Magill, 2013-05-13 Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history This is not a who's who Instead each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual's life and achievements The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual's place in history All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography

Understanding Leadership Robert M. McManus, Gamaliel Perruci, 2019-12-09 Laozi Marx the Buddha Ibsen Machiavelli these are just a few of the world's great thinkers who have weighed in on the subject of leadership over the centuries Yet the contemporary student of leadership often overlooks many of these names in favor of more recent theorists hailing from the social sciences

Understanding Leadership An Arts and Humanities Perspective takes a different angle employing the works of the great philosophers authors and artists found in world civilization and presenting an arts and humanities perspective on the study of leadership The authors build their conceptual framework using their Five Components of Leadership Model which recognizes the leader the followers the goal the context and the cultural values and norms that make up the leadership process Supporting the text are a wealth of case studies that reflect on works such as Ayn Rand's novella Anthem Eugène Delacroix's painting Liberty Leading the People Charlie Chaplin's film Modern Times Athol Fugard's play Master Harold and the boys Laozi's poetic work Dao De Jing and Antonín Dvořák's New World Symphony The authors also introduce studies from various world cultures to emphasize the role that cultural values and norms play in leadership This illuminating framework promotes the multidimensional thinking that is necessary for understanding and problem solving in a complex world

Understanding Leadership An Arts and Humanities Perspective will be a valuable resource for both undergraduate and postgraduate leadership students while leadership professionals will also appreciate the book's unique liberal arts and cultural approach

African Theatre Michael Etherton, Jane Plastow, 2006 Includes the playscript of The Ghosts Return devised by students of the University of Botswana

for an expanded approach to South Africa's formal transition from apartheid grappling with reconciliation's ongoing potential. Rather than correcting the contradictions that have done much to corrupt the concept, it surveys the improvised approach to reconciliation that has emerged from the country's cultural sphere in recent decades. The New York Times Theatre Reviews 1999-2000 New York Times Theater Reviews, 2001-12 This volume is a comprehensive collection of critical essays on The Taming of the Shrew and includes extensive discussions of the play's various printed versions and its theatrical productions. Aspinall has included only those essays that offer the most influential and controversial arguments surrounding the play. The issues discussed include gender, authority, female autonomy and unruliness, courtship and marriage, language and speech, and performance and theatricality. Creating Postcolonial Literature C. Davis, 2013-04-21 Using case studies, this book explores the publishing of African literature, addressing the construction of literary value, relationships between African writers and British publishers, and importance of the African market. It analyses the historical, political, and economic conditions framing the emergence of postcolonial literature.
