Nigerian Stage Directors' Philosophies, Aesthetics and Ideologies Bisi Adigun, Duro Oni, 2025-02-15 In several Nigerian universities theories of Western stage directors who are long dead are still relied upon to teach Nigerian students the art of stage directing This is akin to eating Nigerian delicacies such as isi ewu a goat's head delicacy which are traditionally eaten with fingers with cutlery How can the brain of an aspiring Nigerian theatre director be full of the principles of Russian German English French and Polish stage directors who are all dead while he or she does not know much about contemporary Nigerian stage directors many of whom are still alive and practising This is the major lacuna that this book fills Containing essays and interview contributions from 30 directors of different ages generations genders and social classes and from different parts of Nigeria and beyond this book will afford the future generation of stage directors not only in Nigeria but also in the world at large the opportunity to learn from an epistemic community and stand on the shoulders of indigenous Nigerian theatre giants to touch the sky

Theatre Symposium, Vol. 26 Sarah McCarroll, 2018-11-13 A substantive exploration of theatrical costume Stage costumes reveal character They tell audiences who the character is or how a character functions within the world of the play among other things Theatrical costuming however along with other forms of theatre design has often been considered merely a craft rather than part of the deeply systemic creation of meaning onstage In what ways do our clothes shape and reveal our habits of behavior How do stage costumes work to reveal one kind of habit via the manipulation of another How might theatre practitioners learn to most effectively exploit this dynamic Theatre Symposium Volume 26 analyzes the ways in which meaning is conveyed through costuming for the stage and explores the underlying assumptions embedded in theatrical practice and costume production
