via homeownership continuously throughout United States history from the outright denial of credit and residential racial discrimination to federally sponsored urban renewal programs The subprime lending and foreclosure crisis is predicted to strip a quarter of a trillion dollars in wealth from black and Latino homeowners It has reversed home ownership gains for people of color and has decimated neighborhoods across the United States while impacting local regional national and international economies The consequences are devastating This collection of essays provides a framework for creating equitable policy and ultimately building more stable communities for all Americans Wall Street & Technology, 1991
