Britton,Arthur Woodward,Marilyn Binkley,2012-11-12 It is surprising that there is so little research on textbooks given their centrality to teaching and learning in elementary and secondary schools Textbooks have become a focus of political and cultural controversy advocating a multicultural curriculum that has sparked some vigorous protests Research is absent in this debate therefore questions of legitimate knowledge the role of textbooks textbook design policy selection issues and economic issues concerning the marketplace are not part of the current debate Without insights of research on considerate text mentioning illustrations and so forth the current controversy will result in publishers responding to demands for more content not less thus textbooks will become compendia of information that on the surface satisfy everyone This volume demonstrates how research on important issues relative to textbook design can advance our knowledge about what makes textbooks effective learning tools and thus inform policymakers publishers and those involved in textbook selection Representing pure and applied approaches researchers present papers on the quality of writing the role of questions the role of pictures and illustrations and the role of auxiliary materials in the design of effective textbooks The chapters provide insight into research and its application to textbook design and improvement stimulating others to follow this lead Research in Education ,1974 Teaching with the Common Core Standards for English Language Arts, Grades 3-5 Lesley Mandel Morrow,Karen K. Wixson,Timothy Shanahan,2012-12-07 The Common Core State Standards CCSS are the first academic standards to be independently adopted by almost every state in the country The purpose and intent of the Common Core standards for English Language Arts ELA as well as Literacy in History Social Studies and Science education are the focus of this book This volume is aimed at educators administrators graduate students university professors and others who deal with students in grades 3 through 5 Each of the chapters addresses one of the major English Language Arts domains literature informational texts foundational skills writing speaking and listening language technology and assessment They contain invaluable information insight and research from literacy leaders in their respective fields Their objective is twofold to provide a theoretical background and detailed explanation of each of the CCSS ELA standards as well as practical suggestions classroom vignettes models instructional resources and unit ideas to implement the standards Resources in Education ,2001-10 Improving Reading Comprehension of Self-Chosen Books Through Computer Assessment and Feedback Keith James Topping,2022-07-12 Schools around the world use online programs like Accelerated Reader and Reading Counts to improve students reading comprehension of real books but how can such software be used most effectively In this unique resource researcher Keith Topping analyzes independent research studies and brings you best practices on quality implementation to enhance effectiveness He explains the evidence base for the programs in a comprehensible way and addresses many common questions such as Does it work How should it be implemented to make it work and Is it cheaper and more efficient in teacher time than what we were doing before He also discusses best practices for using the assessment data for tailoring implementation in elementary vs high schools and for working with disadvantaged students Appropriate for teachers literacy coaches curriculum leaders and other stakeholders the book will provide you with a strong research foundation and easily accessible information to help you fine tune your understanding of the reading programs and implement them more successfully in your schools and classrooms Using
