

Different plays

- Symbolic play- play which allows control, gradual exploration and increase understanding without it becoming difficult for a child.
- Rough and tumble play- close contact play which is less to do with fighting and more to do with physical contact such as touching, tickling or exploring different strengths.
- Socio-dramatic play- Acting out real experiences, this could be children playing in a home corner. This could be of an intense, personal, social or domestic nature.
- Social play- Activities that allow social engagement and interaction for example; group activities.
- Creative play- Play which allows a new response with an element of surprise, this could be something a child hasn't experienced before; making them aware of new information.
- Dramatic play- Activities where children are assigned roles to act out which can be used to pretend to be someone/something different than themselves.
- Role play- Exploring ways of expressing different roles for example; dressing up or playing doctors.
