Preliminary Materials For A Theory Of The Young Girl Tiqqun:

Preliminary Materials for a Theory of the Young-Girl Tiqqun, 2012-06-22 A theoretical dissection of capitalism's ultimate form of merchandise the living spectacle of the Young Girl The Young Girl is not always young more and more frequently she is not even female She is the figure of total integration in a disintegrating social totality from Theory of the Young Girl First published in France in 1999 Preliminary Materials for a Theory of the Young Girl dissects the impossibility of love under Empire The Young Girl is consumer society's total product and model citizen whatever type of Young Girl she may embody whether by whim or concerted performance she can only seduce by consuming Filled with the language of French women's magazines rooted in Proust's figure of Albertine and the amusing misery of teenage romance in Witold Gombrowicz's Ferdydurke and informed by Pierre Klossowski's notion of living currency and libidinal economy Preliminary Materials for a Theory of the Young Girl diagnoses and makes visible a phenomenon that is so ubiquitous as to have become transparent In the years since the book's first publication in French the worlds of fashion shopping seduction plans makeover projects and eating disorders have moved beyond the comparatively tame domain of paper magazines into the perpetual accessibility of Internet culture Here the Young Girl can seek her own reflection in corporate universals and social media exchanges of personalities within the impersonal realm of the marketplace Tracing consumer society's colonization of youth and sexuality through the Young Girl's freedom in magazine terms to do whatever she wants with her body Tiqqun exposes the rapaciously competitive and psychically ruinous landscape of modern love

Young-Girls in Echoland Andrea Jonsson, Heather Warren-Crow, 2021-11-16 Who's worse the Young Girl or the Man Child Tiqqun's Preliminary Materials for a Theory of the Young Girl is a controversial work of anticapitalist philosophy that has attracted musicians playwrights feminist theorists and men's rights activists since its publication in 1999 More than twenty years after its publication the international reverberation of Young Girls shows no signs of weakening Young Girls in Echoland Theorizing Tiqqun is a guide to this ongoing postdigital conversation engaging with artworks and textual criticism provoked by Tiqqun's audacious arguably misogynistic textual voice Heather Warren Crow and Andrea Jonsson show how Tiqqun's polarizing figure has grown and matured but also stayed unapologetically girly in the works of artists and scholars discussed here Rethinking the myth of Echo and Narcissus by performing a different kind of listening they take us on a journey from VSCO girls to basic bitches to vampires With an ear for the sound of Tiqqun's polemic and its ensemble of Anglophone and Francophone rejoinders Young Girls in Echoland offers a model for analyzing the call and response of pop philosophy and for hearing the affective rhythms of communicative capitalism

Made-Up Daphné B.,2021-10-19 SHORTLISTED FOR THE 2023 COLE FOUNDATION PRIZE FOR TRANSLATION A nuanced feminist and deeply personal take on beauty culture and YouTube consumerism in the tradition of Maggie Nelson s Bluets As Daphn B obsessively watches YouTube makeup tutorials and haunts Sephora s website she s increasingly troubled by the ways in which this obsession contradicts her anti capitalist and intersectional feminist politics In this poetic treatise she rejects the false binaries of traditional beauty standards and delves into the celebrities and influencers from Kylie to Grimes and the poets and philosophers from Anne Boyer to Audre Lorde who have shaped the reflection she sees in the mirror At once confessional and essayistic Made Up is a meditation on the makeup that colours that obscures that highlights who we are and who we wish we could be The original French language edition was a cult hit in Quebec Translated by Alex Manley like Daphn a Montreal poet and essayist the book s English language text crackles with life retaining the flair and verve of the original and ensuring that a book on beauty is no less beautiful than its subject matter The most radical book of 2020 talks about makeup Radical

in the intransigence with which Daphne B hunts down the parts of her imagination that capitalism has phagocytized Radical also in its rejection of false binaries the authentic and the fake the futile and the essential through the lens of which such a subject is generally considered With the help of a heady combination of pop cultural criticism and autobiography a poet scrutinizes her contradictions They are also ours Dominic Tardif Le Devoir Made Up is a delight I read it in one go And when out of necessity I had to put it down it was with regret and with the feeling that I was giving up what could save me from a catastrophe Laurence Fournier Lettres Qu b coises five stars Made Up is a radiant shimmering blend of memoir and cultural criticism that uses beauty culture as an entry point to interrogating the ugly contradictions of late capitalism In short urgent chapters laced with humor and wide ranging references Daphn B plumbs the depths of a rich topic that s typically dismissed as shallow I imagine her writing it in eye pencil using makeup to tell the story of her life as so many women do Amy Berkowitz author of Tender Points A companion through the thicket of late stage capitalism a lucid and poetic mirror for anyone whose image exists on a screen Rachel Kauder Nalebuff Made Up is anything but committed to the grit of our current realities Daphn B directs her piercing eye on capitalism in an intimate portrayal of what it means to love and how to paint ourselves in the process Alex Manley has gifted English audiences with a nuanced translation of a critical feminist text exploring love and make up as a transformative social tool Sruti Islam The book will leave you both laughing in recognition and wincing at the reality of the beauty world s impact on our collective psyche Chatelaine Made Up examines the intersection of beauty culture and consumer culture Aided by the work of writers like Anne Carson Anne Boyer Amanda Hess and Arabelle Sicardi B makes sharp observations about the ideologies behind both beauty and consumerism Bitch Media Made Up A True Story of Beauty Culture under Late Capitalism is well worth reading Literary Review of Canada Made Up newly translated by writer poet Alex Manley from its original French puts an intersectional feminist lens on the author s personal fascination with the makeup industry it also reckons with the cultural dominance of this fascination as she aims to square anti capitalist principles with beauty product obsession BitchReads 11 Books Feminists Should Read in September

Sophia Giovannitti, 2023-05-30 The portrait of a young artist making both a living and a life As a young artist trying to make a living in New York without sacrificing all her time to paying rent Sophia Giovannitti turned to sex work first telling herself it was part of her art and then quickly accepting it as simply the way to make the most money in the shortest possible time Weaving between the art world and the sex industry she learned how much the two markets have in common both built on the buying and selling of creativity and desire authenticity and intimacy The power of each lies in believing or pretending they can provide meaning outside of monetary exchange In this searching and provocative work moving from the author's own experiences to political analyses and the workings of the contemporary art world Giovannitti asks how we might face the great dilemma of the art and sex industries head on what happens to desire beauty creativity and autonomy when everything is a transaction Giovannitti finds a way to commit her life to art to intimacy and to freedom on her own terms Feminism

Mansoor, 2025-04-18 In Universal Prostitution and Modernist Abstraction Jaleh Mansoor provides a counternarrative of modernism and abstraction and a reexamination of Marxist aesthetics Mansoor draws on Marx's concept of prostitution a conceptual device through which Marx allegorized modern labor to think about the confluences of generalized and gendered labor in modern art Analyzing works ranging from douard Manet's Olympia and Georges Seurat's The Models to contemporary work by Hito Steyerl and Hannah Black she shows how avant garde artists can detect changing modes of production and capitalist and biopolitical processes of abstraction that assign identities to subjects in the interest of value's impersonal circulation She demonstrates that art and abstraction resist modes of production and subjugation at the level of process and form rather than through referential representation By studying gendered and generalized labor abstraction automation and the worker Mansoor shifts focus away from ideology superstructure and culture toward the ways art indexes crisis and transformation in the political economic base Ultimately she traces the outlines of a counterpraxis to capital while demonstrating how artworks give us a way to see through the abstractions of everyday life Law, Culture and the

Figure of the Girl Honni van Rijswijk, 2024-11-18 This book argues for the critical potential of locating the girl as the subject position and voice of legal critique Law's imaginary is notoriously limited in its ways of thinking through and adjudicating gender violence This book argues that the girl is a key figure through which to understand theorise and challenge law's relation to this violence Law Culture and the Figure of the Girl explains the meaning and significance of the figure of the girl to legal political and critical projects centred on trauma and responsibility The book offers new readings of exemplary cultural texts that thematically deal with law's adjudication of violence against girls emphasising the ways these texts challenge dominant ways of thinking and doing law jurisdiction violence race and gender The book also explores radical cultural figurations of the girl in fiction films and TV series and demonstrates the critical potential of these works in understanding and providing counter narratives to dominant legal and cultural imaginaries These works provide ways not only to critique existing law but to theorise emergent forms of law making This book will be of interest to scholars in the areas of cultural legal studies law and literature feminist legal studies and cultural studies It will also be suitable as a prescribed text for upper undergraduate classes and graduate studies in the disciplines of law legal studies cultural studies and criminology Palgrave Handbook of Critical Posthumanism Stefan Herbrechter, Ivan Callus, Manuela Rossini, Marija Grech, Megen de Bruin-Molé, Christopher John Müller, 2022-11-28

Palgrave Handbook of Critical Posthumanism is a major reference work on the paradigm emerging from the challenges to humanism humanity and the human posed by the erosion of the traditional demarcations between the human and nonhuman This handbook surveys and speculates on the ways in which the posthumanist paradigm emerged transformed and might further develop across the humanities With its focus on the posthuman as a figure on posthumanism as a social discourse and on posthumanisation as an on going historical and ontological process the volume highlights the relationship between the humanities and sciences The essays engage with posthumanism in connection with subfields like the environmental humanities health humanities animal studies and disability studies The book also traces the historical representations and understanding of posthumanism across time Additionally the contributions address genre and forms such as autobiography games art film museums and topics such as climate change speciesism anthropocentrism and biopolitics to name a few This handbook considers posthumanism's impact across disciplines and areas of study Obscenity, Psychoanalysis and Literature William Simms, 2021-09-05

Obscenity, Psychoanalysis and Literature offers a fascinating psychoanalytic reading of four landmark obscenity trials involving the texts of D H Lawrence and James Joyce By tracing the legal histories of Lawrence and Joyce from censorship to their eventual redemption and transformation into champions of sexual freedom the book draws a narrative of changing legal literary and cultural investments The book examines the four trials of these authors in detail to show how the literary text can function as a symbol of both life and death and the political uses of figuring them as such Taking a psychoanalytic perspective we can see how this narrative of sexual repression to sexual liberation may itself be an emergent form of the superego imperative to enjoy and consume Through close readings of trial transcripts and archival documents this book helps elucidate the fantasies operating throughout the trials the unquestioned assumptions of the nature of sexuality gender drugs and truth It demonstrates with clarity how through its attempt to suppress the sexual the law confronts its own nature as language and in doing so troubles the distinctions between law literature and desire that it usually wishes to protect Offering a uniquely psychoanalytic account of the obscenity trials of these authors this text will be of great interest to scholars from across the fields of psychoanalysis law and literature

From Factory Girls to K-Pop Idol Girls Gooyong Kim, 2020-07-06 Focusing on female idols proliferation in the South Korean popular music K pop industry since the late 1990s Gooyong Kim critically analyzes structural conditions of possibilities in contemporary popular music from production to consumption Kim contextualizes the success of K pop within Korea's development trajectories scrutinizing how a formula of developments from the country rapid industrial modernization 1960s 1980s was updated and re applied in the K pop industry when the state had to implement a series of neoliberal reformations mandated by the IMF To that end applying Michel Foucault's discussion on governmentality a biopolitical dimension of neoliberalism Kim argues how the regime of free market capitalism updates and reproduces itself by 1 forming a strategic alliance of interests with the state and 2 using popular culture to facilitate individuals subjectification and subjectivation processes to become neoliberal agents As to an importance of K pop female idols Kim indicates a sustained utility legacy of the nation's century long patriarchy in a neoliberal development agenda Young female talents have been mobilized and deployed in the neoliberal culture industry in a similar way to how unwed obedient female workers were exploited and disposed on the sweatshop factory floors to sustain the state's export oriented labor intensive manufacturing industry policy during its rapid developmental stage decades ago In this respect Kim maintains how a post feminist neoliberal discourse of girl power has marketed young female talents as effective commodities and how K pop female idols exert biopolitical power as an active ideological apparatus that pleasurably perpetuates and legitimates neoliberal mantras in individuals everyday lives Thus Kim reveals there is a strategic convergence between Korea's lingering legacies of patriarchy developmentalism and neoliberalism While the current K pop literature is micro scopic and celebratory Kim advances the scholarship by multi perspectival critical approaches With a well balanced perspective by micro scopic textual analyses of music videos and macro scopic examinations of historical and political economy backgrounds Kim's book provides a wealth of intriguing research agendas on the phenomenon and will be a useful reference in International Intercultural Communication Political Economy of the Media Cultural Media Studies Gender Sexuality Studies Asian Studies
