Metahaven Uncorporate Identity:

Uncorporate Identity Daniel van der Velden, Marina Vishmidt, Metahaven, 2010 This book takes an imaginative approach to visual identity Command+I WOT WOW, The Architect as Worker Peggy Deamer, 2015-07-30 Directly confronting the nature of contemporary architectural work this book is the first to address a void at the heart of architectural discourse and thinking For too long architects have avoided questioning how the central aspects of architectural practice professionalism profit technology design craft and building combine to characterize the work performed in the architectural office Nor has there been a deeper evaluation of the unspoken and historically determined myths that assign cultural symbolic and economic value to architectural labor The Architect as Worker presents a range of essays exploring the issues central to architectural labor These include questions about the nature of design work immaterial and creative labor and how it gets categorized spatialized and monetized within architecture the connection between parametrics and BIM and labor theories of architectural work architectural design as a cultural and economic condition entrepreneurialism and the possibility of ethical and rewarding architectural practice The book is a call to arms and its ultimate goal is to change the practice of architecture It will strike a chord with architects who will recognize the struggle of their profession with students trying to understand the connections between work value and creative pleasure and with academics and cultural theorists seeking to understand what grounds the discipline Form, Funktion und Freiheit Felix Kosok, 2021-03-15 Das Verh ltnis von Design und Demokratie ist nicht nur eine Sache der effizienten transparenten oder partizipativen Gestaltung politischer Institutionen und ihrer Prozesse Design muss vielmehr in seiner Wechselwirkung mit der f r die Demokratie konstitutiven Kultur der Freiheit bestimmt werden Felix Kosok legt dar wie sich die Verhandlung der politischen Dimension des Designs auf eine grunds tzliche Ebene verlagert Dem Design selbst kommt eine politische Bedeutung zu die von seiner sthetischen Dimension nicht zu trennen ist In der produktiven Freiheit zu den Zwecken zeigt sich die prinzipielle Gestaltbarkeit der Dinge die von einer kritischen Theorie des Designs bewusst gehalten werden muss Come Together Francesco Spampinato, 2014-12-02 The past twenty years have seen a new generation of artists working together in small groups and large collectives to explore new avenues of art design performance and commerce In Come Together author and visual artist Francesco Spampinato assembles an international roster of forty of today s most exciting and influential collectives from design studios like Project Projects and political performance artists The Yes Men to flash mob provocateurs Improv Everywhere and the multimedia artists Assume Vivid Astro Focus Alongside visual portfolios of their best work are in depth interviews addressing each group s unique motivations processes and objectives What emerges is a shared desire to turn viewers into producers and to use commercial mass media strategies to challenge prevailing social political and cultural power structures Come Together is an essential resource and inspiration for students art lovers and anyone interested in the cutting edge of visual culture Making Another World Possible Corina L. Apostol, Nato Thompson, 2019-10-11 Making

Another World Possible offers a broad look at an array of socially engaged cultural practices that have become increasingly visible in the past decade across diverse fields such as visual art performance theater activism architecture urban planning pedagogy and ecology Part I of the book introduces the reader to the field of socially engaged art and cultural practice spanning the past ten years of dynamism and development Part II presents a visually striking summary of key events from 1945 to the present offering an expansive view of socially engaged art throughout history and Part III offers an overview of the current state of the field elucidating some of the key issues facing practitioners and communities Finally Part IV identifies ten global issues and in turn documents 100 key artistic projects from around the world to illustrate the various critical aesthetic and political modes in which artists cultural workers and communities are responding to these issues from their specific local contexts This is a much needed and timely archive that broadens and deepens the conversation on socially engaged art and culture It includes commissioned essays from noted critics practitioners and theorists in the field as well as key examples that allow insights into methodologies contextualize the conditions of sites and broaden the range of what constitutes an engaged culture Of interest to a wide range of readers from practitioners and scholars of performance to curators and historians Making Another World Possible offers both breadth and depth spanning history and individual works to offer a unique insight into the field of socially engaged art Thinking with Shakespeare Julia Reinhard

Lupton, 2019-10-04 What is a person What company do people keep with animals plants and things Such questions bearing fundamentally on the shared meaning of politics and life animate Shakespearean drama yet their urgency has often been obscured Julia Reinhard Lupton gently dislodges Shakespeare's plays from their historical confines to pursue their universal implications From Petruchio's animals and Kate's laundry to Hamlet's friends and Caliban's childhood Lupton restages thinking in Shakespeare as an embodied act of consent cure and care Thinking with Shakespeare encourages readers to ponder matters of shared concern with the playwright by their side Taking her cue from Hannah Arendt Lupton reads Shakespeare for fresh insights into everything from housekeeping and animal husbandry to biopower and political theology

Social Practices and City Spaces Kyriaki Tsoukala, 2023-11-07 This book examines the relationship between social practices and built space focusing on current cooperative participative and posthuman approaches to its production and management From a social cultural and ecological perspective it explores the modes of engagement of all factors in the constitutional processes of inhabited space Throughout this interdisciplinary collection built space is reconsidered in the light of other schools of thought such as philosophy anthropology social sciences and political theories and practices It covers new ground at conceptual epistemic and methodological levels focusing on inhabited space from within the framework of globalisation biopolitics cultural changes environmental crisis and new technologies Organised into three parts Parts 1 and 2 focus on the role of architects in the emergence of a new ethos for habitation as well as the modalities of the inclusion of differences in design discussing the importance of participation and narrative at a theoretical and practical level in architecture In the third part the chapters delve into questions regarding the intersection of design ecology and technoscience in a posthuman approach which might support the inclusion of differences in design and the emergence of a new environmental ethos Providing a stimulating landscape of arguments and challenges to new readings of architecture society and the environment this book will be of interest to researchers students and professionals of architecture urban planning anthropology and philosophy

Judith Butler and Marxism Elliot Mason, Valentina Moro, 2025-03-15 What would a Butlerian Marxism look like Marxist criticisms of Butler range from careful comparisons of forms to the total dismissal of an unpolitical merely cultural anarchy None of these criticisms however focuses on what seems to most closely unite these two projects the universal abolition of the universal While Marxist communism is focused on the abolition of value and property Butler is consistently concerned throughout their corpus with the abolition of the subject as the universal form of social relations an abolition staged by way of a relational ontology and ethics Their methodologies for achieving abolition however vary hugely Butler s sees the performativity of subjects and power as an opportunity for differential assembly Marxists are primarily concerned with the working class as a revolutionary vanguard that withdraws its labor from production Judith Butler and Marxism explores the possibility of a Butlerian Marxism understood as abolitionist performativity differential vulnerability and generalized practices of care The essays in this volume attempt to actualize the antagonistic persistence of social particulars pursuing the abolition of the domination and violence that pervade society with increasing brutality The three sections of this volume are structured according to three pivotal political concepts in Butler s corpus performativity vulnerability and care Each essay contributes to a possible mutual development of Butler's and Marxism's concern with assembly interdependence and refusal forming a revolutionary politics of care This is the first book to fully study the contentious link between the vastly influential projects of Judith Butler and Marxism Hello World Alice Rawsthorn, 2013-03-07 Hello World is Alice Rawsthorn's definitive guide to design and modern life Design is one of the most powerful forces in our lives When deployed wisely it can bring us pleasure choice strength decency and much more But if its power is abused the outcome can be wasteful confusing humiliating even dangerous None of us can avoid being affected by design whether or not we wish to It is so ubiquitous that it determines how we feel and what we do often without our noticing Hello World explores design's influence on our lives Written by the renowned design critic Alice Rawsthorn and designed by the award winning book designer Irma Boom it describes how warlords scientists farmers hackers activists and designers have used design to different ends throughout history from the macabre symbol invented by 18th century pirates to terrorise their victims into surrender to one woman's quest for the best possible prosthetic legs and the evolution of the World Cup ball At a time when we face colossal changes unprecedented in their speed scale and intensity from the deepening environmental crisis to giant leaps in science and technology Hello World explains how design can help us to make sense of them and to turn them to our advantage Hello World is a new book by Alice Rawsthorn the one and only the best design critic in the entire world She keeps the banner of design flying high Irma Boom designed it and Irma is simply the best book designer alive Paola Antonelli Senior Curator of Architecture and Design at the Museum of Modern Art New York Praise for Alice Rawsthorn's Yves Saint Laurent As gripping as a thriller packed with plot character and atmosphere The Times Rawsthorn's excellent biography isn't merely a story about clothes but of crises comebacks and drug clinics and as a document of the time it is compulsive Evening Standard The best book I have ever read about the mesmerising cruelty of fashion The Spectator Intelligent and pragmatic this is a page turner of a book New Statesman What a story A skilful interweaving of the artistic business and emotional life of a great couture house Mail on Sunday Alice Rawsthorn is the design critic of the International Herald Tribune the global edition of the New York Times Her weekly Design column is syndicated worldwide A trustee of Arts Council England and the Whitechapel Gallery in London she is chair of trustees at the Chisenhale Gallery and the author of an acclaimed biography of Yves Saint Laurent Design Issues, 2014 The Stack Benjamin Bratton, 2025-03-01 The Stack cruza filosofía y software urbanismo y tecnología ecología y geopolítica Es un estudio interdisciplinario y una herramienta para soñar y planificar cómo podemos construir mejor vivir dentro comunicarnos y gobernar nuestros mundos Vivimos una época de cambio y aceleración vertiginosa marcada por la disrupción digital la crisis climática y el desorden global general En este contexto la publicación de The Stack que cruza filosofía y software urbanismo y tecnología ecología y geopolítica no podría ser más adecuada Esta obra de Benjamin Bratton es un estudio interdisciplinario y una herramienta para soñar y planificar cómo podemos construir mejor vivir comunicarnos y gobernar nuestros mundos En palabras de Kim Stanley Robinson autor de libros como Nueva York 2140
