Discourses of Globalisation, Cultural Diversity and Values Education Joseph Zajda,2023-03-10 This book examines dominant discourses in values education globally It critiques dominant discourses and debates pertaining to values education and cultural identity set against the current backdrop of growing social stratification and unequal access to quality education It addresses discourses concerning globalisation ideologies and the state as well as approaches to values education in schools. The book explores the ambivalent and problematic connections between the state, globalisation and values education. It also explores conceptual frameworks and methodological approaches applicable to research on values education, multiculturalism and identity politics. Drawing on diverse paradigms ranging from critical theory to globalisation, the book focuses on globalisation ideology and values education and critically examines recent research dealing with cultural diversity and its impact of identity politics. Given the need for a multiple perspective approach, authors from diverse backgrounds offer a wealth of insights contributing to a more holistic understanding of the nexus between values education, multiculturalism and national identity. With contributions from key scholars worldwide, the book should be required reading for a broad spectrum of users including policy makers, academics, graduate students, education policy researchers, administrators and practitioners.

Global Perspectives in Professional Reasoning Marilyn B. Cole, Jennifer Creek, 2024-06-01. Global Perspectives in Professional Reasoning is the first text of its kind to address the broader scope of occupational therapy practice and the different types of professional reasoning that can be employed, including strategic, political, nonlinear, creative and social reasoning. This text encompasses a wide range of thinking skills and cognitive processes used by occupational therapists, from reflecting on practice to solving problems and from reasoning in the clinic to reasoning in the wider political, social and cultural worlds. Marilyn B. Cole and Jennifer Creek and their contributors are therapists, educators and scholars who have explored new areas of professional practice and written about the thought processes that reinforced their actions. The authors come from around the world, providing a global perspective while also demonstrating that occupational therapists within different cultures serve remarkably similar human needs: to be included in their communities, to have occupational choices and to determine their own life course. Many of the contributors in Global Perspectives in Professional Reasoning have identified and analyzed their own thought processes as they tackled complex and challenging tasks, often in unfamiliar contexts. These challenging tasks have produced several entirely original conceptualizations of professional reasoning, such as development and spiritual reasoning. The contributors start by observing what is going on, try to make sense of the situation and then work out what to do. Other contributors are fascinated by a theory, a policy or an approach, study it and then look for ways to utilize it in practice. Most of the time, contributors focus their attention on the process of reasoning rather than on the specific types of reasoning they are employing or on desired outcomes. Inside Global Perspectives in Professional Reasoning, each chapter charts the learning process that contributors went through as they extended their thinking skills and processes to meet the challenges they encountered. All the chapters describe reasoning in practice and all of them utilize theory. A broad and fresh take on professional reasoning in occupational therapy practice, Global Perspectives in Professional Reasoning is the perfect resource for occupational therapy students and clinicians who want to utilize reasoning to tackle the most complex and challenging of tasks. Counseling Across the Lifespan Cindy L. Juntunen, Jonathan P.

Schwartz,2015-04-15 This practical book helps readers provide effective mental emotional and behavioral health services to clients across the continuum of care from health promotion through long term treatment and remediation Anchoring each chapter within a life stage from childhood through older adulthood the text identifies the nature and origin of various psychological issues and emphasizes the importance of anticipating and responding early to concerns that arise for large portions of the population The Second Edition features new chapters and expanded coverage of important topics such as sociocultural contextual factors and interprofessional health perspectives
