and the case of India in their debate about India's independence. Can you relate to either of them?
- 4) Describe the situation with the Hindu and Muslim believers in India back then (again, this might need some extra research, but the film is pretty clear in itself). What were the solutions offered by various people, including the Muslim leader in the government and Mahatma Gandhi? What was the solution finally accepted? How did it work out?
- 5) What was Gandhi's main philosophy? What was his response to violence? Which instances in the film that best show his views?
- 6) What ideas of Gandhi did you find especially powerful / poignant / disturbing / beautiful / incredible / impracticable? Why do you think they produced such a reaction in you?

Possible topics for personal research and meditation (resulting in an essay)

- 1) What is your personal and practical response to this film and to the person of Mahatma Gandhi? Please be as specific as you can. Is anything in your life going to change after you have seen this and thought about it?
- 2) What was Gandhi's view on people of different religious persuasions living in the same country / world? How viable and realistic is his solution, considering the history of mankind? Can you quote any other similar philosophies? What would need to happen for this philosophy to take root in people's minds and hearts?
- 3) What was Gandhi's response to violence? What is your personal take on that? Could it indeed become a universal response? Can you think of other historical personages embracing the same thinking – what was the outcome there? What is your personal response to violence of various kinds?

The Death and Afterlife of Mahatma Gandhi Makarand R Paranjape, 2015-01-30 The Death and Afterlife of Mahatma Gandhi is an explosive and original analysis of the assassination of the Father of the Nation Who is responsible for the Mahatma's death Just one determined zealot the larger ideology that supported him the Congress led Government that failed to protect him or a vast majority of Indians and their descendants who considered Gandhi irrelevant and endorsed violence instead Paranjape's meticulous study culminates in his reading of Gandhi's last six months in Delhi where from the very edge of the grave he wrought what was perhaps his greatest miracle the saving of Delhi and thus of India itself from the internecine bloodshed of Partition Paranjape taking a cue from the Mahatma himself also shows us a way to expiate our guilt and to heal the wounds of an ancient civilization torn into two This is a brilliant far reaching and profound exploration of the meaning of the Mahatma's death

Difficult Questions Have Easy Answers Atina Hseham, 2023-12-06 An inquiry made to obtain any information is known as an interrogation While asking the person tries to get an answer that allows him to satisfy his doubts The interviewers often ask simple questions in a very twisted fashion to confuse the candidates Difficult questions answers reflect the knowledge of the giver as well as his overall personality For example Which is heavier a kilogram of feathers or 1000 grams of lead Solution Both the weights are equal And What happened in Kolkata yesterday from 8 to 9 o'clock Solution An hour had passed These questions have a trick because they are framed in such a way that the answers seem simple but in reality they are not It can be said that the questioners confuse the candidates as they hide their answers using rhetorical resources and various devices In some cases the answer is found in the question itself but in secret Tricky questions are also used for fun or as a mental activity of logical practice Like a truck driver passing down a street in the wrong direction some policemen saw him but they didn't say anything to him why Solution Because the truck driver was on foot He shaves all day but still has a beard who is he Solution Barber Some months have thirty days and others thirty one but how many months have twenty eight Solution Every month has at least twenty eight days Which object becomes wet When it dries Solution Towel How do you draw a square with three lines Solution draw the square first and then draw three lines inside the square Thus an answer to a tricky question can lead to confusion due to the confusion generated question These types of questions are very specific to the areas in which people's knowledge or behavior is evaluated Generally such difficult questions can be perceived as misleading or incorrect because something is being implied that is not in reality However they can also be seen as methods whose precise purpose is to test the candidate and determine whether he or she is fully capable of answering the question that he or she is saying I know In this way about five thousand questions and answers have been given in the present book which is equally useful for all competitive examinations
