Four Views On Hell Second Edition Counterpoints Bible And Theology:

Four Views on Hell Preston M. Sprinkle, 2016 Recent years have seen much controversy regarding hell Do we go to heaven or hell when we die Or do we cease to exist Are believers and unbelievers ultimately saved in the end This second edition of Four Views on Hell featuring all new contributors highlights why the church still needs to wrestle with the doctrine of hell In the familiar counterpoints format four leading scholars introduce us to the current views on eternal judgment with particular attention being given to the new voices that have entered the debate Contributors and views include Denny Burk Eternal Conscious Torment John Stackhouse Annihilationism Conditional Immortality Robin Parry Universalism Ultimate Reconciliation Jerry Walls Purgatory General editor Preston Sprinkle concludes the discussion by evaluating each view noting significant points of exchange between the essayists The interactive nature of the volume allows the reader to reflect on the strengths and weaknesses of each view and come to an informed conclusion The Pastor's Library Robert A.

Yost, 2017-09-21 In the spirit of Cyril Barber's classic work from the 1970s The Minister's Library Robert Yost provides students and pastors with expert guidance on building a working ministerial library From Old and New Testament languages lexical aids and grammatical tools to commentaries and theologies as well as pastoral resources Yost is a trustworthy guide through the multiplicity of books that seem to just keep rolling off the presses Far more than just a guide to commentaries as are so many works today this resource is a balanced pastoral tool for pastors and students who are overwhelmed by the proliferation of literature in the fields of biblical and pastoral studies Four Views on Hell Zondervan, 2016-03-08 Recent years have seen much controversy regarding a unified Christian doctrine of hell Do we go to heaven or hell when we die Or do we cease to exist Are believers and unbelievers ultimately saved by grace in the end By focusing on recent theological arguments Four Views on Hell Second Edition highlights why the church still needs to wrestle with the doctrine of hell In the fair minded and engaging Counterpoints format four leading scholars introduce us to the current views on eternal judgment with particular attention given to the new voices that have entered the debate Contributors and views include Denny Burk representing a principle of Eternal Conscious Torment John Stackhouse representing a principle of Annihilationism Conditional Immortality Robin Parry representing a principle of Universalism Ultimate Reconciliation Jerry Walls representing a principle of Purgatory Preston Sprinkle concludes the discussion by evaluating each view noting significant points of exchange between the essayists The interactive nature of the volume allows the reader to reflect on the strengths and weaknesses of each view and come to an informed conclusion BONUS CONTENT Includes entire first edition of Four Views on Hell to help readers grasp the history of the discussion and how it has developed over the last twenty years

Martin Scorsese's Divine Comedy Catherine O'Brien, 2018-05-17 Catherine O'Brien draws on the structure of Dante Alighieri's Divine Comedy to explore Martin Scorsese's feature films from Who's That Knocking at My Door 1967-69 to Silence 2016 This is the first full length study to focus on the trajectory of faith and doubt during this period taking very seriously the oft quoted words of the director himself My whole life has been movies and religion That s it Nothing else Films discussed include GoodFellas The Last Temptation of Christ Taxi Driver and Mean Streets as well as the more recent The Wolf of Wall Street In Dante s poem in 100 cantos the Pilgrim is guided by the poet Virgil down through the circles of Hell in Inferno he then climbs the steep Mountain of the Seven Deadly Sins in Purgatory and he finally encounters God in Paradise Embracing this popular analogy this study envisions Scorsese as a contemporary Dante with his filmic oeuvre offering the dimensions of a cinematic Divine Comedy Drawing on debates at the heart of religious studies theology literature and film this book goes beyond existing explorations of religion in Scorsese s work to address issues of sin and salvation within the context of wider debates in eschatology and the afterlife Theology from the Great Tradition Steven D.

Views on the Doctrine of the Trinity Stephen R. Holmes, Paul D. Molnar, Thomas H. McCall, Paul Fiddes, 2014-09-02 Christians have always believed in the triune God but they haven't always understood or used the doctrine of the Trinity consistently In order to form a coherent view of trinitarian theology it's important for Christians to have a working knowledge of the two legitimate models for explaining this doctrine Classical presenting a traditional view of the Trinity represented by the Baptist theologian Stephen R Holmes and the Roman Catholic theologian Paul D Molnar Relational presenting the promise and potential hazards of a relational doctrine represented by the evangelical theologian Thomas H McCall and the Baptist philosopher Paul S Fiddes In this volume of the Counterpoints series leading contributors establish their models and approaches to the doctrine of the Trinity or the relationship between the threeness and oneness of the divine life Each expert highlights the strengths of his view in order to argue how it best reflects the orthodox perspective In order to facilitate a genuine debate and to make sure that the key issues are revealed each contributor addresses the same questions regarding their trinitarian methodology doctrine and its implications Four Views on Divine Providence William Lane Craig, Ron Highfield, Gregory A. Boyd, Paul Kjoss Helseth, 2011-04-19 Questions about divine providence have preoccupied Christians for generations to what degree does God concern himself with and intervene in the affairs of everyday life This book introduces readers to four prevailing views on divine providence with particular attention to the questions of human free will the problem of evil and God's perception of time Volume contributors and their basic viewpoints are Paul Helseth God causes every creaturely event that occurs William Lane Craig through his middle knowledge God controls the course of worldly affairs without predetermining any creatures free decisions Ron Highfield God controls creatures by liberating their decision making Gregory Boyd human decisions can be free only if God neither determines nor knows what they will be Introductory and closing essays by Dennis Jowers give relevant background and guide readers toward their own informed beliefs about divine providence Four Views on Divine Providence helps readers think theologically and biblically about all the issues involved in exploring this doctrine The point counterpoint format reveals the assumptions and considerations that drive equally learned and sincere theologians to disagreement with each other It unearths the genuinely decisive issues beneath a philosophically dense debate The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion

Four Views on the Apostle Paul Zondervan, 2012-08-07 An introduction to ongoing debates on the apostle Paul's life and teaching and his letters ramifications for the Church of today The apostle Paul was a vital force in the development of Christianity Paul's historical and religious context affects the theological interpretation of Paul's writings no small issue in the whole of Christian theology Recent years have seen much controversy about the apostle Paul his religious and social context and its effects on his theology In the helpful Counterpoints format four leading scholars present their views on the best framework for describing Paul's theological perspective including his view of salvation the significance of Christ and his vision for the churches Contributors and views include Reformed View Thomas R Schreiner Catholic View Luke Timothy Johnson Post New Perspective View Douglas Campbell Jewish View Mark D Nanos Like other titles in the Counterpoints Bible and Theology collection Four Views on the Apostle Paul gives theology students the tools they need to draw informed conclusions on debated issues General editor and New Testament scholar Michael F Bird covers foundational issues and provides helpful summaries in his introduction and conclusion New Testament scholars pastors and students of Christian history and theology will find Four Views on the Apostle Paul an indispensable introduction to ongoing debates on the apostle Paul's life and teaching The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion Four Views on Hell John F. Walvoord, Zachary J. Hayes, Clark H. Pinnock, 2010-08-10 Most contemporary Christians acknowledge the doctrine of hell but they do rather not think about how God punishes the wicked The authors of Four Views on Hell meet this subject head on with different views on what the Scriptures say Is hell to be understood literally as a place of eternal smoke and flames Or are such images simply metaphors for a real but different form of punishment Is there such a thing as conditional immortality in which God annihilates the souls of the wicked rather than punishing them endlessly Is there a Purgatory and if so how does it fit into the picture The interactive Counterpoints forum allows the reader to see the four views on hell literal metaphorical conditional and purgatorial in interaction with each other Each view in turn is presented critiqued and defended This evenhanded approach is ideal for comparing and contrasting views in order to form a personal conclusion about one of Christianity's key doctrines The Counterpoints series provides a forum for comparison and critique of different views on issues important to Christians Counterpoints books address two categories Church Life and Bible and Theology Complete your library with other books in the Counterpoints series Five Views on Law and Gospel Greg L. Bahnsen, Walter C. Kaiser, Jr., Douglas J. Moo, Wayne G. Strickland, Willem A. VanGemeren, 2010-09-21 An introduction to a complex theological issue that impacts our daily lives as believers in Christ What is the relevance of the Old Testament Law to our understanding of the Gospel and how it should be lived This book explores five major approaches to this important biblical topic as they've developed in Protestant circles Non Theonomic Reformed View the law is the perfection of righteousness in Jesus Christ Theonomic Reformed View the goodness of the law is dependent on how it's used and does not offer a way to salvation Heavily focused on Paul's discussion of the Law Law as Gracious Guidance View emphasizes the contrasts between the Mosaic law and the Gospel of grace while still asserting the Law's value Dispensational View approaches the Law from a historical perspective to help us understand its presentation treatment and recipients Modified Lutheran View the Law of Christ as the fulfillment of the Law of Moses This book allows each contributor to not only present the case for his view but also to critique and respond to the critiques of the other contributors allowing you to compare their beliefs in an open forum setting to see where they overlap and where they differ The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion
