The Postmodern Mythology of Michel Tournier Melissa Panek, 2012-03-15 Michel Tournier defines the supreme mission of a writer to be the creation of a mythology which allows for interaction with his readers who seem to be losing their critical faculties in our contemporary postmodern world dominated by consumption and dizzying technological advances Our contemporary society has changed due to the end of the modern era with its reigning ideologies Collapsing after the atrocities of the Second World War Modernity and the artistic and literary reactions referred to as modernism have likewise been transformed Myth continues to represent the collectivity of human existence yet in the short stories and novels of Michel Tournier myth represents the collapse of the all encompassing ideologies inherent to the Modern era The grand narratives of Modernity such as Christianity and Man s reason have been deconstructed in the postmodern era The mythology of Michel Tournier expresses these trends towards the dissolution of Modernity and creates individual mini narratives which emphasize the particularity of individual existence Tournier takes established mythical models rooted in Christianity fables and legends of Western Civilization and re contextualizes them Through a semiotic reworking of core binary pairs of a myth Tournier creates a third order level of representation which modifies the mythical model The works of le Roi des Aulnes Gilles et Jeanne and Vendredi are illustrious of this third order level of signification According to Ferdinand de Saussure Roland Barthes and Claude L vi Strauss the structural make up of myth transforms established meanings according to the dominant cultural code Barthes semiological study of myth reveals the levels of representation through which myth creates meaning Myth builds upon the denotative first order level of language and through a connotative process creates a second order level This connotative process does not end on this second order for in the writings of Tournier this semiological process is continued to a third order which re contextualizes the myth again Tournier adapts myth to the unique traits of the postmodern era including deconstruction and playfulness by allowing the reader to provide the context of the story As such we the reader take the place as author of our own individual mythology Naturmythos und Geschichte im Werk von Albert Camus Roland Doschka,2003 Rassismus und kulturelle Differenz Karin Priester,1997 Geschichte - Kunst - Mythos Lothar Knatz,1999 Reisen zum Ursprung Laetitia Rimpau,2011-08-04 Die vorliegende Studie stellt die zweite Werkphase von J M G Le Cl zio 1940 in die literarische Tradition imagin rer Reisen die sich aus Romantik und Surrealismus herleiten Imagination und Traum sind Schl sselbegriffe einer auf Grenz berschreitung ausgerichteten Suche die sich vor allem auf die Sprach und Ecriturekonzeption bezieht Seit dem Roman Voyages de l autre c t wird die Reise auf die andere Seite zum Programm mit der Erz hlung La montagne du dieu vivant auch zum Struktur und Erkenntnisprinzip Der Initiationsweg beschreibt die stufenweise Abkehr aus der historischen Wirklichkeit und die tempor re Erfahrung mystischer berwirklichkeit aus der die Protagonisten desillusioniert oder befreit zur ckkehren Am Beispiel der Mauritius Texte dem Roman Le chercheur d or 1985 dem Reisebericht Voyage Rodrigues 1986 sowie dem monumentalen Reiseroman La quarantaine 1995 wird deutlich da die wiederholte Reise auf die Insel der Vorfahren einer poetologischen Selbstinszenierung entspricht Die regressive Engf hrung der Quarant ne wird zum Akt dichterischer Selbstwerdung Auf der methodischen Grundlage von Gaston Bachelards Dichtungstheorie der imagination mat rielle die auf C G Jungs Archetypenlehre rekurriert wird das Projekt in tiefenpsychologischer Perspektive untersucht In einer Figuren und Bildbereichanalyse wird gezeigt da wiederkehrende Doppelg nger und elementare Naturr ume Projektionen sind durch die sich ein schreibendes Ich zum Ursprung des Textes f hrt

,2017-11-01 The English speaking world today is so diverse that readers need a gateway to its many postcolonial narratives and art forms This collection of essays examines this diversity and what brings so many different cultures together Whether Indian Canadian Australasian or Zimbabwean the stories discussed focus on how artists render experiences of separation belonging and loss The histories and transformations postcolonial countries have gone through have given rise to a wide range of myths that retrace their birth evolution and decline Myths have enabled ethnic communities to live together the first section of this collection dwells on stories which can be both inclusive and exclusive under the aegis of nation While certain essays revisit and retell the crucial role women have played in mythical texts like the Mah bh rata others discuss how settler colonies return to and appropriate a past in order to define themselves in the present Crises clashes and conflicts which are at the heart of the second section of this book entail myths of historical and cultural dislocation They appear as breaks in time that call for reconstruction and redefinition a chief instance being the trauma of slavery with its deep geographical and cultural dislocations However the crises that have deprived entire communities of their homeland and their identity are followed by moments of remembrance reconciliation and rebuilding As the term postcolonial suggests the formerly colonized people seek to revisit and re investigate the impact of colonization before committing it to collective memory In a more specifically literary section texts are read as mythopoeia foregrounding the aesthetic and poetic issues in colonial and postcolonial poems and novels The texts explored here study in different ways the process of mythologization through images of location and dislocation The editors of this collection hope that readers worldwide will enjoy reading about the myths that have shaped and continue to shape postcolonial communities and nations CONTRIBUTORS Elara Bertho D nraith Bird Marie Christine Blin Jaine Chemmachery Andr Dodeman Biljana ori Francuski Fr d ric Dumas Daniel Karlin Sabine Lauret Anne Le Guellec Minel Iodie Raimbault Winfried Siemerling Laura Singeot Fran oise Storey Jeff Storey Christine Vandamme

French News ,1963      The Black Jews of Africa Edith Bruder,2008-06-05 The last several decades have seen the emergence of a remarkable phenomenon a Jewish rebirth that is occurring throughout Africa A variety of different ethnic groups proclaim that they are returning to long forgotten Jewish roots and African clans trace their lineage to the Lost Tribes of Israel Africans have encountered Jewish myths and traditions in multiple forms and various ways The context and circumstances of these encounters have gradually led within some African societies to the elaboration of a new Jewish identity connected with that of the Diaspora This book presents one by one the different groups of Black Jews in western central eastern and southern Africa and the ways in which they have used and imagined their oral history and traditional customs to construct a distinct Jewish identity It explores the ways in which Africans have interacted with the ancient mythological sub strata of both western and African ideas of Judaism It particularly seeks to identify and to assess colonial influences and their internalization by African societies in the shaping of new African religious identities The book also examines how in the absence of recorded African history the eminently malleable accounts of Jewish lineage developed by African groups co exist with the possible historical traces of a Jewish presence in Africa This elegant and well researched book goes beyond the well known case of the Falasha of Ethiopia examining the trend towards Judaism in Africa at large and exploring too the interdisciplinary concepts of metaphorical Diaspora global and transnational identities and colonization

Theory in the "Post" Era Christian Moraru, Andrei Terian, Alexandru Matei, 2021-08-26 Shortlisted for the AATSEEL 2022 Award for Best Edited Multi Author Scholarly Volume AATSEEL is The American Association of Teachers of Slavic and East European Languages Theory in the Post Era brings together the work and perspectives of a group of Romanian theorists who discuss the morphings of contemporary theory in what the editors call the post era Since the Cold War's end and especially in the third millennium theorists have been exploring the aftermath and sometimes just the after of whole paradigms the crisis or passing of anthropocentrism the twilight of an entire ontological and cultural condition as well as the corresponding rise of an antagonist model of an anti meta or neo alternative with examples ranging from posthumanism and post postmodernism to post aesthetics postanalog interpretation or digicriticism post presentism post memory post or neo critique and so forth It is no coincidence the contributors to this volume argue that this post moment is also a time when theory is practiced as a world genre If theory has always been a worlded enterprise a quintessentially communal cross cultural and international project this is truer at present than ever Perhaps more than other humanist constituencies today's theorists work and belong in a theory commons that is transnational if still uneven economically politically and otherwise Theory in the Post Era reports the results of Romanian theory experiments that join efforts made in other places to foster a theory for the post age

Virtues Leonardo Boff, 2011-01-01 Virtues are values underlying human practices We are at the dawn of a new era an era of global ethics requiring some core virtues These core virtues are hospitality co living respect tolerance and communal Book 1 treats the virtue of hospitality that is a right and a duty of all and which is still to be discovered and practiced unconditionally Book 2 deals with the virtues of co living respect and tolerance which are important virtues if the peoples of the earth are to live together in peace in our common home the planet Earth Finally Book 3 deals with the virtue of communal this is a very important virtue because a large part of humanity experiences hunger and thirst which is something scandalous in this day and age and which demonstrates a lack of humanity because we possess the technical means and political framework to resolve this situation If these core virtues become a reality they will transform human practices into something beneficial both to human beings and to the planet Earth our common home

Fables of the Law Daniela Carpi, Maren Leiboff, 2016-10-24 The latest development concerning the metaphorical use of the fairy tale is the legal perspective The law had and has recourse to fairy tales in order to speak of the nomos and its subversion of the politically correct and of the various means that have been used to enforce the law Fairy tales are a fundamental tool to examine legal procedures and structures in their many failings and errors Therefore we have privileged the term fables of the law just to stress the ethical perspective they are moral parables that often speak of justice miscarried and justice sought Law and jurists are creators of fables on the view that law is born out of the facts ex facto ius oritur so that there is a need for narrative coherence both on the level of the case and the level of legislation or turned the other way around what does it mean if no such coherence is found This is especially of interest given the influx of all kinds of new technologies that are fabulous in themselves and hard to incorporate in traditional doctrinal schemes and thus in the construction of a new reality    New Mythological Figures in Spanish Cinema Pietsie Feenstra,2011 In the 1970s especially after Franco's death in 1975 Spanish cinema was bursting at the seams Numerous film directors broke free from the ancient taboos which had reigned under the dictatorship They introduced characters who through their bodies transgress the traditional borders of social cultural and sexual identities Post Franco cinema exhibits women homosexuals transsexuals and delinquents in new and challenging ways Under Franco rule all of these dissident bodies were lost Here they reflect new mythological figures inhabiting an idealised body form a prototypical body
