What's Wrong with Pakistan? Babar Ayaz,2013-08-01 A courageous comprehensive and no holds barred account by a veteran journalist of a 66 year old nation that is still trying to find its identity and fighting its own demons Beginning with the genetic defect that Pakistan was born with Babar Ayaz highlights the numerous problems faced by Pakistan today that have arisen as a result of the country's foundation being based on religion What Quaid e Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah managed to achieve as a separate homeland in August 1947 is today being consumed by religious fanaticism Ayaz attributes such a state of affairs to the Islamization of Pakistani laws which are in conflict with the twenty first century value systems The author next pinpoints how Jinnah failed to recognize the ethno linguistic diversity of the Pakistan he had created which needed proper distribution of power between the Centre and the states in the then existent West Pakistan and East Pakistan He describes how the centralization of power and the imposition of a single language for both wings of the country led to the dismemberment of Pakistan and the creation of Bangladesh in 1971 The book also analyzes the unwritten national security policy of Pakistan and how it has dictated its foreign policy Relations with the US India China Saudi Arabia Iran and Afghanistan are discussed vis vis the overall national security policy The author contends that the rise of fundamentalism is a global phenomenon but in Pakistan it has given birth to a plethora of Islamic militant groups covertly supported by the Pakistani intelligence services Pakistan has been branded as the most dangerous state of the world and the epicentre of terrorism He laments the fact that attempts to present the peaceful side of Islam are extremely feeble because of the dominance of the pro jihad elements which are pushing the country into a civil war like situation In spite of several years of attempts at indoctrination of the people through mass media and educational institutions in Pakistan the anti Indian feelings and extreme stands on Kashmir have been limited Ayaz believes that India and the developed world would have to help by being more accommodating and understanding so that the people of Pakistan can reinvent their country Without moving towards secularism the author warns Pakistan will remain at war with itself as it is torn between the twenty first century and medieval religious value systems Pakistan at Seventy Shahid Burki,Iftekhhar Ahmed Chowdhury,Asad Butt,2019-06-07 This handbook examines Pakistan's 70 year history from a number of different perspectives When Pakistan was born it did not have a capital a functioning government or a central bank The country lacked a skilled workforce While the state was in the process of being established eight million Muslim refugees arrived from India who had to be absorbed into a population of 24 million people However within 15 years Pakistan was the fastest growing and transforming economy in the developing world although the political evolution of the country during this period was not equally successful Pakistan has vast agricultural and human resources and its location promises trade investment and other opportunities Chapters in the volume written by experts in the field examine government and politics economics foreign policy and environmental issues as well as social aspects of Pakistan's development including the media technology gender and education Shahid Javed Burki is an economist who has been a member of the faculty at Harvard University USA and Chief Economist Planning and Development Department Government of the Punjab He has also served as Minister of Finance in the Government of Pakistan and has written a number of books and journal and newspaper articles He joined the World Bank in 1974 as a senior economist and went on to serve in several senior positions He was the first Director of the China Department 1987-94 and served as the Regional Vice President for Latin America and the Caribbean during 1994-99 He is currently the Chair of the Board of Directors of the Shahid Javed Burki Institute of Public Policy at NetSol BIPP in Lahore Iftekhhar Ahmed Chowdhury is a career Bangladeshi diplomat and former Minister of Foreign Affairs in the Government of Bangladesh 2007-08 He has a PhD in international relations from the Australian National University Canberra He began his career as a member of the civil service of Pakistan in 1969 Dr Chowdhury has held senior diplomatic positions in the course of his career including as Permanent Representative of Bangladesh to the United Nations in New York 2001-07 and in Geneva 1996-2001 and was ambassador to Qatar Chile Peru and the Vatican He is currently a visiting senior research fellow at the Institute of South Asian Studies National University of Singapore Asad Ejaz Butt is the Director of the Burki Institute of Public Policy Lahore Pakistan Solution Pakistan Zakir Mahmood Malik,2018-07-17 Democracy in Pakistan Kalim Bahadur,1998 India's Sentinel: Select Writings of Air Commodore Jasjit Singh AVSM, VrC, VM (Retd) Dr Manpreet Sethi,Dr Shalini Chawla,2014-07-15 Air Commodore Jasjit Singh was one of India's foremost strategic analysts The only constant for him in over three decades of research analyses and writing was the centrality of national interest Indeed the man never let the nation down whether as an air warrior or a strategist ever ready to voice his views irrespective of how the wind was blowing and always remaining practical in approach Ever an optimist he believed that India would inevitably rise to power by the sheer size of its economy and human resource potential. A greater concern for him however was the need to sensitize his compatriots to the national security challenges that would arise as the country rose and to equip them with the capability to optimally address these. He did so through his writings and talks. This book is a modest compilation of his select writings on two specific issues: nuclear strategy and Pakistan, since he considered these as critical amongst India's many security challenges. Of course, the range of Jasjit Singh's writings and the expanse of his knowledge is immense and beyond capture in one book. But this is a small effort in the direction of spreading his message/ideas to the current and future generation of scholars and policy makers. Hopefully, it will encourage students of national security to look for more of his writings beyond the few that we have been able to carry in this volume.

The Muslim World After 9/11 Angel Rabasa, Matthew Waxman, Eric V. Larson, Cheryl Y. Marcum, 2004-11-17

Momentous events since September 11, 2001: Operation Enduring Freedom, the global war on terrorism and the war in Iraq have dramatically altered the political environment of the Muslim world. Many of the forces influencing this environment, however, are the products of trends that have been at work for many decades. This book examines the major dynamics that drive changes in the religious-political landscape of the Muslim world, a vast and diverse region that stretches from Western Africa through the Middle East to the Southern Philippines and includes Muslim communities and diasporas throughout the world. It draws the implications of these trends for global security and U.S. and Western interests. It presents a typology of ideological tendencies in the different regions of the Muslim world and identifies the factors that produce religious extremism and violence. It assesses key cleavages along sectarian, ethnic, regional and national lines and examines how those cleavages generate challenges and opportunities for the United States. Finally, the authors identify possible strategies and political and military options for the United States to pursue in response to changing conditions in this critical and volatile part of the world.

Pakistan Pervez Hoodbhoy, 2023-03-24

This book is an accessible, comprehensive and nuanced history of Pakistan. It reflects upon state and society in Pakistan and shows they have been shaped by historical forces and personae. Hoodbhoy expertly maps the journey of the region from many millennia ago to the circumstances and impulses that gave birth to the very first state in history founded upon religious identity. He documents colonial rule, the trauma of Partition, the nation's wars with India, the formation of Bangladesh and the emergence of Baloch nationalism. The book also examines longstanding complex themes and issues such as religious fundamentalism, identity formation, democracy and military rule, as well as their impact on the future of the state of Pakistan. Drawing on a range of sources and written by one of the foremost intellectuals of the region, this book will be indispensable for scholars, researchers, students of history, politics and South Asian studies. It will be of great interest to the general reader interested in understanding Pakistan.

International Relations Theory and South Asia (OIP) E. Sridharan, 2014-11-13

Bringing together scholarship from several South Asian countries, this volume understands conflict resolution and cooperation building in the region. The essays cover three inter-related issues: security, political economy domestic politics and the construction of identities and normative frameworks They employ broader social science theorizing particularly in relation to political economy to go beyond conceptualizations based on international relations theory The volume takes a fresh look at the inter relationships between issues and their analyses and eschews stand alone topics such as Kashmir nuclear policies or regional cooperation Combining theory with fieldwork it provides diverse perspectives and arguments for a more nuanced picture of international relations in South Asia India's Partition Devendra

Panigrahi,2004-08-19 This title offers an examination of the circumstances surrounding India s independence from Britain and the partition of the subcontinent Pakistan: Caught in the Whirlwind Wg Cdr C Deepak Dogra,2015-12-09 This book is indeed a critical analysis of history of political development of Pakistan The hypothesis floated in the book seeking peaceful coexistence of two people who are identical in more than one way finds it difficult to sustain in wake of the political absurdities being committed by certain imprudent elements With more Muslims in India Pakistan has long lost its postulation that it was carved out of British India as a nation for Indian Muslims The two nation theory which saw its silent burial after partition of Pakistan had been based on a faulty proposition that Hindus and Muslims of India were two distinct nationalities Post formation its nation building has gone through twists and turns of political turbulence that has been discussed in detail in this book Besides focusing on the infamous military regimes the author has also analyzed socio political upbringing of this nation under popular governments Having discussed the foreign policy dilemmas of the country its role in pre and post Taliban Afghanistan has also been dwelled upon Nation s obsession with K word seems to have shut all its routes to rationality and prosperity besides denying it the privilege of peaceful coexistence with its parent country The author has also attempted to look through the frosted glass to perceive possible future scenario for the nation that continues to remain an uncertainty Mohajir's Pakistan M. G. Chitkara,1996 The Constitutional Law of Bangladesh M Rafiqul

Islam,Muhammad Ekramul Haque,2023-07-25 This book provides a supportive lending hand to researchers of constitutional law worldwide about the constitutional law of Bangladesh Moreover this book discusses the evolution and development of the constitutional law of Bangladesh over 50 years from its embryonic stage with reference to comparative constitutional law This book is a very useful resource for the comparative constitutional researchers as readers will be able to easily interpret the constitutional law of Bangladesh from national regional and global constitutional law perspectives This book celebrates the fiftieth anniversary of the Constitution the first of its kind to portray the journey of constitutionalism in Bangladesh comprehensively with intellectual observations and palatable recommendations for improvement This book looks back to the constituent assembly debates intention of the constitution makers and how have those dreams and aspirations have come into realities what goals have been achieved what caused some failures and what should be its future directions At such a momentous point in history it is imperative that its native and foreign constitutional authoritative voices scholarly assess the constitutional design understand the reasons for its successes and occasional failures and ventilate their views towards its progressive development to elevate it to a new height in the 21st century and beyond The book chapters discuss not only the text of the constitution and some judicial precedents rather involve in a much larger task of unveiling the interpretative approach of the Constitution from a comparative constitutional law perspective This book shall project the future roadmap for the journey of constitutionalism in Bangladesh throughout all chapters offering policy recommendations for the revision of the Constitution

Indo-Pak Relations M. G. Chitkara,2001 Fault Lines in a Rising Asia Chung Min Lee,2016-04-19 Asia has already risen by most hard power measures But without an understanding of the downsides of Asia s rise the conventional narrative is incomplete misleading and inaccurate Chung Min Lee explores the fundamental dichotomy that defines contemporary Asia While the region has been an unparalleled economic success it is also home to some of the world s most dangerous diverse and divisive challenges Contrary to prevailing wisdom he says Asia s rise doesn t mean the demise of the West Asia s rise over the past four decades is one of the most significant geopolitical and geoeconomic developments in world affairs as evinced by China s and more recently India s accelerated economic growth Yet the conventional narrative of Asia s rise is incomplete if not misleading given the fundamental dichotomy that defines contemporary Asia a region with unparalleled economic success but also home to the world s most dangerous diverse and divisive security military and political challenges How the strategically consequential Asian states manage to ameliorate or even overcome traditional geopolitical tinderboxes across the Taiwan Strait the Korean Peninsula and the Indian subcontinent and new zones of strategic competition such as the South China Sea is to going to have a profound impact on the shaping of regional order well into the 21st century
