Discourse And Practice:

Discourse and Practice Theo van Leeuwen, 2008-05-01 Adding a new introduction and two previously unpublished papers Discourse and Practice New Tools for Critical Discourse Analysis brings together van Leeuwen's methodological work on discourse analysis of the last 15 years Discourse van Leeuwen argues is a resource for representation a knowledge about some aspect of reality which can be drawn upon when that aspect of reality has to be represented a framework for making sense of things And they are plural There can be different discourses different ways of making sense of the same aspect of reality that serve different interests and will therefore be used in different social contexts However abstract some discourses are discourses ultimately always represent doings van Leeuwen argues Doing is the foundation of knowing and social practices are the foundation of discourses Studying children's books newspaper reports brochures and other texts as well as photographs and children's toys van Leeuwen investigates what can happen when practices are transformed into discourses and provides analytical tools for reconstructing discourses from texts Throughout the book van Leeuwen makes connections between sociological and linguistic or semiotic concepts and methods to ensure the social and critical relevance of his analytical categories van Leeuwen's work has already been widely used by critical discourse analysts across the world This volume will be a welcome guide for anyone looking for a form of discourse analysis that is both explicit and methodical and critically incisive

Mediated Discourse Ron Scollon, 2002-09-26 Mediated Discourse The Nexus of Practice sets out a discursive theory of human action Language and action are intimately related The difficult question to answer is how they are related Mediated Discourse Theory looks into social relationships to see how the use of language is both a form of action in itself and is also indirectly related to all other forms of human action Through the empirical study of a one year old child learning to exchange objects with caregivers Scollon challenges the commonly held claim that all practices are represented in discourse and that all discourse has the function of structuring practice Calling upon work in interactional sociolinguistics critical discourse analysis anthropological linguistics sociocultural psychology and intercultural communication the Mediated Discourse Theory set out in this book resolves current problematic issues such as how practices are learned across the boundaries of groups and how individuals come to be socialized as social actors

Discourse Theory and Practice Margaret Wetherell, Stephanie Taylor, Simeon J Yates, 2001-05-25 Discourse Theory and Practice is much more than a collection of key classic articles and papers in the field of discourse analysis The aim of the book is to introduce students to the major figures in the field and to some of their writings which combined with the interspersed editorial commentaries should allow students to understand the key epistemological and methodological issues of discourse theory and practice The

Reader is organized into four coherent Parts namely Foundations and Building Blocks Social Interaction Minds Selves and Sense Making and Culture and Social Relations Key readings include works by Stuart Hall Jonathan Potter David Silverman Erving Goffman Teun van Dijk Derek Edwards and Michael Billig Chapters introduce the student to each individual and their reading contextualizing each in terms of their contribution to the field theoretical standpoint and individual method of doing discourse analysis The many didactic elements of the book make it ideal as an introduction to the study of discourse for all students of psychology sociology linguistics or cultural studies

Discourse : Event : Practice Franka Schäfer, 2025-10-14

With Discourse Event Practice the author presents a dynamic theoretical program for a discourse theoretically informed sociology of practice oriented toward the concept of the event She outlines the sociological relationship between the concepts of discourse event and practice diagnoses their distorted relationship and explains the dynamization of dichotomous conceptions as the guiding principle of her argumentation Through a reconstruction of the discourse theoretical foundations the practical theoretical conditions the situation of the method discussion and the starting point of sociological protest research she forms the basis of the research program and marks the question of the association of discourses and practices as a gap which is elucidated using the example of protest research The core of the book is a nuanced examination of the concept of event developed from the influence of Foucault as a primary basis for transformation and translated into a concept of event that ensures a relationship between discourse and practice that overcomes dichotomies within a post structuralist materialism In addition the potential of the program lies in the expansion of practice studies to include an explicit perspective on power and domination illustrated through an analysis of the practices of resistance as exemplified by the Yippie Festival of Life

The complexity of these topics has fascinated researchers from various backgrounds including psychologists, cognitive or learning scientists, mathematicians and mathematics educators. Among those researchers, two scholars with a similar background, Alan Schoenfeld in the United States and Gnter T rner in Germany, are internationally recognized for their contributions to these topics. To celebrate their 65th birthdays in 2012, this book brought together many scholars to reflect on how their own work has built upon and continued Alan and Gnter's work in mathematics education. Beyond providing a useful overview, it contextualizes CDA theories and methods in accounts of discourse in classroom and other settings.

Contemporary Critical Discourse Studies Christopher Hart, Piotr Cap, 2014-11-07 CDS is a multifarious field constantly developing different methodological frameworks for analysing dynamically evolving aspects of language in a broad range of socio-political and institutional contexts. This volume is a cutting edge interdisciplinary account of these theoretical and empirical developments. It presents an up to date survey of Critical Discourse Studies (CDS) covering both the theoretical landscape and the analytical territories that it extends over. It is intended for critical scholars and students who wish to keep abreast of the current state of the art. The book is divided into two parts. In the first part, the chapters are organised around different methodological perspectives for CDS: history, cognition, multimodality and corpora, among others. In the second part, the chapters are organised around particular discourse types and topics investigated in CDS, both traditionally (e.g. issues of racism and gender inequality) and only more recently (e.g. issues of health, public policy and the environment). This is altogether an essential new reference work for all CDS practitioners.

UN Intervention Practices in Iraq Kerstin

Eppert,2019-01-17 This book analyzes UN intervention discourses and practices in Iraq and develops a deconstructive approach to international interventions Hitherto most analyses of the conflict in Iraq in 2003 have established the UN s role as path dependent on the foreign policy of the US and the UK and largely portrayed it as a mediator and fervent opponent of international intervention Analyzing the UN Security Council and the later UN Assistance Mission for Iraq UNAMI from 2000 to 2010 this book undoes this path dependency and puts the UN s relationship with Iraq center stage It develops a deconstructive critical approach that identifies subject construction and reflexivity as central processes of intervention practices and concludes that non intervention is deeply connected to the stabilization of political identities and representations Using extensive primary data the book contributes a new perspective on international interventions This book will be of much interest to students of peace and conflict studies intervention and statebuilding Middle Eastern studies and International Relations      Complicity in Discourse and Practice Jef Verschueren,2021-07-19 It is commonplace to say that we are living in troubled times Liberal democracy is in crisis Academic freedom is seriously constrained The media offers less insight and analysis than could be expected given the proliferation of communication tools Based on decades of research into the social and ideological functioning of discourse and with a focus on politics universities and the media Jef Verschueren offers an analysis of current practices asks whether we are all complicit and makes suggestions for what we can do Central to this book is the notion of derailed reflexivity referring to the observation that politics institutions and news reporting tend to be excessively aimed at public opinion impression management and clicks to the detriment of policies addressing social justice issues high quality service and media content Highlighting that education is the cornerstone for democratic choices and ensures that we can critically assess media content this book shows that shared responsibility can be a source of hope and that everyone has the power to intervene Complicity in Discourse and Practice is a call to action for readers and a plea for actively minding the ecology of the public sphere
