Jobs for Shared Prosperity Roberta Gatti, Matteo Morgandi, Rebekka Grun, Stefanie Brodmann, Juan Manuel Moreno, Daniela Marotta, Marc Schiffbauer, Elizabeth Mata Lorenzo, 2013-04-25 In the aftermath of the Arab Spring when thousands of young women and men fought for the opportunity to realize their aspirations and potential the question of jobs continues to be crucial in the Middle East and North Africa region This report uses jobs as a lens to weave together the complex dynamics of employment creation skills supply and the institutional environment of labor markets Consistent with the framework of the 2013 World Development Report on jobs of which this report is the regional companion this work goes beyond the traditional links between jobs productivity and living standards to include an understanding of how jobs matter for individual dignity and expectations an aspect that was clearly central to the Arab Spring Just as important this report complements the economic perspective with an analysis of political economy equilibrium with a view to identifying mechanisms that would trigger a reform process As such the report has three objectives First it seeks to provide an in depth characterization of the dynamics of labor markets in the Middle East and North Africa and to analyze the barriers to the creation of more and better jobs It does so by taking a cross sectoral approach and identifying the distortions and incentives that the many actors firms governments workers students education and training systems currently face and which ultimately determine the equilibrium in labor markets Second the report proposes a medium term roadmap of policy options that could promote the robust and inclusive growth needed to tackle the structural employment challenge for the region Third the report aims to inform and open up a platform for debate on jobs among a broad set of stakeholders with the ultimate goal of contributing to reach a shared view of the employment challenges and the reform path ahead

Entrepreneurship Education and Training Programs around the World Alexandria Valerio, Brent Parton, Alicia Robb, 2014-05-06 Entrepreneurship has attracted global interest for its potential to catalyze economic and social development Research suggesting that certain entrepreneurial mindsets and skills can be learned has given rise to the field of entrepreneurship education and training EET Despite the growth of EET global knowledge about these programs and their impact remains thin In response this study surveys the available literature and program evaluations to propose a Conceptual Framework for understanding the EET program landscape The study finds that EET today consists of a heterogeneous mix of programs that can be broken into two groups entrepreneurship education and entrepreneurship training These programs target a range of participants secondary and post secondary education students as well as potential and practicing entrepreneurs The outcomes measured by program evaluations are equally diverse but generally fall under the domains of entrepreneurial mindsets and capabilities entrepreneurial status and entrepreneurial performance The dimensions of EET programs vary according the particular target group Programs targeting secondary education students focus on the development of foundational skills linked to entrepreneurship while post secondary education programs emphasize skills related to strategic business planning Programs targeting potential entrepreneurs generally are embedded within broader support programs and tend to target vulnerable populations for whom employment alternatives may be limited While programs serving practicing entrepreneurs focus on strengthening entrepreneurs knowledge skills and business practices which while unlikely to transform an enterprise in the near term may accrue benefits to entrepreneurs over time The study also offers implications for policy and program implementation emphasizing the importance of clarity about target groups and desired outcomes when making program choices and sound understanding of extent to which publicly supported programs offer a broader public good and compare favorably to policy alternatives for supporting the targeted individuals as well as the overall economic and social objectives

Replicating Microfinance in the United States James H. Carr,Zhong Yi Tong,2002-06-28 Microfinance was pioneered in the developing world as the lending of small amounts of money to entrepreneurs who lacked the kinds of credentials and collateral demanded by banks Similar practices spread from the developing to the developed world reversing the usual direction of innovation and today several hundred microfinance institutions are operating in the United States Replicating Microfinance in the United States reviews experiences in both developing and industrialized countries and extends the applications of microlending beyond enterprise to consumer finance housing finance and community development finance concentrating especially on previously underserved households and their communities

The Top Books of the Year Microfinance Training Business Plan The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the engaging narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. Microfinance Training Business Plan : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Microfinance Training Business Plan : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Microfinance Training Business Plan : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
