Le Corbusier. Le Couvent Sainte Marie de La Tourette / The Monastery of Sainte Marie de La Tourette Philippe Potié, 2015-04-24 In 1952 Le Corbusier was commissioned to dwell in the silence of men of prayer and study and to construct a church for them The result was his impressive Convent of La Tourette marking a significant step in modern religious architecture Beginning with the rectangular form common to the Cistercian monastic tradition he created a building whose stark form contrasts beautifully with the organic elements of the interior court and the grasslands surrounding it The church itself is a model of simplicity the cement has been left rough and the well located sources of light evoke a feeling of silence and reflection The order's precept of prayer study and reflection is aptly mirrored in the architecture Like the other Le Corbusier Guides published by Birkhäuser this volume provides a wealth of plans details photographs and information on this building which today is also a conference centre

Factory George Worthington, 1968 Information and Records Management, 1974 Pleasure the Basic Need of Human R. N. Sahani, 2016-04-08 There is a very big misconception in people that only talented and fortunate people are successful in life But the fact is that even an average person can attain success owing to their focused and consistent effort Most of the prominent entrepreneurs of the world have always had a very big vision in their mind A real entrepreneur always provides satisfactory resources and amenities to his large number of employees and those employees return their full time energy and talent for the development of the organization as a whole Many people believe that God writes our destiny But God doesn't make anyone rich and poor The almighty God can never do such injustice to human We are creating our destiny knowingly or unknowingly by our habitual patterns thinking and behaving Dare to take responsibility of your destiny and start working for your pleasure Align your dream desire and belief in one direction
