confidence of the totally ignorant is in my experience gendered 2 The presumption that women are unnecessary is a war that every woman faces every day It is a belief in their superfluity and it invites silence There is a happy medium between these poles and we should all meet there 3 The struggle of feminism to make rape date rape marital rape domestic violence and workplace sexual harassment crimes legal has been to make women credible and audible 4 In speaking engagements I often encounter men who explain things to me And they almost always do it in a manner that makes me feel like I lack intelligence

Making Sense of Society Alex Khasnabish, 2022-05-30T00:00:00Z Grounded in the sister disciplines of sociology and anthropology this textbook is an accessible and critical introduction to contemporary social research Alex Khasnabish eschews the common disciplinary silos in favour of an integrated approach to understanding and practising critical social research Situated in the North American context the text draws on cross cultural examples to give readers a clear sense of the diversity in human social relations It is organized thematically in a way that introduces readers to the core areas of social research and social organization and takes an unapologetically radical approach in identifying the relations of oppression and exploitation that give rise to what most corporate textbooks euphemistically identify as social problems Focusing on key dynamics and processes at the heart of so many contemporary issues and public conversations this text highlights the ways in which critical social research can contribute to exploring understanding and forging alternatives to an increasingly bankrupt violent unstable and unjust status quo

The End of Man Joanna Zylińska, 2018-03-20 Debugging the Anthropocene's insistence on apocalyptic tropes Where the Anthropocene has become linked to an apocalyptic narrative and where this narrative carries a widespread escapist belief that salvation will come from a supernatural elsewhere Joanna Zylińska has a different take The End of Man rethinks the prophecy of the end of humans interrogating the rise in populism around the world and offering an ethical vision of a feminist counterapocalypse which challenges many of the masculinist and technicist solutions to our planetary crises The book is accompanied by a short photo film Exit Man which ultimately asks If unbridled progress is no longer an option what kinds of coexistences and collaborations do we create in its aftermath
