Dream Of Ding Village Yan Lianke:

Dream of Ding Village Yan Lianke, 2011-04-21 Told through the eyes of Xiao Qiang a young boy killed by his family s neighbours this seminal novel tells the tragic and shocking story of the blood contamination scandal in China s Henan province Villagers coerced into selling vast quantities of blood for money are infected with the AIDS virus when they re injected with plasma to prevent the onset of anaemia Whole villages are wiped out as the sickness spreads but no one takes responsibility for the epidemic and nothing is done to care for those left behind As Xiao tells of the fate of his village his family is torn apart by suspicion and retribution This searing novel relates the tragedy of one village among many and the absurdity of a situation caused and perpetuated by the Chinese government With black humour and biting satire Yan Lianke s novel is a powerful allegory of the moral vacuum at the heart of Communist China tracing the relentless destruction of a community I come from the bottom of society All my relatives live in Henan one of the poorest areas of China When I think of people's situation there it is impossible not to feel angry and emotional Anger and passion are the soul of my work Yan Ideology and Form in Yan Lianke's Fiction Haiyan Xie, 2023-02-10 Xie analyzes three novels by the international Lianke award winning Chinese writer Yan Lianke and investigates how his signature mythorealist form produces textual meanings that subvert the totalizing reality prescribed by literary realism The term mythorealism which Yan coined to describe his own writing style refers to a set of literary devices that incorporate both Chinese and Western literary elements while remaining primarily grounded in Chinese folk culture and literary tradition In his use of mythorealism carrying a burden of social critique that cannot allow itself to become political Yan transcends the temporality and provinciality of immediate social events and transforms his potential socio political commentaries into more diversified concerns for humanity existential issues and spiritual crisis Xie identifies three modes of mythorealist narrative exemplified in Yan's three novels the minjian folk mode in Dream of Ding Village the allusive mode in Ballad Hymn Ode and the enigmatic mode in The Four Books By positioning itself against an ambiguous articulation of social determinants of historical events that would perhaps be more straightforward in a purely realist text each mode of mythorealism moves its narrative from the overt politicality of the subject matter to the existential riddle of negotiating an alternative reality A groundbreaking study of one of contemporary China's most important authors that will be of great value to scholars and students of Chinese literature Global Healing Karen Laura Thornber, 2020-03-02 Read an interview with Karen Thornber In Global Healing Literature Advocacy Care Karen Laura Thornber analyzes how narratives from diverse communities globally engage with a broad variety of diseases and other serious health conditions and advocate for empathic compassionate and respectful care that facilitates healing and enables wellbeing The three parts of this book discuss writings from Africa the Americas Asia Europe the Middle East and Oceania that implore societies to shatter the devastating social stigmas which prevent billions from accessing effective care to increase the availability of quality person focused healthcare and to prioritize partnerships that facilitate healing and enable wellbeing for both patients and loved ones Thornber's Global Healing remaps the contours of comparative literature world literature the medical humanities and the health humanities Watch a video interview with Thornber by the Mahindra Humanities Center part of their conversations on Covid 19 Read an interview with Thornber on Brill's Humanities Matter Zhuangzi and Modern Chinese Literature Jianmei Liu, 2016 This is a powerful account of how the ruin and resurrection of Zhuangzi in modern China's literary history correspond to the rise and fall of modern Chinese individuality By examining the twentieth century reinterpretation and appropriation of Zhuangzi the author explores modern Chinese writers complicated relationship with tradition The Oxford Handbook of Modern Chinese Literatures Carlos Rojas, Andrea Bachner, 2016-07-28 With over forty original essays The Oxford Handbook of Modern Chinese Literatures offers an in depth engagement with the current analytical methodologies and critical practices that are shaping the field in the twenty first century Divided into three sections Structure Taxonomy and Methodology the volume carefully moves across approaches genres and forms to address a rich range topics that include popular culture in Late Qing China Zhang Guangyu s Journey to the West in Cartoons writings of Southeast Asian migrants in Taiwan the Chinese Anglophone Novel and depictions of HIV Discourses of Disease Howard Y. F. Choy, 2016-05-18 The meanings of AIDS in Chu T ien wen s Notes of a Desolate Man disease have undergone such drastic changes with the introduction of modern Western medicine into China during the last two hundred years that new discourses have been invented to theorize illness redefine health and reconstruct classes and genders As a consequence medical literature is rewritten with histories of hygiene studies of psychopathology and stories of cancer disabilities and pandemics This edited volume includes studies of discourses about both bodily and psychiatric illness in modern China bringing together ground breaking scholarships that reconfigure the fields of history literature film psychology anthropology and gender studies by tracing the pathological path of the Sick Man of East Asia through the nineteenth and twentieth centuries into the new millennium Questioning Borders Robin Visser, 2023-09-12 Indigenous knowledge of local ecosystems often challenges settler colonial cosmologies that naturalize resource extraction and the relocation of nomadic hunting foraging or fishing peoples Questioning Borders explores recent ecoliterature by Han and non Han Indigenous writers of China and Taiwan analyzing relations among humans animals ecosystems and the cosmos in search of alternative possibilities for creativity and consciousness Informed by extensive field research Robin Visser compares literary works by Bai Bunun Kazakh Mongol Tao Tibetan Uyghur Wa Yi and Han Chinese writers set in Xinjiang Tibet Inner Mongolia Southwest China and Taiwan sites of extensive development migration and climate change impacts Visser contrasts the dominant Han Chinese cosmology of center and periphery that informs what she calls Beijing Westerns with Indigenous and hybridized ways of relating to the world that challenge borders binaries and hierarchies By centering Indigenous cosmologies this book aims to decolonize approaches to ecocriticism comparative literature and Chinese and Sinophone studies as well as to inspire new modes of sustainable flourishing in the Anthropocene Red Legacies in China

Jie Li, Enhua Zhang, 2020-10-26 What has contemporary China inherited from its revolutionary past How do the realities and memories aesthetics and practices of the Mao era still reverberate in the post Mao cultural landscape The essays in this volume propose red legacies as a new critical framework from which to examine the profusion of cultural productions and afterlives of the communist revolution in order to understand China's continuities and transformations from socialism to postsocialism Organized into five parts red foundations red icons red classics red bodies and red shadows the book s interdisciplinary contributions focus on visual and performing arts literature and film language and thought architecture museums and memorials Mediating at once unfulfilled ideals and unmourned ghosts across generations red cultural legacies suggest both inheritance and debt and can be mobilized to support as well as to critique the status quo Sharae Deckard, Michael Niblett, Stephen Shapiro, 2024-03-01 Tracking Capital introduces new ways to understand the entanglement of cultural forms and practices in economic social and ecological crises and struggles Building on the fundamental insights of world systems analysis the book offers readers a series of rubrics keywords and concepts such as zemiperiphery registration and commodity chains to enable more integrated transdisciplinary methods of literary and cultural study Throughout Sharae Deckard Michael Niblett and Stephen Shapiro foreground the role of culture in both consolidating and contesting the classism racism sexism and ecocide constitutive of the modern world system In the context of capitalism's ongoing bloody war against the poor the powerless and the planet Tracking Capital provides tools with which to diagnose the morbid symptoms of the present as well as to plot possible steps on the road to a better future the Chinese Medical Humanities Vivienne Lo, Chris Berry, Guo Liping, 2019-12-06 Film and the Chinese Medical Humanities is the first book to reflect on the power of film in representing medical and health discourse in China in both the past and the present as well as in shaping its future Drawing on both feature and documentary films from mainland China the chapters each engage with the field of medicine through the visual arts They cover themes such as the history of doctors and their concepts of disease and therapies understanding the patient experience of illness and death and establishing empathy and compassion in medical practice as well as the HIV AIDs epidemic during the 1980s and 90s and changing attitudes towards disability Inherently interdisciplinary in nature the contributors therefore provide different perspectives from the fields of history psychiatry film studies anthropology linguistics public health and occupational therapy as they relate to China and people who identify as Chinese Their combined approaches are united by a passion for improving the cross cultural understanding of the body and ultimately healthcare itself A key resource for educators in the Medical Humanities this book will be useful to students and scholars of Chinese Studies and Film Studies as well as global health medical anthropology and medical history SARS Stories Belinda Kong, 2023-12-18 In SARS Stories Belinda Kong delves into the cultural archive of the 2003 SARS pandemic examining Chinese language creative works and social practices at the epicenters of the outbreak in China and Hong Kong As the COVID 19 pandemic has highlighted issues of anti Asian racism and sinophobia Kong traces how Chinese people navigated the SARS pandemic and created meaning amid crisis through cultures of epidemic expression From sentimental romances and Cantopop songs to raunchy sex comedies and crowdsourced ghost tales unexpected and minor genres and creators of Chinese popular culture highlight the resilience and humanity of those living through the pandemic Rather than narrating pandemic life in terms of crisis and catastrophe Kong argues that these works highlight Chinese practices of community care and love amid disease She also highlights the persistence of orientalism in anglophone accounts of SARS index patients and global reporting on COVID era China Kong shows how the Chinese experiences of living with SARS can reshape global feelings toward pandemic social life and foster greater fellowship in the face of pandemics Dream of Ding Village Lianke Yan, 2011 A previously banned work based on a true scandal finds an impoverished village targeted by a blood selling operation that leads to a catastrophic outbreak of AIDS and decimates an entire community By the award winning author of Serve the People Homesickness Carlos Rojas, 2015-04-06 Carlos Rojas focuses on the trope of homesickness in China discomfort caused not by a longing for home but by excessive proximity to it This inverse homesickness marks a process of movement away from the home conceived of as spaces associated with the nation family and individual body and gives rise to the possibility of long term health Chinese Novels in Translation since 1978 Yun Wu, 2024-10-14 This book aims to complement the traditional focus of translation studies which has primarily centered on translating English into other languages It presents a comprehensive analysis of the reverse translation trajectory exploring the movement of Chinese literature into the core English literary domain The book aims to explore the ideological and sociological dynamics that underlie the translation of contemporary Chinese novels This is achieved through an examination of the translation selection process translation paratexts and the roles of translation agents Case studies are employed to illustrate specific linguistic literary and cultural challenges within translation It dissects the cultural and literary implications of translating genres such as women s writing science fiction and Internet literature The argument presented is that the translation of peripheral literature is indispensable in shaping global literature Beyond its literary implications the book identifies the political significance inherent in such reverse translation endeavors It suggests that the translation of Chinese literature holds notable political interest for the Chinese government which aims to reshape China s image and bolster the nation s soft power through literary translation This work will be an essential read to students and scholars of translation studies comparative literature and Chinese studies Historical Dictionary of the People's Republic of China Lawrence R. Sullivan, 2016-08-03 When the Chinese Communist Party CCP assumed power in October 1949 China was one of the poorest nations in the world and so weak it had been conquered in the late 1930s and early 1940s by its neighbor Japan a country one 10th its size More than five decades later the People's Republic of China PRC is an emerging economic political and major military power with the world's fastest growing economy and largest population 1 35 billion in 2015 A member of the United Nations Security Council since the early 1970s and a nuclear power China wields enormous influence in the world community while at home what was once a nation of largely poverty stricken peasants and urban areas with little to no industry has been transformed into an increasingly urbanized society with a growing middle class and an industrial and service sector that leads the world in such industries as steel and textiles while becoming a major player in computers and telecommunications All the while the country has remained under the tight political control of a one party system dominated by the Chinese Communist Party that despite periods of intense political conflict and turmoil governs China with a membership in 2014 of 88 million people the largest single organization on earth This third edition of Historical Dictionary of the People's Republic of China contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about China Literature and Religion Ou Guang-an, David Jasper, 2022-07-28 How does one culture read another In Literature and Religion two scholars one from China and one from the West each read texts from the other's culture as a means of dialogue A key issue in such an enterprise is the nature of religion and what we understand by that term in a world in which ancient religious customs seem to be dying or under threat Does a comparative study of religious literature offer a way towards mutual understanding or merely illustrate our differences Underpinned by their own friendship these two partners in conversation show what is possible Context Angelica Duran, Yuhan Huang, 2014-11-01 In 2012 the Swedish Academy announced that Mo Yan had received the Nobel Prize in Literature for his work that with hallucinatory realism merges folk tales history and the contemporary The announcement marked the first time a resident of mainland China had ever received the award This is the first English language study of the Chinese writer s work and influence featuring essays from scholars in a range of disciplines from both China and the United States Its introduction twelve articles and epilogue aim to deepen and widen critical discussions of both a specific literary author and the globalization of Chinese literature more generally The book takes the root seeking movement with which Mo Yan's works are associated as a metaphor for its organizational structure. The four articles of Part I Leaves focus on Mo Yan's works as world literature exploring the long shadow his works have cast globally Howard Goldblatt Mo Yan's English translator explores the difficulties and rewards of interpreting his work while subsequent articles cover issues such as censorship and the performativity associated with being a global author Part II Trunk explores the nativist core of Mo Yan's works Through careful comparative treatment of related historical events the five articles in this section show how specific literary works intermingle with China's national and international politics its mid twentieth century visual culture and its rich religious and literary conventions including humor The three articles in Part III Roots delve into the theoretical and practical extensions of Mo Yan's works uncovering the vibrant critical and cultural systems that ground Eastern and Western literatures and cultures Mo Yan in Context concludes with an epilogue by sociologist Fenggang Yang offering a personal and globally aware reflection on the recognition Mo Yan's works have received at this historical juncture Blood Money Kathleen McLaughlin, 2023-02-28 A haunting Anne Helen Petersen author of Can t Even and deeply personal investigation of an underground for profit medical industry and the American underclass it drains for blood and profit Journalist Kathleen McLaughlin knew she d found a treatment that worked on her rare autoimmune disorder She had no idea it had been drawn from the veins of America s most vulnerable So begins McLaughlin s ten year investigation researching and reporting on the 20 billion a year business she found at the other end of her medication revealing a vampiric real life story of modern day greed Leah Sottile host of Bundyville Assigned to work in China where the plasma supply had been rocked by numerous scandals McLaughlin hid American plasma in her luggage during trips between the two countries And when she was warned by a Chinese researcher of troubling echoes between America's domestic plasma supply chain and the one she d seen spin out into chaos in China she knew she had to dig deeper Blood Money shares McLaughlin s decade long mission to learn the full story of where her medicine comes from She travels the United States in search of the truth about human blood plasma and learns that twenty million Americans each year sell their plasma for profit a human derived commodity extracted inside our borders to be processed and packaged for retail across the globe She investigates the thin evidence pharmaceutical companies have used to push plasma as a wonder drug for everything from COVID 19 to wrinkled skin And she unearths an American economic crisis hidden in plain sight single mothers college students laid off Rust Belt auto workers and a booming blood market at America's southern border where collection agencies target Mexican citizens willing to cross over and sell their plasma for substandard pay This captivating and anguished expos Publishers Weekly weaves together McLaughlin's personal battle to overcome illness while also facing her own complicity in this wheel of exploitation with an electrifying portrait of big business run amok Contagion Narratives R. Sreejith Varma, Ajanta Sircar, 2022-12-30 This volume is a collection of ten essays that direct their gaze to the unfolding of contagions in the non classical contexts of Asia and Africa Or to borrow from the title of one of Partha Chatterjee's books they are reflections on the pandemic in most of the world Featuring many scholars of the humanities and social sciences in the Global South these chapters take as their intellectual focus the political social as well as the ethical challenges posed by the contagions in the East Through analyses of literary narratives films video games this Contagion Narratives traces the manufactured narratives of victimization by majority communities and the lethal divides consequently being drawn between a reconstituted authentic majority and the more vulnerable minority other in these societies. The essays in this collection are animated by imaginations of liveable alternatives on a planet on the brink This volume traces lineages to Buchi Emecheta and Rabindranath Tagore rather than Albert Camus to Satyajit Ray and the indie traditions rather than Hollywood and to Buddhism rather than Christianity to track the historic journeys of modernity Using an eclectic set of analytical tools and strategies of textual criticism this volume argues that ideas of democracy even while they carry echoes of other societies are markedly different as they travel from Gaddafi s Libya to Wuhan under lockdown to colonial Bengal The World-Literary System and the Atlantic Sorcha Gunne, Neil Lazarus, 2020-12-30 The World Literary System and the Atlantic grapples with key questions about how American studies and the Atlantic region in general engages with new considerations of literary comparativism international literary space and the world literary system The edited collection furthers these discussions by placing them into a relationship with the theory of combined and uneven development a theory that has a long pedigree in Marxist sociology and political economy and that continues to stimulate debate across the social sciences but whose implications for culture have received less attention Drawing on the comparative modes concepts and methods being developed in the new world literary studies the essays cover a diverse range of topics such as the periodization of world literature racism and the world system singular modernity critical irrealism commodity frontiers semi peripherality and world ecology The chapters in this book were originally published in the journal Atlantic Studies
