The Report: Indonesia 2017 Oxford Business Group, 2016-11-10 Although Chinese and global demand low commodity prices and rising wages will continue to challenge trade growth in 2016 Indonesia remains on a positive trajectory Rising domestic demand increasing liberalization measures improvements to the investment climate and a shift towards value added production will bolster both exports and investment At the same time new trade agreements with the world's largest economies look set to drive long term trade expansion Prudent government policy an ambitious reform agenda and rising recognition of the role of the private sector should help to keep investment and trade stable in 2016 and despite exports and growth have dipped in recent years the country is well positioned to make the crucible transformation from a consumption to investment based economy

The Report: Indonesia 2018 Oliver Cornock, 2018 In 2018 the Indonesian economy recorded a growth rate of 5.2% the highest in five years This was in spite of a slump in the rupiah and a trade imbalance and took place against a backdrop of rising US interest rates and deteriorating trade relations between the world's two biggest economies The country's emphasis on industrialisation and infrastructure development is laying the foundations for continued economic growth Moreover the archipelago's growing middle class population geographical position and human capital development agenda alongside progress in free trade agreements make it a strong contender on the global economic stage The country holds considerable potential for developing entrepreneurial and creative prowess already being home to four unicorn startups Investors have continued to look beyond traditional destinations with emerging cities like Surabaya and Palembang showing strong possibilities for economic growth Although the outcome of the April 2019 national election will determine the course of further infrastructure development and tax reforms the future looks promising with predictions of continued growth accompanied by stable inflation

Towards responsible and inclusive financing of the palm oil sector Kusumaningtyas, R., van Gelder, J.W., 2017-10-04 The global palm oil sector faces ongoing threats to sustainability caused by deforestation peatland development labor rights violations and land right conflicts Additionally integrating smallholders into sustainable palm oil supply chains continues to be a challenge for the industry Financial service providers FSPs could play a role in stimulating sustainability commitments from the palm oil companies they finance Their potential influence stems from their capacity to set environmental social and governance ESG conditions for financial services This research shows that European and US FSPs are further along than their counterparts in Asia in adopting policies that include ESG risk assessments as part of the process for providing financial services However attention to smallholder inclusion is insufficient in the policies of all FSPs included in this report Differences between European and US versus Asian FSPs in adopting ESG standards as well as the unique markets they finance present a risk that two parallel but separate financial systems could emerge Efforts by both government and nongovernmental organizations should emphasize the prevention of a two tiered marketplace with different quality requirements for palm oil All actors in this sector still require a significant shift in thinking on the benefits of including ESG standards in cultivation and production processes In palm oil producing countries the lack of specific banking regulations emphasizing sustainability concerns regarding the sector forms a further hindrance to positive developments

The TESLA revolution Willem Middelkoop, Rembrandt Koppelaar, 2017-04-05 We burnt our oil supplies up so fast that the era of cheap oil is over Finally there is a widespread recognition for the need to move to a post fossil fuel age Yet promises of too cheap to meter nuclear household power stations the hydrogen economy or abundant bio based fuels all remain dreams Is there still hope that humanity can bring about a renewable energy revolution Or will fossil fuels remain the driving force behind energy expansion and global politics The Tesla Revolution will help to understand the future direction of our energy systems In tracing rapid technological advances in batteries and solar technologies energy flows in economies geopolitical repercussions and the political decisions present and missing to bring an energy revolution ever closer A picture emerges of a transition that in our lifespans will reshape economies global power relations and even affect day to day lives and values

Over the last decade these two countries have put enormous resources and time into establishing CHCs. Still based on the current study's findings there has been minimal reliable reporting or evidence on the success of their efforts. Yet there is very good reason to believe that with refined backstopping and informed selection CHCs can be successfully used to provide mechanization access for underserved geographical areas and their communities. The last section proposes a plan of action to improve Nepal's CHCs. There are recommendations, observations and considerations for policy and agricultural development professionals and the existing CHC's management committees. MCs around establishing and/or the improving CHCs and their management. In summary this preliminary document establishes a need for additional programming and training that support the many existing CHCs. Further it highlights the necessity to support multiple comparative research that can quickly investigate the current situation of the hire services sector for agricultural machinery.

Bangladesh's Maritime Policy

Abul Kalam, 2018-10-03 Following successive international legal verdicts Bangladesh is now an accredited maritime state. Possessing a spacious territorial sea and an extended continental shelf with a maritime zone almost equalling its land borders a window of opportunity has opened for the country to realise its developmental aspirations. Yet it faces numerous challenges many of which are entwined. This book is a detailed analysis of Bangladesh's maritime strategy. It charts the country's maritime legacies including disputes with both Myanmar and India and analyses the contributions of the leadership in the maritime territorial gains. The author examines Bangladesh's need to consolidate these newly reclaimed gains whilst exploring the unremitting interest of major global power players in maintaining maritime resource exploitation, navigation and security. Finally the author demonstrates how the country needs to embrace the notional principles of sustainable development of its ocean economy to utilize its resources and how it has since been coming to grips with the emerging concept of blue economy to enhance its enduring national development. The first systematic study on Bangladesh's maritime policy and the country's importance in the emerging geopolitical rivalry in the Indian Ocean this book will be of interest to academics in the field of South Asian and Indian Ocean politics.

The Halal Industry in Asia Rozaidah Idris, Mohammad Ali

Tareq, Siti Fatimahwati Pehin Dato Musa, Wardah Hakimah Sumardi, 2025-03-19 This innovative open access volume explores the core characteristics of the halal industry through case studies of five East and Southeast Asian countries: Brunei Darussalam, Malaysia, Japan, Indonesia and China representing both Muslim majority and Muslim minority societies. The contributors focus on some of the leading sectors of the Islamic economy comprising food, finance, pharmaceuticals and travel and tourism in order to diagnose the challenges they face and the opportunities that present themselves. Particular attention is given to issues of certification and compliance, quality assurance, human resource development, education, legal frameworks, logistics and supply chains, innovation, sustainability and growth potential beyond the core Muslim consumers in order to offer a critical assessment of the state of the halal industry in comparative perspective. The book shows that one of the most remarkable features of the world economy over the last two decades has been the emergence and sustained growth of the global halal industry This has been underpinned by several key factors including a young and expanding Muslim population Islamic faith inspired consumption and a number of public and private strategies dedicated to halal product and service development This is a significant achievement especially given major disruptions and risks such as geopolitical instability the worsening climate crisis the impact of the Covid 19 pandemic and the uncertainties associated with AI and automation Academic scholars university students and others interested in the study of the current state of the halal industry in Asia and broader questions of the global Islamic economy will find this volume an invaluable resource to enable them to understand these pressing challenges and navigate this opportunity landscape
