Identity Milan Kundera:

Identity Milan Kundera, 2020-11-09 A philosophical masterpiece by the author of modern classic The Unbearable Lightness of Being An artist clearly one of the best to be found anywhere Salman Rushdie Kundera designs fictions of the highest order Ian McEwan Chantal awaits her partner in a hotel on the Normandy coast struggling to find him on a crowded beach After mistaking him for a stranger they reunite and she reveals her fears of men no longer turning to look at her Soon she begins to receive mysterious love letters which she hides in her underwear drawer but as the border between fantasy and reality blurs perhaps the secret correspondent is someone closer to her than she realises In this disquieting love story Kundera reveals our shifting perceptions of selfhood over time especially within the intimacy of a relationship and makes us question our own existence

Milan Kundera's Fiction Karen von Kunes, 2019-05-20 In Milan Kundera's Fiction A Critical Approach to Existential Betrayals Karen von Kunes traces Kundera's literary aspirations to a single episode in Czechoslovakia in the Stalinist era This moment attracted international attention when a 1950 police report was released in 2008 Reporters rushed to judgment accusing Kundera of denouncing Miroslav Dvořák to the police resulting in Dvořák's immediate arrest and sentencing to hard labor von Kunes debunks this shocking charge in a systematic way and argues that Kundera reported a suitcase not a man She ties Kundera's dominant themes of sex betrayal and political denouncement to the suitcase a fatal instrument that can lead to paradoxes and unforeseen and catastrophic coincidences for his characters

Identity Milan Kundera, 1998-04-21 Milan Kundera's Identity translated from the French by Linda Asher There are situations in which we fail for a moment to recognize the person we are with in which the identity of the other is erased while we simultaneously doubt our own That also happens with couples indeed above all with couples because lovers fear more than anything else losing sight of the loved one With stunning artfulness in expanding and playing variations on the meaningful moment Milan Kundera has made this situation and the vague sense of panic it inspires the very fabric of his new novel Here brevity goes hand in hand with intensity and a moment of bewilderment marks the start of a labyrinthine journey during which the reader repeatedly crosses the border between the real and the unreal between what occurs in the world outside and what the mind creates in its solitude Of all contemporary writers only Kundera can transform such a hidden and disconcerting perception into the material for a novel one of his finest most painful and most enlightening Which surprisingly turns out to be a love story

Mitteleuropa denken: Intellektuelle, Identitäten und Ideen Walter Pape, Jiří Šubrt, 2018-12-17 Der Band widmet sich dem Kulturraum Mitteleuropa Das Thema wird nicht als geopolitisches Problem abgehandelt sondern fokussiert werden politische soziale und kulturelle Konzepte der Geschichte der personalen nationalen und mitteleuropäischen Identität wie sie von Politikern Soziologen Philosophen Schriftstellern und Literaturwissenschaftlern im 20 und 21 Jahrhundert diskutiert werden Mitteleuropa wird gekennzeichnet durch Konflikte kulturelle Interaktionen die Mischung von Kulturen sowie unterschiedliche Traditionen religiöse Orientierungen nationale Interessen Ideologien und Ideen Das führte zwar zu zahlreichen Kontroversen Spannungen und Konflikten schuf aber auch ein auf seine Weise einzigartiges intellektuell und kulturell inspirierendes Umfeld Kulturelle Vielfalt Sprache Religion Kunst Literatur und ethnische Minderheiten wurden innerhalb der mitteleuropäischen Staaten bis in das frühe 20. Jahrhundert zumindest als existenzberechtigt angesehen Der Fokus liegt auf Persönlichkeiten die als hybrid border crossers den Kulturräum prägen und weiterhin prägen Das Ziel des Bandes geht über eine Bestandsaufnahme hinaus und fragt auch nach der Wirkungsgeschichte und den Auswirkungen für die Gegenwart

Understanding Central Europe Marcin Moskalewicz, Wojciech Przybylski, 2017-11-20 Central Europe is a vague and ambiguous term more to do with outlook and a state of mind than with a firmly defined geographical region In the immediate aftermath of the collapse of the Iron Curtain Central Europeans considered themselves to be culturally part of the West which had been politically handicapped by the Eastern Soviet bloc More recently and with European Union membership Central Europeans are increasingly thinking of themselves as politically part of the West but culturally part of the East This book with contributions from a large number of scholars from the region explores the concept of Central Europe and a number of other political concepts from an openly Central European perspective It considers a wide range of issues including politics nationalism democracy and the impact of culture art and history Overall the book casts a great deal of light on the complex nature of Central Europe

Building on the core foundations of Anthropological Economics: Some important extensions of Anthropological Economics Sujay Rao Mandavilli, 2025-05-14 The concepts of anthropological economics were introduced by us in the year 2020 in a paper entitled Introducing Anthropological Economics The quest for an Anthropological basis for Economic theory growth models and policy development for wealth and human welfare maximization and was published in the journal ELK Asia Pacific Journal of Social Sciences Volume 6 Issue 3 April June 2020 The paper was subsequently published in Google books later in the same year We had also published the following papers subsequently and these papers have been compiled into the present volume

- 1 Delineating Cultural limits and Anthropological limits as central theorems in the social sciences Some more useful and practicable techniques for social sciences research SSRN July 2024
- 2 Isolating Anthropological factors that determine economic performance or non performance A meritorious way forward in Anthropological Economics SSRN January 2025
- 3 Measuring economic performance against Cultural limits and Anthropological limits Techniques and strategies for better economic planning and economic modeling SSRN July 2024
- 4 Expounding the concepts of socio cultural advantage and cultural and anthropological equilibrium More core concepts in Anthropological Economics SSRN May 2025
- 5 Propounding the science of Motivational economics Another crucial component of the science of Anthropological Economics SSRN May 2025
- 6 Extolling the virtues of ethnography in economic planning and decision making Mainstreaming Econoethnography in Anthropological Economics The objective of our work on anthropological economics was to attempt to merge the concepts and theoretical frameworks of the disciplines of Anthropology and Economics thereby creating a new sub field in Economics called Anthropological Economics which was

mired in Anthropological concepts and principles and sought to maximize not only human welfare and happiness but also wealth maximization across cultures while considering both the psychic unity of man universal human needs and culturespecific factors Thus the field of Anthropological Economics was expected to be inter related to other disciplines of Economics but remain complementary to them i e it was not expected that it would intrude into other sub fields of economics replace them or override their principles in any way It would therefore we anticipated draw upon other aspects of economic theory and enrich them suitably It was therefore expected that all aspects of Economic theory would be taken into consideration for policy formulation and decision making including those of Anthropological economics and independent context specific judgment would always be applied The new and novel proposed field of Anthropological Economics proposed to take the idea of Human Welfare to its logical conclusion by extending the work already carried out in various sub disciplines of economics such as those proposed by Amartya Sen and others and integrate it more tightly with various concepts in Anthropology Many new tools and techniques were therefore proposed as a part of our overall work and we believed these would suitably enrich the field of Economics as well While many attempts have been made in the past to integrate the fields of Anthropology and Economics we had hoped our endeavour would take this exercise to a much higher level by creating a new generation of Anthroeconomists We had also hoped it will eventually help move mainstream economics away from Neo classical approaches what we prefer to call legacy economics to Anthropological and human centric approaches The present volume presents our additional and auxiliary concepts in anthropological economics The presented volume must be read after the contents of the previous volume has been fully 4 4 read and ingested We say this in the interests of absolute reader clarity This is because the original paper has not been reproduced here Conceptual Mathematics and Literature Yair Neuman,2020-12-15 The old practices of interpretation have been exhausted and the humanities and social sciences are facing a crisis Is there a way out of the labyrinth of reading In this book Professor Neuman presents a challenging approach to interpreting texts and reading literature through the spectacles of conceptual mathematics This approach strives to avoid the simplicity of a quantitative approach to the analysis of literature as well as both the relativistic and the ideological dangers facing a qualitative reading of a text The approach is introduced in a rigorous and accessible manner and woven with insights gained from various fields Taking us on a challenging journey from Ovid s Metamorphoses to Nick Cave s The Death of Bunny Munro the book shows how we may gain a deeper understanding of literature and the aesthetic experience of reading The New Yorker ,1998 Eating Disorders and Cultures in Transition MERVAT NASSER; MELANIE KATZMAN; RICHARD GORDON.,2001 Representing Children in Chinese and U.S. Children's Literature Claudia Nelson,Rebecca Morris,2016-04-08 Bringing together children s literature scholars from China and the United States this collection provides an introduction to the scope and goals of a field characterized by active but also distinctive scholarship in two countries with very different rhetorical traditions The volume s five sections highlight the differences between and overlapping concerns of Chinese and American scholars as they examine children's literature with respect to cultural metaphors and motifs historical movements authorship didacticism important themes and the current status of and future directions for literature and criticism Wide ranging and admirably ambitious in its encouragement of communication between scholars from two major nations Representing Children in Chinese and U S Children's Literature serves as a model for examining how and why children's literature more than many literary forms circulates internationally Rewriting Rewriting Cathy Jellenik, 2007 Although the storytelling of any time rewrites itself rewriting became a primary concern in the literature of the twentieth century an era characterized as having quoted reenacted cannibalized revised redone refurbished and outright plagiarized the texts of earlier times The modern obsession with literary reiteration manifests itself in a rather unique way in the narratives of Marguerite Duras Annie Ernaux and Marie Redonnet These authors systematically and repeatedly rewrite their own texts and in so doing give evidence of three of the more salient aspects of twentieth century French literature a trend toward the representation of multifaceted selves a desire to reevaluate the literary paradigm and an acute concern for the unreliability of language This book argues that the rewriting performed by Duras Ernaux and Redonnet moves beyond the tacit rewriting that occurs in any text toward a renovation of various features of the literary arena within which they circulate Cathy Jellenik argues that all writing contains rewriting an argument grounded in the theoretical apparatuses of Saussure Bakhtin Benveniste Barthes Kristeva and Derrida She then examines and interrogates the ways in which Duras Ernaux and Redonnet use rewriting to question and rethink the literary traditions they inherit Jellenik suggests that the rewriting projects of Duras Ernaux and Redonnet promise to lead them and their readers toward the creation of a new literary aesthetic capable of responding to the questions of our times
