MLA International Bibliography of Books and Articles on the Modern Languages and Literatures ,2006 New York Times Saturday Review of Books and Art ,1970 Translating Cultures David Katan, 1999 Translating across cultures and cultural proficiency have become buzz words in translation studies This text attempts to introduce an element of rigour and coherence into the discussion of culture and provide a model for teaching to translators interpreters and other mediators Translation Across Cultures Gideon Toury, 1987 Translation and Cultural Identity Maria del Carmen Buesa Gómez, Micaela Muñoz-Calvo, 2010-02-19 Translation and Cultural Identity Selected Essays on Translation and Cross Cultural Communication tackles the complexity of the concepts mentioned in its title through seven essays written by most highly regarded experts in the field of Translation Studies Jos Lambert Catholic University of Louvain Belgium Raquel Merino University of the Basque Country Spain Rosa Rabad n University of Leon Spain Julio C sar Santoyo University of Leon Spain Christina Sch ffner Aston University Birmingham United Kingdom Gideon Toury Tel Aviv University Israel and Patrick Zabalbeascoa Pompeu Fabra University Spain The essays are varied and innovative Their common feature is that they deal with various aspects of translation and cultural identity and that they contribute to the enrichment of the study of communication across cultures These major readings in translation studies will give readers food for thought and reflection and will promote research on translation cultural identity and cross cultural communication Translation and Linguistic Hybridity Susanne Klinger, 2014-12-05 This volume outlines a new approach to the study of linguistic hybridity and its translation in cross cultural writing By building on concepts from narratology cognitive poetics stylistics and film studies it explores how linguistic hybridity contributes to the reader s construction of the textual agents world view and how it can be exploited in order to encourage the reader to empathise with one world view rather than another and consequently how translation shifts in linguistic hybridity can affect the world view that the reader constructs Linguistic hybridity is a hallmark of cross cultural texts such as postcolonial migrant and travel writing as source and target language come into contact not only during the process of writing these texts but also often in the fictional or non fictional story world Hence translation is frequently not only the medium but also the object of representation By focusing on the relation between medium and object of representation the book complements existing research that so far has neglected this aspect. The book thus not only contributes to current scholarly debates within and beyond the discipline of translation studies concerned with cross cultural writing and linguistic hybridity but also adds to the growing body of translation studies research concerned with questions of voice and point of view Crossing Cultures in the Language Classroom, Second Edition Andrea DeCapua, Ann C. Wintergerst, 2016-01-28 A MICHIGAN TEACHER TRAINING title Teachers are often in the forefront of today s cross cultural contact whether in the language classroom or in the K 12 or university college classroom but they are not always prepared to handle the various issues that can arise in terms of cross cultural communication. The intent of this book is to make education in cross cultural awareness accessible to a broad range of teachers working in a variety of educational settings Crossing Cultures in the Language Classroom attempts to balance theory and practice for pre service and in service teachers in general education programs or in ESL EFL bilingual and foreign language teacher training programs as well as cross cultural awareness workshops This book is unique in that it combines theory with a wide range of experiential activities and projects designed to actively engage users in the process of understanding different aspects of cross cultural awareness The goals of the book are to help readers expand cultural awareness of one s own culture and that of others achieve a deeper understanding of what culture is and the relationship between culture and language acquire the ability to observe behaviors in order to draw conclusions based on observation rather than preconceptions understand and implement observations of cultural similarities and differences develop an attitude of tolerance toward cultural differences and move away from the single story The new edition has been thoroughly updated and includes a Suggested Projects section in each chapter This section provides opportunities for users of the text to explore in greater depth an area and topic of interest It also includes even more Critical Incidents brief descriptions of events that depict some element or elements of cultural differences miscommunication or culture clash Critical Incidents develop users ability to analyze and understand how multiple perspectives of the same situation are rooted in differing culturally influenced beliefs behaviors norms of interaction and Text, Culture, Reception Rüdiger Ahrens, Heinz Antor, 1992 worldviews Across the Lines Wolfgang Klooss, 1998 This third volume of ASNEL Papers covers a wide range of theoretical and thematic approaches to the subject of intertextuality Intertextual relations between oral and written versions of literature text and performance as well as problems emerging from media transitions regionally instructed forms of intertextuality and the works of individual authors are equally dealt with Intertextuality as both a creative and a critical practice frequently exposes the essential arbitrariness of literary and cultural manifestations that have become canonized The transformation and transfer of meanings which accompanies any crossing between texts rests not least on the nature of the artistic corpus embodied in the general framework of historically and socially determined cultural traditions Traditions however result from selective forms of perception they are as much inventions as they are based on exclusion Intertextuality leads to a constant reinforcement of tradition while at the same time intertextual relations between the new literatures and other English language literatures are all too obvious Despite the inevitable impact of tradition the new literatures tend to employ a dynamic reading of culture which fosters social process and transition thus promoting transcultural rather than intercultural modes of communication Writing and reading across borders becomes a dialogue which reveals both differences and similarities More than a decolonizing form of deconstruction intertextuality is a strategy for communicating meaning across cultural boundaries Constructing Cultures Susan Bassnett, André Lefevere, 1998 This collection brings together two leading figures in the discipline of translation studies The essays cover a range of fields and combine theory with practical case studies involving the translation of literary texts
