Portuguese and Luso-Asian Legacies in Southeast Asia, 1511-2011, vol. 1 Laura

Jarnagin,2003-08-01 In 1511 a Portuguese expedition under the command of Afonso de Albuquerque arrived on the shores of Malacca taking control of the prosperous Malayan port city after a swift military campaign Portugal a peripheral but then technologically advanced country in southwestern Europe since the latter fifteenth century had been in the process of establishing solid outposts all along Asia's litoral in order to participate in the most active and profitable maritime trading routes of the day As it turned out the Portuguese presence and influence in the Malayan Peninsula and elsewhere in continental and insular Asia expanded far beyond the sphere of commerce and extended over time well into the twenty first century Five hundred years later a conference held in Singapore brought together a large group of scholars from widely different national academic and disciplinary contexts to analyse and discuss the intricate consequences of Portuguese interactions in Asia over the longue duree The result of these discussions is a stimulating set of case studies that as a rule combine original archival and or field research with innovative historiographical perspectives Luso Asian communities real and imagined and Luso Asian heritage material and symbolic are studied with depth and insight The range of thematic chronological and geographic areas covered in these proceeding is truly remarkable showing not only the extraordinary relevance of revisiting Luso Asian interactions in the longer term but also the surprising dynamism within an area of studies which seemed on the verge of exhaustion After all archives from all over the world from Rio de Janeiro to London from Lisbon to Rome and from Goa to Macao might still hold some secrets on the subject of Luso Asian relations when duly explored by resourceful scholars Rui M Loureiro Centro de Historia de Alem Mar Lisbon

Making Heritage in Malaysia Sharmani Patricia Gabriel,2020-02-26 This book offers a scholarly perspective on heritage as a discourse concept and lived experience in Malaysia It argues that heritage is not a received narrative but a construct in the making Starting with alternative ways of museumising heritage the book then addresses a broad range of issues involving multicultural and folklore heritage the small town nostalgia and the environment and transnationalism and cosmopolitanism In so doing it delivers an intervention in received ways of talking about and doing heritage in academic as well as state and public discourse in Malaysia which are largely dominated by perspectives that do not sufficiently engage with the cultural complexities and sociopolitical implications of heritage The book also critically explores the politics and dynamics of heritage production in Malaysia to contest Malaysian heritage as a stable narrative exploring both its cogency and contingency and builds on a deep engagement with a non western society in the service of provincialising critical heritage studies with the broader goal of contributing to Malaysian studies
