examine these new ways of approaching the self autobiography has been the subject of renewed interest Several academic books have appeared in recent years that study the ways in which autobiographers represent the self as incomplete evolving and elusive In particular a number of books have appeared on the subject of women s autobiography and female subjectivity such as works by Sidonie Smith Julia Watson and Nancy Miller and several volumes interrogate postcolonial women s autobiography such as texts by Fran oise Lionnet Gayatri Spivak Carole Boyce Davies and Chandra Mohanty Our volume unites these strands of criticism by examining ways that female autobiographies write the self as a fragmented plural construct across the Francophone world This will be the first book length study of this important development This volume will be of interest primarily to students and scholars working in the areas of life writing French and Francophone studies postcolonial studies and gender studies The volume contributes to multiple areas that are currently garnering substantial interest in academe postcolonial studies Francophone studies gender studies and women s writing By comparing works from across the Francophone world our volume takes a global approach to the genre of autobiography and its inflections by women writers The Self That is Not One in Women s Autobiography in French therefore represents a timely intervention in several interlinking academic fields and will thus garner substantial interest
