Making Sense of Society Alex Khasnabish, 2022-05-30T00:00:00Z Grounded in the sister disciplines of sociology and anthropology this textbook is an accessible and critical introduction to contemporary social research Alex Khasnabish eschews the common disciplinary silos in favour of an integrated approach to understanding and practising critical social research Situated in the North American context the text draws on cross cultural examples to give readers a clear sense of the diversity in human social relations It is organized thematically in a way that introduces readers to the core areas of social research and social organization and takes an unapologetically radical approach in identifying the relations of oppression and exploitation that give rise to what most corporate textbooks euphemistically identify as social problems Focusing on key dynamics and processes at the heart of so many contemporary issues and public conversations this text highlights the ways in which critical social research can contribute to exploring understanding and forging alternatives to an increasingly bankrupt violent unstable and unjust status quo

The End of Man Joanna Zylińska, 2018-03-20 Debugging the Anthropocene's insistence on apocalyptic tropes Where the Anthropocene has become linked to an apocalyptic narrative and where this narrative carries a widespread escapist belief that salvation will come from a supernatural elsewhere Joanna Zylińska has a different take The End of Man rethinks the prophecy of the end of humans interrogating the rise in populism around the world and offering an ethical vision of a feminist counterapocalypse which challenges many of the masculinist and technicist solutions to our planetary crises The book is accompanied by a short photo film Exit Man which ultimately asks If unbridled progress is no longer an option what kinds of coexistences and collaborations do we create in its aftermath Forerunners Ideas First is a thought in process series of breakthrough digital publications Written between fresh ideas and finished books Forerunners draws on scholarly work initiated in notable blogs social media conference plenaries journal articles and the synergy of academic exchange This is gray literature publishing where intense thinking change and speculation take place in scholarship
