Living and Dying in Mesopotamia Alhena Gadotti, Alexandra Kleinerman, 2024-11-14 Exploring life death and the afterlife in Mesopotamia Alhena Gadotti and Alexandra Kleinerman examine how life and death experiences continually developed over the course of nearly three millennia of Mesopotamian history To achieve this the book follows the life cycle of the people of the Tigris and Euphrates River valleys from 3000 BCE to 300 BCE from birth through death and beyond This book is the first to interrogate the relationships between living and dying through case studies and primary evidence Including letters written by both women and men the book allows readers to enter the minds of the ancients First the authors focus on life through topics such as the rituals surrounding birth marriage and religion The authors then examine the common causes of death the rituals associated with death and the Mesopotamian views of the netherworld its gods and inhabitants Concepts of gender fluidity both in life and death are considered alongside evidence from epigraphic data Illustrating daily life as a multifaceted subject affected by time space location socioeconomics and gender this book creates a window into the conditions and concerns of the Mesopotamian people

McMichael,Alistair Woodward,Cameron Muir,2017 When we think climate change we think of man made global warming caused by greenhouse gas emissions But natural climate change has occurred throughout human history and populations have had to adapt to its vicissitudes Tony McMichael a renowned epidemiologist and a pioneer in the field of how human health relates to climate change is the ideal guide to this phenomenon and in his magisterial Climate Change and the Health of Nations he presents a sweeping and authoritative analysis of how human societies have been shaped by climate events Wounded Tigris Leon McCarron,2023-11-07 A fascinating journey down the Tigris River the lifeblood of human civilization in search of history and hope Starting at the source of this storied river where ancient Mesopotamians and Assyrian kings had their images carved into stone explorer Leon McCarron and his small team will journey through the Turkish mountains across north east Syria and into the heart of Iraq Along the way they will pass through historic cities like Diyarbakir Mosul and Baghdad We will meet fishermen and farmers along with artists activists and archaeologists who rely on the flow of the river Occasionally harassed by militias
