This critical study of the African writer Chinua Achebe has been revised and a new chapter added. The underlying concern throughout is with his system of values and its response to the turbulent history of modern Nigeria: colonialism, independence, political disillusionment and military rule.

A Clash of Cultures Emmanuela C. Nwokeke C. P., 2023-04-23

Drawing on her personal experience as a Nigerian, Emmanuela C. Nwokeke C. P. provides a fresh analysis of the socio-political and cultural conditions of the Igbo people via Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart. She examines themes of identity, tradition, and resilience, as well as the ways in which the Igbo people both challenge and are challenged by the changing world. Readers are taken on a journey through the struggles of the Igbo people.

Professor Davide Del Bello, University of Bergamo, Italy: The book in your hands represents a detailed and creative work on the face-off between British colonialism and pre-colonial Igbo society. Drawing from Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart, the author brilliantly articulates a thriving Igbo culture prior to the British invasion. She challenges the Igbo pessimistic stereotypes that cast pre-colonial Igbo society as a primitive jungle devoid of civilization.

A Clash of Cultures is an excellent companion to Achebe's Things Fall Apart and provides an interpretative lens for appreciating its depth.

Lazarus Ejike Onuh S T L: A fascinating interpretation of Chinua Achebe and an insight to Things Fall Apart from a postcolonial point of view. A must-read for people from all walks of life.

Sr Juliet Emereonye C P: There is no doubt that Things Fall Apart is one of the most significant Nigerian novels, as the novel portrays in clear terms the conflict between Western culture and Igbo culture during the era of colonization. A Clash of Cultures gives a contemporary analysis of the impact of the conflict and extrays it in vivid terms. This book will give a reader a clear understanding of the current situation. It helps one to know where we are today and how we got there. I highly recommend this book to all.

Fr Jude Alih M S P: Emmanuela C. Nwokeke C. P. hails from Imo State, Nigeria. She is a Passionist Sister of St Paul of the Cross. She holds a BA in Foreign Languages and Literature and an MA in Pan American Languages and Literature from the University of Bergamo, Italy.

Themes Fall Apart But the Centre Holds, 2009: Selected papers from an international colloquium organized by the Association of Nigerian Authors and held at the University of Nigeria, Nsukka campus, April 25-26, 2008.

No Longer at Ease Chinua Achebe, 2008: A bestselling title in Heinemann's long-established African Writers Series, this novel is now being published with a new introduction as part of the new series African Writers Series Classics.

Nigeria Bedford N. Umez, 2000

Issues in African Literature Charles E. Nnolim, 2010: The multitudinous nature of African literature has always been an issue but really not a problem, although its oral base has been used by expatriate critics to accuse African literature of thin plots, superficial characterisation, and narrative structures. African literature, also, it is observed, is a mixed grill: it is oral, it is written in vernacular or tribal tongues, written in foreign tongues (English, French, Portuguese) and within the foreign language in which it is written (pidgin and creole) further bend the already bent language, giving African literature a further taint of linguistic impurity. African literature further suffers from the nature of its newness, and this created problems for the critic Because it is new and because its critics are in simultaneous existence with its writers we confront the problem of instant analysis Issues in African Literature continues the debate and tries to clarify contemporary burning issues in African literature by focussing on particular areas where the debate has been most concerned or around which it has hovered and been persistent      Special Issue on Chinua Achebe E. C. Ejiogu, 2013      Things Fall Apart Chinua Achebe, 1958 Om det nuværende Nigerias kolonisering i slutningen af 1800-tallet som det opleves af en mand af Ibo-stammen hvis traditionelle livsform er dæmt til undergang efter englændernes indtrængning
