Dissertations in an Interdisciplinary and European Context Meelis Friedenthal,Hanspeter Marti,Robert Seidel,2021-01-25 From the sixteenth through to the eighteenth century printed disputations were the main academic output of universities This genre is especially attractive as it deals with the most significant cultural and scientific innovations of the early modern period such as the printing revolution and the development of new methods in philosophy education and scholarly exchange via personal networks Until recently academic disputations have attracted comparatively little scholarly attention This volume provides for the first time a comprehensive study of the early modern disputation culture both through theoretical discussions and overviews and numerous case studies that analyze particular features of disputations in various European regions

The Key to Power? Dries Raeymaekers, Sebastiaan Derks, 2016-07-11 Proximity to the monarch was a vital asset in the struggle for power and influence in medieval and early modern courts The concept of access to the ruler has therefore grown into a dominant theme in scholarship on pre modern dynasties Still many questions remain concerning the mechanisms of access and their impact on politics Bringing together new research on European and Asian cases the ten chapters in this volume focus on the ways in which access was articulated regulated negotiated and performed By taking into account the full complexity of hierarchies ceremonial rites spaces and artefacts that characterized the dynastic court The Key to Power forces us to rethink power relations in the late medieval and early modern world Contributors are Christina Antenhofer Ronald G Asch Florence Berland Mark Hengerer Neil Murphy Fabian Persson Jonathan Spangler Michael Talbot Steven Thiry and Audrey Truschke Modern European History Hutton Webster, 1920
