From Teacher to Lover Tara Star Johnson, 2008 In the decade since Mary Kay Letourneau's infamous liaison with her sixth grade student was exposed the reporting of sexual misconduct cases among teachers has proliferated The amount of media attention to women teachers in particular has increased because the public is titillated and baffled by such cases of aberrant female sexuality This is a qualitative case study of two high school English teachers Hannah and Kim who each had a sexual relationship with a student Their cases are examined along with those of Letourneau and Heather Ingram two headline heavy teachers whose backgrounds and patterns of behavior within the relationships are similar to Hannah's and Kim's Without judging or sympathizing this book elucidates the process by which these women crossed the ethical and professional line from teacher to lover Teacher educators concerned about raising issues of gender sexuality and embodiment in their classes will find this a thorny but compelling text for generating dialogue about the taboo topic of bodies in education

Gardeners' Chronicle and Agricultural Gazette, 1863 The Athenaeum, 1852 Alternatives to Incarceration Ebony L. Ruhland, 2025-09-19 Mass incarceration has been an ongoing problem in the United States There have been several research studies that explain the causes and consequences of mass incarceration A major contributor to incarceration is what happens in community supervision In several states many prison admissions result from technical violations from community supervision Historically alternatives to incarceration were developed to reduce prison populations and decrease the fiscal cost of incarceration They were to function as a diversion away from prison Alternatives also keep people in the community while holding them accountable and protecting community safety Yet given the high violations and revocations rather than serving as an alternative to incarceration community supervision becomes a delayed prison sentence The book underscores the importance of ongoing research and the need for effective strategies to reduce violations and revocations There is a clear need for more research to explore what works in reducing violations and revocations including the factors that contribute to these issues This ongoing exploration is crucial for the continued development and improvement of community corrections Chapters in this book address how barriers such as mental illness COVID 19 and financial constraints may impede success on supervision and highlight in the findings ways to increase success despite these barriers Further two chapters provide results on two commonly used strategies in community corrections risk assessments and electronic monitoring The chapter's findings build on previous works and provide recommendations for policy and research This book advances knowledge on reducing violations and revocations and increasing success in community supervision It was originally published as a special issue of Corrections Policy Practice and Research Initial Studies in American Letters Henry Augustin Beers, 1899 The Scarlet Mob of Scribblers Jamie Barlowe, 2000 Barlowe examines the causes and consequences of the continuing disregard for women's scholarship To that end she chronicles The Scarlet Letter's critical reception analyzes the history of Hester Prynne as a cultural icon in literature and film rereads the canonized criticism of the novel and offers a new reading of Hawthorne's work by rescuing marginalized interpretations from the
