Professors As Writers Robert Boice:

Professors as Writers Robert Boice, 1990 Here is a proven book to help scholars master writing as a productive enjoyable and successful experience Author Robert Boice prepared this self help manual for professors who want to write more productively painlessly and successfully It reflects the author's two decades of experiences and research with professors as writers by compressing a lot of experience into a brief programmatic framework Like the actual sessions and workshops in which the author works with writers this book admonishes and reassures In the innovative book lies the path for sustained highly productive scholarly writing Advice for New Faculty Members Robert Boice, 2000 Nihil nimis is a guide to the start of a successful academic career As its title suggests nothing in excess it advocates moderation in ways of working From publisher description Working with Faculty Writers Anne Ellen Geller, Michele Eodice, 2013-10-15 The imperative to write and to publish is a relatively new development in the history of academia yet it is now a significant factor in the culture of higher education Working with Faculty Writers takes a broad view of faculty writing support advocating its value for tenure track professors adjuncts senior scholars and graduate students The authors in this volume imagine productive campus writing support for faculty and future faculty that allows for new insights about their own disciplinary writing and writing processes as well as the development of fresh ideas about student writing Contributors from a variety of institution types and perspectives consider who faculty writers are and who they may be in the future reveal the range of locations and models of support for faculty writers explore the ways these might be delivered and assessed and consider the theoretical philosophical political and pedagogical approaches to faculty writing support as well as its relationship to student writing support With the pressure on faculty to be productive researchers and writers greater than ever this is a must read volume for administrators faculty and others involved in developing and assessing models of faculty writing support

Academic Labor Beyond the College Classroom Holly Hassel, Kirsti Cole, 2019-12-06 Academic Labor beyond the College Classroom initiates a scholarly and professional conversation calling upon faculty to participate in reimagine and transform their institutional and professional work to look beyond just teaching and research Chapters in this contributed volume offer case studies strategies and exemplars of how faculty can re engage in institutional service mentoring governance and administrative duties to advance equity efforts at all levels of the university calling for what Dr Nancy Chick names in the Foreword as a scholarship of influence This book draws from a diverse range of methodologies and disciplines issuing an invitation to faculty across the divide of their specific college school or corner of the university into cross conversations and partnerships for positive change How to Get Tenure Michael S. Harris, 2018-06-22 Helping assistant professors and pre tenure faculty balance competing obligations in teaching research and service this comprehensive book explores the challenging path toward tenure Drawing from research literature on faculty development pedagogy and psychology How to Get Tenure covers topics such as productivity research agendas publication service and preparing a dossier Whether read from beginning to end or used as a reference this book provides clear concrete and accessible advice on the most effective and efficient strategies for navigating the inherent ambiguity of the tenure process tackling the challenges and complexity of the tenure track and building a strong case for tenure Air & Light & Time & Space Helen Sword,2017-04-17 From the author of Stylish Academic Writing comes an essential new guide for writers aspiring to become more productive and take greater pleasure in their craft Helen Sword interviewed 100 academics worldwide about their writing background and practices and shows how they find or create the conditions to get their writing done Becoming an Academic Writer Patricia Goodson,2013 Becoming an Academic Writer helps you gain control over writing and publishing master specific aspects of academic writing and improve your productivity Patricia Goodson's book offers weekly exercises and tools to achieve these goals The exercises are grounded in a theoretically sound and empirically based mode comprising a set of behavioural principles e.g. writing regularly separating generating from editing and specific practices weekly exercises which ensure success Based on the work of writing theoretician Peter Elbow the empirical research done by Robert Boice and others on writing productivity of college professors and the research into the practice patterns of elite performers such as Olympic athletes the principles and practices have been developed and tested over time Inside you'll find Exercises tailored to specific segments of academic papers and reports Tips for ESL Writers boxes providing additional support This book uniquely combines these successful principles with a set of original exercises applicable to the writing needs of academics as well as students Beyond Productivity Kim Hensley Owens,Derek Van Ittersum,2023-11-15 In Beyond Productivity a wide range of contributors share honest narratives of the sometimes impossible conditions that scholars face when completing writing projects The essays provide backstage views of the authors varying approaches to moving forward when the desire to produce wanes when deciding a project is not working when working within and around and redefining academic productivity expectations and when writing with ever changing bodies that do not always function as expected This collection positions scholarly writers ways of writing as a form of flexible evolving knowledge By exhibiting what is lost and gained through successive rounds of transformation and adaptation over time the contributors offer a sustainable understanding and practice of process one that looks beyond productivity as the primary measure of success Each presents a fluid understanding of the writing process illustrating its deeply personal nature and revealing how fragmented and disjointed methods and experiences can highlight what is precious about writing Beyond Productivity determines anew the use and value of scholarly writing and the processes that produce it both within and beyond the context of the losses constraints and adaptations associated with the COVID 19 pandemic Destination Dissertation Sonja K. Foss,William Waters,2015-10-23 Your dissertation is not a hurdle to jump or a battle to fight as this handbook makes clear your dissertation is the first of many destinations on the path of your professional career Destination Dissertation guides you to the successful completion of your dissertation by framing the process as a stimulating and exciting trip one that can be completed in fewer than nine months and by following twenty nine specific steps Sonja Foss and William Waters your guides on this trip explain concrete and efficient processes for completing the parts of the dissertation that tend to cause the most delays conceptualizing a topic developing a pre proposal writing a literature review writing a proposal collecting and analyzing data and writing the last chapter This guidebook is crafted for use by students in all disciplines and for both quantitative and qualitative dissertations and incorporates a wealth of real life examples from every step of the journey

Make'em Write! Philip L. Jackson, Geneviève Belleville, 2025-02-05T00:00:00-05:00 Among the requirements for obtaining a doctoral degree writing a dissertation is certainly the most difficult and all too often the most painful This book written by two professors offers reflections to help students make progress and addresses the questions surrounding supervision as well as the experience and process of mentoring a dissertation Time and Project Management Strategies for Librarians Carol Smallwood, Jason Kuhl, Lisa Fraser, 2013-05-16 As budgets for libraries continue to shrink the key challenge facing the 21st century librarian is finding how to do more with less Learning how to increase productivity within the constraints of a difficult economy librarians can benefit from the insights of fellow professionals and others who have succeeded in making the most of what they have Time and Project Management Strategies for Librarians features more than thirty essays that provide valuable tips for the professional who must cope with increasing demands upon their resources Librarians will get tips on how to identify the most important tasks for the library eliminate non essential functions and processes increase reliance on volunteers interns and students optimize daily routines and schedule staff effectively increase productivity through the use of social media and email increase project and time management skills and personal productivity through setting and meeting goals With productivity tips for all librarians from the newly hired to the most seasoned veteran this volume will help libraries provide better service to their users and also show librarians how to give this service without losing their personal lives and their sanity Writing for Peer Reviewed Journals Pat Thomson, Barbara Kamler, 2012-11-27 It s not easy getting published but everyone has to do it Writing for Peer Reviewed Journals presents an insider s perspective on the secret business of academic publishing making explicit many of the dilemmas and struggles faced by all writers but rarely discussed Its unique approach is theorised and practical It offers a set of moves for writing a journal article that is structured and doable but also attends to the identity issues that manifest on the page and in the politics of academic life The book comprehensively assists anyone concerned about getting published whether they are early in their career or moving from a practice base into higher education or more experienced but still feeling in need of further information Avoiding a tips and tricks approach which tends to oversimplify what is at stake in getting published the authors emphasise the production nurture and sustainability of scholarship through writing a focus on both the scholar and the text or what they call text work identity work The chapters are ordered to develop a systematic approach to the process including such topics as The writer The reader What s the contribution Beginning work Refining the argument Engaging with reviewers and editors Writing for

Peer Reviewed Journals uses a wide range of multi disciplinary examples from the writing workshops the authors have run in universities around the world including the UK Canada Australia New Zealand Ireland South Africa Norway Sweden Denmark and the United States This international approach coupled with theoretically grounded strategies to guide the authoring process ensure that people at all stages of their career are addressed This lively book uses a combination of personal stories student texts published journal abstracts and excerpts from interviews with journal editors and publishers Written in an accessible style one which does not use the patronising you of advice books it offers a collegial approach to a task which is difficult for most scholars regardless of their years of experience Journal of Scholarly Publishing ,2007-10

A. Holley, Michael S. Harris, 2019-04-30 The Qualitative Dissertation in Education focuses on the experiences of students pursuing a doctorate in education and writing a qualitative dissertation. The literature on qualitative research has grown substantially over the past 25 years but methods books often fail to consider the unique situations and resources available to students pursuing a professional doctorate. This book examines the entirety of the dissertation experience walking readers through the process with examples and guidelines. The structure of the book outlines each chapter of the dissertation as well as the necessary steps to start and complete the dissertation such as working with a faculty chair and committee, developing a peer support group, and organizing literature. Not only does the book cover each stage of the dissertation process, it also provides practical guidance on topics such as productivity with exercises and resources to help students overcome obstacles and make progress in their writing. The Qualitative Dissertation in Education provides a foundation to understand both the basics of qualitative research and the expectations of the EdD dissertation.

Funding Your Research in the Humanities and Social Sciences Barbara Walker, Holly Unruh, 2017-07-20 Grants and fellowships are increasingly essential to an academic career and competition over federal and foundation funding is fiercer than ever. Yet there has hitherto been little training available for this genre of writing. Funding Your Research in the Humanities and Social Sciences demystifies the process of writing winning grant proposals in the humanities and social sciences. Offering practical guidance, step by step instructions, and examples of successful proposals, Walker and Unruh outline the best practices to crack the proposal writing code. They reveal the most common peeves of proposal reviewers and offer advice on how to avoid frequent problem areas in conceptualizing and crafting a research proposal in the humanities and social sciences. Contributions from agency and foundation program officers offer the perspective from the other side of the proposal submission portal, and new research funding trends including crowdfunding and public scholarship are also covered. This book is essential reading for all those involved in funding applications. Graduate students, research administrators, early career faculty members, and tenured professors alike will gain new and effective strategies to write successful applications.
