on the appearance of so called unclassifiable digital innovations We have to be precise with this definition First digital innovations have penetrated inside all spheres of life and business nowadays It is impossible to make any operation without using modern advanced technologies actually they are traced from being advanced not so far till usual adapted everyday And the main criterion making innovations everyday is the time Whether it s the simplest operation of searching for a geographical location the operation of buying or selling the simplest transaction communication or the complicated operation of managing a business based on the business modeling the use of modern marketing digital technologies modeling of the ecological future and building long term forecasts all of abovementioned requires Internet usage modern devices or other smart technologies Thus such variety of activity leads to complexity of digital innovation classification Second digital space is unlimited and unlimited by its nature that results just in generalization of common categorical directions Third each process activity or even action take place in a concrete condition It should be said world economy transit to a personalized level i e move from macro via meso throughout of micro to the digitally behavioral economics That is why in our opinion it is difficult to classify digital innovations Nowadays it is not a top secret that with rapid digitalization paces governments miss effective tools of regulation or intervention More and more scientific publications personal blogs and journalistic reports expose the problem of government insolvency in its intervention policies and the unjustifiedness of their actions Neoclassic neo monetarist neo institutional and other neo economic theories are unable to explain today s rapidly changing situation around the globe They have exhausted themselves there is no panacea that can revive the mega economies of the highly developed countries that are sluggishly falling into the recession

Normore, Antonia Issa Lahera, 2018-09-01 Crossing the Bridge of the Digital Divide A Walk with Global Leaders explores the combined effect of the rapid growth of information as an increasingly fragmented information base a large component of which is available only to people with money and or acceptable institutional affiliations In the recent past the outcome of these challenges has been characterized as the digital divide between the information haves and have nots along racial and socio economic lines that seem to widen as time passes To address the issues of digital equity and digital inequality in an effort to bridge the digital divide educational scholars researchers and practitioners are in positions to ensure equitable opportunities are made available for people of all ages races ability sexual orientation and ethnicity in support of social justice for bridging the digital divide The digital divide addresses issues concerning equal opportunity equity and access that have an effect on the development of marginalized and otherwise disenfranchised populations within and across systems nationally and internationally The contributing authors representing United States Canada South Africa New Zealand and the UK posit that education institutions can serve as the bridge to close the digital divide for students who do not have access to information technology in their homes At a time when more computers are made available in schools than ever before the digital divide continues to widen and fewer people in the lowest SES groups are given the opportunity to join the world of computer technology and the internet As a result the influence of leadership activity on institutional racism gender discrimination inequality of opportunity inequity of educational processes digital exclusion and justice have gained currency and attention The contributing national and international authors examine the digital divide in terms of social justice leadership equity and access It is within this context that the authors offer discussions from a lens of their choice i e conceptual review of literature epistemological etc By adopting an educational approach to bridging the digital divide researchers and practitioners can connect and extend long established lines of conceptual and empirical inquiry aimed at improving organizational practices and thereby gain insights that might be otherwise overlooked or assumed This holds great promise for generating refining and testing theories of leadership for equity and access and helps strengthen already vibrant lines of inquiry on social justice
