West African Literatures Stephanie Newell, 2006-06-08 The Oxford Studies in Postcolonial Literatures series general editor Elleke Boehmer offers stimulating and accessible introductions to definitive topics and key genres and regions within the rapidly diversifying field of postcolonial literary studies in English This study of West African literatures interweaves the analysis of fiction drama and poetry with an exploration of the broader political cultural and intellectual contexts within which West African writers work Anglophone literatures form the central focus of the book with comparative comments on vernacular literature francophone writing and oral literatures and detailed discussion of selected francophone texts in translation e g Senghor Tadjou Beyala B Sembene Moving from a discussion of nationalist and anti colonial writing in the period before independence towards the more experimental writings of contemporary authors such as Vronique Tadjou Ivory Coast Syl Cheney Coker Sierra Leone and Kojo Laing Ghana the book constantly relates texts to the social and political history of West Africa Canonical internationally well known writers such as Chinua Achebe and Wole Soyinka are positioned in relation to the literary cultures and debates which surrounded them when they first produced their seminal texts the discussions and disagreements which have grown up around their work in subsequent decades are also considered The work of new and lesser known writers is also considered including Niyi Osundare Nigeria and Kofi Anyidoho Ghana In order to convey a sense of the rich and complex societies that are clustered beneath the umbrella term postcolonial emphasis is placed on West Africa's diverse oral and popular cultures and the ways in which local intellectuals and readers have responded to the most prominent authors through the aesthetic frameworks generated by these forms

Literacies, Literature and Learning Karin Murris, Joanna Haynes, 2018-06-13 Literacies Literature and Learning Reading Classrooms Differently attends to pressing questions in literacy education such as the poor quality of many children's experiences as readers routine disregard for their thinking and the degrading impact of narrow skills measurement and comparison This cutting edge book moves beyond social psychological and scientific categories that focus on individualistic and linear notions of the knowing subject of progress and development and of child as less than fully human It adopts a posthumanist framework to explore new perspectives for teaching learning and research Authors from diverse disciplines and continents have collaborated to interrogate the colonising characteristics of humanism and to imagine a different more just reading of a literacy classroom Questions of de colonisation are tackled through the exploration of both education and research practices that seek to de centre the human and include the more than human Inspired by an example of high quality children's literature playful philosophical teaching and the power of the material the authors show how the chapters diffract with one another thereby opening up radical possibilities for a different doing of childhood The book hopes to help transform adult child relationships in schools and universities As such it should be of great interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the areas of literacy philosophy law education the wider social sciences the arts health sciences and architecture It should also be essential reading for teacher educators and practitioners around the world Oye, Ogun

African Fiction Brenda Cooper,2012-10-12 This study contextualizes magical realism within current debates and theories of postcoloniality and examines the fiction of three of its West African pioneers Syl Cheney Coker of Sierra Leone Ben Okri of Nigeria and Kojo Laing of Ghana Brenda Cooper explores the distinct elements of the genre in a West African context and in relation to a range of global expressions of magical realism from the work of Gabriel Garcia Marquez to that of Salman Rushdie wider contemporary trends in African writing with particular attention to how the realism of authors such as Chinua Achebe and Wole Soyinka has been connected with nationalist agendas This is a fascinating and important work for all those working on African literature magical realism or postcoloniality Lexikon der afrikanistischen Erzählforschung Wilhelm J. G. Möhlig,1998 Nigerian Speculative Fiction Chukwunonso Ezeiyoke,2025-05-30 This book is an exciting addition to a gap in non Western genre studies of African fiction It challenges the dominant canonicity of African literature which is overshadowed by texts concerned with the colonial discourse and writing back while exploring speculative themes in Nigerian fiction and writing that stem from an African cosmology and culture The book examines important twentieth century precursors of the post millennial boom in Nigerian Speculative Fiction SF reading texts that were omitted from the Nigerian literary canon developed in the 1960s It combines an analysis of recent fiction and criticism with a historical overview of the development of the under researched area of Nigerian SF Through these readings the author demonstrates the range of concerns explored by Nigerian SF including futurism posthumanism horror fantasy and science fiction among others This book argues that these narratives exceed the binary implicitly sustained by the texts that write back to the West and offers new readings of contemporary Nigerian SF works that imagine futures different from the past and present conditions imposed by capitalism colonialism and imperialism Providing new theoretical tools and concepts this book in the Studies in Global Genre Fiction series will be of interest to readers and scholars working in the fields of African studies
