Literature and the Child James Holt McGavran,James Holt MCGAVRAN,1998-04 The Romantic myth of childhood as a transhistorical holy time of innocence and spirituality uncorrupted by the adult world has been subjected in recent years to increasingly serious interrogation Was there ever really a time when mythic ideals were simple pure and uncomplicated The contributors to this book contend although in widely differing ways and not always approvingly that our culture is indeed still pervaded in this postmodern moment of the very late twentieth century by the Romantic conception of childhood which first emerged two hundred years ago In the wake of the French Revolution and the Industrial Revolution western Europe experienced another fin de siècle characterized by overwhelming material and institutional change and instability By historicizing the specific political social and economic conflicts at work within the notion of Romantic childhood the essayists in Literature and the Child show us how little these forces have changed over time and how enriching and empowering they can still be for children and their parents In the first section Romanticism Continued and Contested Alan Richardson and Mitzi Myers question the origins and ends of Romantic childhood In Romantic Ironies Postmodern Texts Dieter Petzold Richard Flynn and James McGavran argue that postmodern texts for both children and adults perpetuate the Romantic complexities of childhood Next in The Commerce of Children's Books Anne Lundin and Paula Connolly study the production and marketing of children's classics Finally in Romantic Ideas in Cultural Confrontations William Scheick and Teya Rosenberg investigate interactions of Romantic myths with those of other cultural systems

Gravitating Towards Success Daniel Theyagu, 2012-11 This is a book about how you can love your life and live it to the fullest Face it you have only one life I know there are people who believe that there may be a hereafter but hey you are not there yet You are here and now Take the cue from Lord Buddha Do not dwell in the past do not dream of the future concentrate the mind on the present moment So why waste your life when you can achieve whatever you want and gravitate towards success It does not matter where you were born or in what circumstances that you were born It does not matter whether you are physically challenged owing to some birth defect or through accident The human spirit is indomitable You can live your life in whatever way you want But to do this you need to take action You need to develop specific skills and adopt new habits and qualities You need to have the right attributes Pablo Picasso said Action is the foundational key to all success
