Assessing Expressive Learning Charles M. Dorn, Robert Sabol, Stanley S. Madeja, F. Robert Sabol, 2014-04-04 Assessing Expressive Learning is the only book in the art education field to date to propose and support a research supported teacher directed authentic assessment model for evaluating K 12 studio art and to offer practical information on how to implement the model This practical text for developing visual arts assessment for grades 1 12 is based on and supported by the results of a year long research effort primarily sponsored by the National Endowment for the Arts involving 70 art teachers and 1 500 students in 12 school districts in Florida Indiana and Illinois The purpose of the study was to demonstrate that creative artwork by K 12 students can be empirically assessed using quantitative measures that are consistent with the philosophical assumptions of authentic learning and with the means and ends of art and that these measures can reliably assess student art growth A further goal was to provide a rationale for the assessment of student art as an essential part of the K 12 instructional program and to encourage art teachers to take responsibility for and assume a leadership role in the assessment of art learning in the school and the school district Assessing Expressive Learning reports on current assessment methods but also stresses a time tested portfolio assessment process that can be used or adapted for use in any K 12 art classroom includes the assessment instruments used in the study and several case studies of art teachers using electronic portfolios of student work a bibliography of major art assessment efforts and a critical review of current methods is designed to be teacher and system friendly unlike many other art assessment publications that provide only a review of information on assessment and both documents an experiment where artistic values and aesthetic issues were considered paramount in the education of K 12 students in the visual arts and also serves as a guide for the conduct of similar experiments by art teachers in the nation s schools the research methodology and results are reported in an appendix in a format that will enable educational researchers to duplicate the study This volume is ideal as a text for upper division undergraduate and graduate classes in visual arts education assessment and highly relevant for college art education professors researchers and school district personnel involved in the education and supervision of art teachers and researchers interested in performance measurement

Researching the Teaching of Drawing Raymond M. Klein, 2022-08-02 The Drawing Laboratory at NSCAD University was founded with funding from the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada in 2005 as a collaboration between psychological scientists from Dalhousie and drawing instructors at NSAD The Drawing Lab is thus a unique place where scientists and artists collaborate on interdisciplinary research about the complex intellectual and practical act of drawing from observation By bringing the scientific method to bear on how drawing processes unfold those involved seek to improve drawing education while furthering research on the cognitive processes involved in drawing The chapters in this book describe that research Perceptual and Cognitive Processes in Drawing from Observation will hold much interest for drawing instructors and students psychologists and neuroscientists with a specialism in art as well as those with a general interest in art and science Authors of this volume are Amanda Burk John Christie Tim Fedak Raymond Klein Geniva Liu Bryan Maycock Mathew Reichertz and Jack Wong

Art, Space and the City Malcolm Miles, 2005-08-16 Public art the making management and mediation of art outside its conventional location in museums and galleries and the livable city a concept involving user centred strategies for urban planning and design are both socially produced but have emerged from different fields and tend to be discussed in isolation This book applies a range of critical perspectives which have emerged from different disciplines art criticism urban design urban sociology geography and critical theory to examine the practice of art for urban public spaces seeing public art from positions outside those of the art world to ask how it might contribute to possible urban futures Exploring the diversity of urban politics the functions of public space and its relation to the structures of power the roles of professionals and users in the construction of the city the gendering of space and the ways in which space and citizen are represented the book explains how these issues are as relevant to architecture urban design and urban planning as they are to public art Drawing on a wealth of images from across the UK and Europe and the USA in particular the author questions the effectiveness of public art in achieving more convivial urban environments whilst retaining the idea that imagining possible futures is as much part of a democratic society as using public space

Art as Expression Henry W. Peacock, 1995 This book is for any painter who wants to grow as an artist and learn how to create more expressive art Based on insights that have helped many of his students express the natural artists within themselves Art as Expression embodies Henry Peacock's creative experience during four decades of painting and teaching Profusely illustrated with diagrams analyzing the work of twentieth century masters this book is helpful for art teachers and for anyone who seeks a further understanding in art

Drawing Wayne Enstice, Melody Peters, 2011 For undergraduate courses in Drawing and Figure Drawing An easy to read comprehensive text for drawing students of all levels This highly readable text is designed to address the needs of undergraduate drawing students from beginning through advanced levels Arranged in three sections that reflect the essential aspects of the process of drawing it addresses spatial and compositional organization strategies for depicting three dimensional form and light and it features an extended look at the way subject matter and form interact to produce content This text combines comprehensive coverage of traditional approaches to observational drawing with advanced theory based on the premise that drawing is an art form in its own right This Books la Carte Edition is an unbound three hole punched loose leaf version of the textbook and provides students the opportunity to personalize their book by incorporating their own notes and taking only the portion of the book they need to class all at a fraction of the bound book price

The Representation of Space in Graeco-Roman Art Michael Koortbojian,2023-11-06 This book assesses the role of relief in the representation of space in Graeco Roman artistic practice and its study from Winckelmann to the mid twentieth century when Classical art developed as a theoretical discipline The role of relief in the history of ancient sculpture has long been acknowledged yet the problems posed by an engagement with the representation of space have not been a subject of specific and sustained inquiry Neither a conventional history nor a comprehensive historiography this book traces the study of relief of its formal character its artistic purpose its aesthetic significance and its historical treatment The contribution to scholarship is three fold 1 By means of a wide array of examples the book demonstrates that the visual strategies employed to represent space during the Graeco Roman period were a continuously evolving repertory tied to the refinement of techniques and the transformation of styles that those techniques brought into being 2 It examines ideas now commonplace based on scholarship now long neglected if not completely forgotten And 3 it reveals how competing interpretations of the representation of space in relief elaborated new approaches to the monuments and their representations

Mondrian's Philosophy of Visual Rhythm Eiichi Tosaki, 2017-11-15 This volume investigates the meaning of visual rhythm through Piet Mondrian's unique approach to understanding rhythm in the compositional structure of painting drawing reference from philosophy aesthetics and Zen culture Its innovation lies in its reappraisal of a forgotten definition of rhythm as stasis or composition which can be traced back to ancient Greek thought This conception of rhythm the book argues can be demonstrated in terms of pictorial strategy through analysis of East Asian painting and calligraphy with which Greek thought on rhythm has identifiable commonalities The book demonstrates how these ideas about rhythm draw together various threads of intellectual development in the visual arts that cross disparate aesthetic cultural practices As an icon of early 20th Century Modernism Mondrian's neoplasticism is a serious painterly and philosophical achievement In his painting Mondrian was deeply influenced by Theosophy which took its influence from Eastern aesthetics particularly East Asian and Indian thought However Mondrian's approach to visual rhythm was so idiosyncratic that his contribution to studies of visual rhythm is often under recognized This volume shows that a close inspection of Mondrian's own writing thinking and painting has much to tell scholars about how to understand a long forgotten aspect of visual rhythm Rodin's famous criticism of photography athlete in motion is forever frozen can be applied to Muybridge's zoopraxiscope the Futurists rendition of stroboscopic images and Duchamp's Nude Descending a Staircase Through a comparative study between Mondrian's painting and these seminal works this volume initiates a new convention for the cognition of the surface of painting as visual rhythm Mondrian's simultaneous emphasis on the static and the rhythmic is hardly fodder for a publicist Eiichi Tosaki has taken on the challenge of elucidating Mondrian's theories of rhythm and particularly his conception of static rhythm The result is a tour de force that will forever alter the reader's encounter with the works of Mondrian Prof Kathleen Higgins
