Europa: an Idea and a Journey Emanuel L. Paparella PhD, 2012-08-06 The essays in this book are the distillation of years of reflection writing lecturing and active participation in the ongoing debate on the cultural identity of the European Union the vicissitudes of the transatlantic dialogue the envisioning of new social paradigms the building of more solid and more relevant bridges of understanding between two continents that have a common Western humanistic tradition albeit synthesized to other cultures in America While the approach is personal it remains interdisciplinary and holistic throughout rooted in the poetic philosophy of history of Giambattista Vico and encompassing literature philosophy myth linguistics and political science on the edge of boundaries between the historical grand narrative the religious and even the quotidian and the anecdotal These thirty essays trace the origins of Western Civilization and the synthesis of Humanism and Christianity that is the Renaissance but also Janus like face they look forward to a new Renaissance and humanistic synthesis yet to be envisioned and forged that will dare to be both old and new that will encompass the poetical as well as the rational without losing sight of the universality of our common humanity The journey may be long arduous but it has already begun some sixty years ago Moreover these essays will appeal especially to those readers who are perplexed at the loss of humanistic modes of thought in our post modern technological society A book sure to stimulate the intellect and the imagination of its readers They are given to understand from the outset that Europe more than a geographical political reality is an evolving idea and it is her destiny to live or die as such The readers will be provided with a Vichian chart to assist them in intellectually navigating and journey on this unique idea called Europa

Wahl,2024-11-05 At the heart of the stories in Everything Flirts are some of life's trickiest questions Why is it so hard to make the first move on a date How do we find the person we will love If you finally find a person to love how do you convince them to love you back With a mixture of humor and reverence Sharon Wahl hijacks classic works of philosophy and turns their focus to love The philosopher Wittgenstein helps us consider the limits of language Does there exist an argument a logical deduction that will cause another person to love us The philosopher Zeno's laws of motion stipulate that we can only ever cross half of any distance This principle is applied to a first date where making a first move becomes more and more impossible because the movie this couple goes to see is a depressing mood killer A woman afraid of love applies Bentham's utilitarian principles to find her perfect match testing every man she meets until she finds one who passes every one of her tests Nonetheless she wonders Is he right for her Is she ready to fall in love forever The sublime and the ridiculous come together to playfully examine why love just might be a topic too hard for philosophers to explain Philosophy and Fiction Schuy R. Weishaar,2022-11-22 Fiction lies in order to tell the truth and seeks reality through shadows Philosophy attempts to dispel false realities it pursues clear understanding of things as they are While the relation of philosophy and fiction is perhaps paradoxical they implicate one another's picture of human experience This book uses fiction to help readers process philosophical themes and the philosophical reflection in turn helps clarify the fiction The study moves through roughly a hundred years of modern fiction from Washington Irving's The Devil and Tom Walker 1824 through James M Cain's Double Indemnity 1936 Several classic works of literary fiction are examined a few largely forgotten stories and several popular novels Reading fiction through the lens of philosophy helps readers perceive the complexity and richness of fiction reinvigorating the pursuit of wisdom that lies just beneath the surface of the words on the page Cumulative Book Index ,1998 A world list of books in the English language Paperbound Books in Print ,1991 El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2000 ,2000 The Journal of Philosophy ,1990 Covers topics in philosophy psychology and scientific methods Vols 31 include A Bibliography of philosophy 1933 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1996 Educating for Civic Dialogue in an Age of Uncivil Discourse Dennis Gunn,2020-03-23 Educating for Civic Dialogue in an Age of Uncivil Discourse addresses an urgent challenge to help students learn the skills of civic engagement by offering a framework for authentic cosmopolitan education As an invitation to ongoing civil dialogue with diverse voices in the classroom the book aims to foster the skills of democratic and global citizenship that allow students to find their voice as local national and global citizens outside of the classroom It suggests practical ways that teachers can promote the skills of attentive listening intelligent questioning reasonable positioning and responsible dialogue in order to encourage authentic civic discourse It also outlines specific pedagogical strategies designed to foster students cosmopolitan competencies as democratic and global citizens Everyday Writing Center Anne Ellen Geller,Michele Eodice,Frankie Condon,Meg Carroll,Elizabeth H. Boquet,2007-04-01 The Everyday Writing Center challenges some of the most comfortable traditions in its field and it does so with a commitment and persuasiveness that one seldom sees in scholarly discussion The book at its core is an argument for a new writing center consciousness one that makes the most of the writing center's unique and uniquely fluid identity Writing center specialists live with a liminality that has been acknowledged but not fully explored in the literature Their disciplinary identity is with the English department but their mission is cross disciplinary their research is pedagogical but they often report to central administration Their education is in humanities but their administrative role demands constant number crunching This fluid identity explains why Trickster an icon of spontaneity shape shifting and the creative potential of chaos has come to be a favorite cultural figure for the authors of this book Adapting Lewis Hyde and others these authors use Trickster to develop a theme of ordinary disruptions the everyday as a source of provocative learning moments that can liberate both student writers and writing center staff At the same time the authors parlay Etienne Wenger's concept of community of practice into an ethos for a dynamic learner centered pedagogy that is especially well suited to the peculiar teaching situation of the writing center Through Trickster they question not only accepted approaches to writing center pedagogy but conventional approaches to race time leadership and collaboration as well They encourage their field to exploit the creative potential in ordinary events that are normally seen as disruptive or defeating and they challenge traditions in the field that tend to isolate a writing center director from the department and campus Yet all is not random for the authors anchor this high risk high yield approach in their commitment to a version of Wenger's community of practice Conceiving of themselves their colleagues student writers and student tutors as co learners engaged together in a dynamic life of learning the authors find a way to ground the excess and randomness of the everyday while advancing an ethic of mutual respect and self challenge Committed to testing a region beyond the edge of convention the authors of The Everyday Writing Center constantly push themselves and their field toward deeper more significant research and more reflective dynamic teaching
