Geomatics in Tsunami Sm Ramasamy, 2006 Contributed articles chiefly with reference to India Popular Photography, 2005-08 Powerful Pictures: Rock Art Research Histories around the World Jamie Hampson, Sam Challis, Joakim Goldhahn, 2022-12-29 Focusing on stunning paintings and engravings from around the world 16 papers interrogate the driving forces behind global rock art research Many of the motifs featured were created by indigenous hunter gatherer groups this book sheds new light on non Western rituals and worldviews many of which are threatened or on the point of extinction Photography as a Social Research Method Sten Langmann, David Pick, 2017-12-12 This book focuses on photography within the social research field building a solid foundation for photography as a social research method and describing different techniques and applications of photo research It provides a comprehensive approach to research photography from preparation and the ethical considerations that need to be understood prior to going into the field to collecting data analysis and preparing research for publication It also introduces artistic genres of photography to help readers with the choices they make when pursuing photographic research and as a reminder that when collecting photographs that they are in fact producing art The ethical issues examined place a new focus on dignity and considerations of participant anonymity and recognition informed consent working with vulnerable groups unequal power relationships and possible intervention Combining preparation and ethics it examines how best to collect and take good photographs and explores the practical issues of stigma and introduces Verstaendnis german understanding to aid researchers in the field Subsequently the book discusses the different photo analytical approaches for researchers and provides examples of how to analyse photographs using the different techniques Lastly it offers guidelines with examples for researchers wanting to publish their work Visual Anthropology Fadwa El Guindi, 2004-11-15 El Guindi provides a comprehensive guide to the methods of visual anthropology and the use of film in cross cultural research and ethnography She shows how visual media photographic filmic interactive is now an accepted part of the anthropological process a vital tool that reflects and produces knowledge about the range of cultures and about culture itself It preserves the integrity of people objects and events in their cultural context and expands our horizons beyond the reach of memory culture El Guindi places visual anthropology within an empirically based analytic framework built on systematic observation identifying the research cycle that begins with data gathering and leads to visual ethnographic construction that is anthropological in method process and product She explains how indigenous professional and amateur forms of pictorial auditory materials are grounded in personal social cultural and ideological contexts and describes the non Western critique of the Western traditions of visual anthropology Her book is an excellent guide for ethnographic research and for film and other media instruction concerned with cross cultural representation Social Media in South India Shriram Venkatraman, 2017-06-09 One of the first ethnographic studies to explore use of social media in the everyday lives of people in Tamil Nadu Social Media in South India provides an understanding of this subject in a region experiencing rapid transformation The influx of IT companies over the past decade into what was once a space dominated by agriculture has resulted in a complex juxtaposition between an evolving knowledge economy and the traditions of rural life While certain class tensions have emerged in response to this juxtaposition a study of social media in the region suggests that similarities have also transpired observed most clearly in the blurring of boundaries between work and life for both the old residents and the new Venkatraman explores the impact of social media at home work and school and analyses the influence of class caste age and gender on how and which social media platforms are used in different contexts These factors he argues have a significant effect on social media use suggesting that social media in South India while seeming to induce societal change actually remains bound by local traditions and practices

The Violence of Care Sameena Mulla, 2023-11-21 Winner 2017 Margaret Mead Award presented by the American Anthropological Association and the Society for Applied Anthropology Honorable Mention 2015 Eileen Basker Memorial Prize presented by the Society for Medical Anthropology Analyzes the ways in which nurses work to collect and preserve evidence while addressing the needs of sexual assault victims as patients Every year in the US thousands of women and hundreds of men participate in sexual assault forensic examinations Drawing on four years of participatory research in a Baltimore emergency room Sameena Mulla reveals the realities of sexual assault response in the forensic age Taking an approach developed at the intersection of medical and legal anthropology she analyzes the ways in which nurses work to collect and preserve evidence while addressing the needs of sexual assault victims as patients Mulla argues that blending the work of care and forensic investigation into a single intervention shapes how victims of violence understand their own suffering recovery and access to justice in short what it means to be a victim As nurses race the clock to preserve biological evidence institutional practices technologies and even state requirements for documentation undermine the way in which they are able to offer psychological and physical care Yet most of the evidence they collect never reaches the courtroom and does little to increase the number of guilty verdicts Mulla illustrates the violence of care with painstaking detail illuminating why victims continue to experience what many call secondary rape during forensic intervention even as forensic nursing is increasingly professionalized Revictimization can occur even at the hands of conscientious nurses simply because they are governed by institutional requirements that shape their practices The Violence of Care challenges the uncritical adoption of forensic practice in sexual assault intervention and post rape care showing how forensic intervention profoundly impacts the experiences of violence justice healing and recovery for victims of rape and sexual assault

Lineages and Advancements in Material Culture

Studies Timothy Carroll, Antonia Walford, Shireen Walton, 2020-11-10 This volume comprises a curated conversation between members of the Material Culture Section of University College London Anthropology In laying out the state of play in the field it challenges how the anthropology of material culture is being done and argues for new directions of enquiry and new methods of investigation The contributors consider the ramifications of specific research methods and explore new methodological frameworks to address areas of human experience that require a new analytical approach The case studies draw from a range of contexts including digital objects infrastructure data extraterrestriality ethnographic curation and medical materiality They include timely reappraisals of now classical analytical models that have shaped the way we understand the object the discipline knowledge formation and the artefact

Photo-Attractions

Ajay Sinha, 2022-11-11 In Spring 1938 an Indian dancer named Ram Gopal and an American writer photographer named Carl Van Vechten came together for a photoshoot in New York City Ram Gopal was a pioneer of classical Indian dance and Van Vechten was reputed as a prominent white patron of the African American movement called the Harlem Renaissance Photo Attractions describes the interpersonal desires and expectations of the two men that took shape when the dancer took pose in exotic costumes in front of Van Vechten's Leica camera The spectacular images provide a rare and compelling record of an underrepresented history of transcultural exchanges during the interwar years of early 20th century made briefly visible through photography Art historian Ajay Sinha uses these hitherto unpublished photographs and archival research to raise provocative and important questions about photographic technology colonial histories race sexuality and transcultural desires Challenging the assumption that Gopal was merely objectified by Van Vechten's Orientalist gaze he explores the ways in which the Indian dancer co-authored the photos In Sinha's reading Van Vechten's New York studio becomes a promiscuous contact zone between world cultures where a photo erotic triangle is formed between the American photographer Indian dancer and

German camera A groundbreaking study of global modernity Photo Attractions brings scholarship on American photography literature race and sexual economies into conversation with work on South Asian visual culture dance and gender In these remarkable historical documents it locates the pleasure taken in cultural difference that still resonates today
