Professionalism in journalism in the era of new media Jacek Sobczak, Jędrzej Skrzypczak, 2015-12-31. The term professionalization arouses controversies in academic discussion, let alone the issue of professionalization of journalism. Journalism considerably departs from the ideal model of professionalization. There is no structured knowledge that directly applies to journalists, although we can talk about defined skills and the practical principles of the journalist's profession. Considering the process of the professionalization of journalism, we can indicate three significant determinants: namely, professional autonomy, separate professional standards, self-regulation principles, and serving the public interest. However, it is particularly important to ask about the condition of the journalist's profession nowadays. The ongoing technological revolution, on the one hand, and the political and legal transformations accompanied by market trends such as the tabloidization of the media, so-called infotainment, first and foremost, and citizen journalism, on the other, have all generated great doubts about the status of journalists. This calls for a redefinition of the professional position and role of journalists in modern societies. All these transformations may pose a serious threat to the model of traditional journalism and the social and professional position of journalists. The book introduced here consists of four parts presenting various aspects of professionalization of journalism. The first part treats of diverse topics concerning the essence of this issue as well as the legal status of journalists' profession. The second part features texts devoted to the issues of digital media. Part three deals with the disturbing phenomenon of hate speech. The main theme of the last part of the book concerns the issue of lobbying in the process of establishing intellectual property rights. The texts presented here have been written by scholars in the fields of law, media studies and political science on the one hand and practitioners (journalists) from several countries of Europe on the other. The editors hope that the publication will contribute to the ongoing discussion concerning both the journalists and journalism status in the era of dynamic technological transformation.

New Media and Politics Barrie Axford, Richard Huggins, 2001-01-26 Exploring the theme of the putative transformation of political modernity under the impact of new media, this book adopts a questioning approach to the ways in which cultural and technological factors are affecting the temper of political life and reflects the variety of normative thinking about and empirical research on the changing character of politics in mediatized cultures. New Media and Politics examines the extent to which commercial populism now dominates electoral and other political discourses, the ways in which the functions of leadership, government and political parties are modified by different forms of both old and new media, the democratic or undemocratic import of such changes and the ways in which the dominant territorial paradigm of politics is challenged by the space and time devouring capacities of electronic media.

New Media Martin Lister, 2003 Providing a comprehensive introduction to the culture, technologies, history and theories of new media, this book considers the ways in which they really are new, assesses whether a media and technological revolution is under way and formulates ways for media studies to respond to new technologies.

Multimedia-Standort Hamburg: Ein innovatives Milieu? Mario Hütte, 2001-01-24 Inhaltsangabe Problemstellung Die Entwicklung und Verknüpfung neuer bzw. neuartiger Produkte und Dienstleistungen aus den Bereichen Computer, Telekommunikation und Medien hat in den letzten Jahren wesentlich zur Beschleunigung des Transformationsprozesses von der Industrie zur Informationsgesellschaft beigetragen und wird heute mit dem Oberbegriff Multimedia belegt. Die Multimedia-Branche wird momentan in den Industrieländern von einer starken Wachstumsdynamik getrieben, wofür die steigende Zahl von Unternehmensneugründungen und die wachsenden Umsätze der betreffenden Firmen sprechen. Politiker erhoffen sich durch diesen Wirtschaftszweig Beschäftigungseffekte zur Senkung der Arbeitslosenzahlen und eine Katalysatorwirkung für die bräunliche Wirtschaft. Viele Regionen möchten am Wachstum dieser Branche teilhaben und versuchen die Ansiedlung von Multimedia-Unternehmen zu fördern. Dabei treten Städte und Regionen in eine zunehmende Konkurrenz untereinander und stehen vor dem Problem, sich hinsichtlich der Standortattraktivität positiv gegenüber Mitbewerbern abheben zu lassen. Hamburg scheint in gewisser Hinsicht eine solche Standortattraktivität zu besitzen, da die Stadt bezüglich Unternehmens- und Beschäftigtenzahlen neben Berlin, Köln und München zu den bedeutendsten deutschen Multimedia-Standorten gehört. Im Hinblick auf eine mögliche Vorbildfunktion für andere Städte und Regionen ist von

Interesse herauszufinden wo die besonderen Attraktivitätsmerkmale Hamburgs für Unternehmen aus dem Wirtschaftsbereich Multimedia liegen. Vergleichbare Studien haben gezeigt dass für die Multimedia Wirtschaft nicht nur klassische harte Standortfaktoren wie Verkehrsanbindung oder Verfügbarkeit geeigneter Gewerbeflächen Einfluss auf die Wahl des Standortes haben sondern in hohem Maße auch weiche und ultraweiche Standortfaktoren wie die Qualifikation der regional verfügbaren Arbeitskräfte die Aufenthaltsqualität der betreffenden Stadt oder Region oder die Qualität der Beziehungen zwischen den Akteuren innerhalb der Region. Weiterhin konnte nachgewiesen werden dass die Ansiedlung von Multimedia Firmen nicht den klassischen Standortmustern anderer Branchen wie dem verarbeitenden Gewerbe folgt wo klare Tendenzen zur Suburbanisierung auszumachen sind sondern eine deutlich höhere Orientierung hin zu städtischen Verdichtungsräumen speziell zu Kernstädten aufweist. Dieses Muster einzelbetrieblicher und gesamtwirtschaftlicher Organisation kann durch

Children and Their Changing Media Environment Sonia Livingstone, Moira Bovill, 2013-06-07 Focusing on the meanings, uses and impacts of new media in childhood, family life, peer culture and the relation between home and school, this volume sets out to address many of the questions, fears and hopes regarding the changing place of media in the lives of today's children and young people. The scholars contributing to this work argue that such questions, intellectual, empirical and policy related, can be productively addressed through cross national research. Hence this volume brings together researchers from 12 countries: Belgium, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, the United Kingdom, Israel, Italy, the Netherlands, Spain, Sweden and Switzerland to present original and comprehensive findings regarding the diffusion and significance of new media and information technologies among children. Inspired by parallels and difference between the arrival of television in the family home during the 1950s and the present day arrival of new media, the research is based on in depth interviews and a detailed comparative survey of 6 to 16 year olds across Europe and in Israel. The result is a comprehensive, detailed and fascinating account of how these technologies are rapidly becoming central to the daily lives of young people. As a resource for researchers and students in media and communication studies, leisure and cultural studies, social psychology and related areas, this volume provides crucial insights into the role of media in the lives of children. The findings included herein will also be of interest to policymakers in broadcasting technology and education throughout the world. Spatial Turn Jörg Döring, Tristan Thielmann, 2015-07-15 Warum reden alle vom Raum? Ist die Zeit der wissenschaftlichen Vorherrschaft der Zeit vorüber? Was tritt unter den Bedingungen der Globalisierung an die Stelle eines schwelenden Fortschritts und Entwicklungsparadigmas? Wenn mittlerweile fast alle Disziplinen in den Kultur und Sozialwissenschaften damit beschäftigt sind ihre Diskurse zu verorten, umlichen ist dann die Rede von einem Spatial Turn angemessen? Diese Anthologie leistet zweierlei: Zum ersten Mal erscheint auf dem deutschen Buchmarkt eine fächer bergreifende Anthologie zum Spatial Turn und zum ersten Mal findet eine Diskussion auch unter Beteiligung der Geographen statt jenen Raumspezialisten die sich in jüngster Zeit als scharfe Kritiker der fächer bergreifenden Raumkonjunktur profiliert haben.
