High/Fly Low Floyd A. Peede, 2005-12-19 Floyd Peede spent 30 years as an officer in the United States Air Force retiring in 1972 at the rank of Colonel. He flew combat as an aircraft commander in three wars. In World War II he flew 35 missions in a B 17 mostly over Germany. On his 29th mission his plane caught fire over Berlin and to avoid becoming a POW he flew eastward. The fire was extinguished and they landed over Poland breaking out at about 200 ft. They found a Russian forward base to land in Poland where they spent a little over a week with the Russian pilots. Over a period of a month they flew back to England to finish their 35 missions before the war ended. In Strategic Air Command he flew B 50s and B 47s in the cold war and in the Vietnam war he flew A 26s mostly over Laos and on the Ho Chi Minh trail where he killed many trucks.

52-Charlie Edward T. Gushee, 2009 420 members of the aviation cadet class of 52 Charlie received their wings in May of 1952. Some transitioned into jet fighters, some into multi engine aircraft. Most members of this famous class flew combat missions in Korea or Vietnam or both. Their stories recounted within are stories of bravery and sacrifice and are sometimes tragic, often humorous and always dedicated. Quinn Fuller was shot down on his first combat mission. Wounded and bleeding he was picked up by a chopper under heavy fire. He returned to his base and flew an additional ninety nine missions. Dick Spaulding's oxygen system failed and he was forced to fly for more than thirty minutes over North Korea while slipping in and out of consciousness. Ralph Mackey, a bombardier and later a member of 52 Charlie, watched from another aircraft as his crew was shot down over Germany in WWII. General Jim McDivitt defied death in Korea and again at Edwards Air Force Base as a test pilot before donning a space suit and flying missions in the Gemini and Apollo programs. Covert Skies Ronald Sutphin, 2022-06-11 Low flying moonlit covert missions over the Mekong in the tiny Helio Courier airdrops into war ravaged Vietnam from the C 123 Provider and testing out the idiot's loop from 200 feet at 400 knots in the North American F 100 Super Sabre are just a few of the every day adventures Ron Sutphin recounts in this memoir spanning nearly three decades. Brig Gen Heinie Aderholt USAF Ret called Ron one of the greatest pilots in the history of aviation, rating him with Jimmie Doolittle, Bob Hoover and Chuck Yeager. Capt Ronald J. Ron Sutphin was a Marine Naval Cadet and commercial aviator. CAT Inc and Air America pilot, test pilot, instructor of pilots, rancher, adventurer and my brother. This work is written and adapted from his unfinished first draft original manuscript. Covert Skies accounts for only a portion of his long career in aviation, however. Amazingly from combat pilot to test pilot to commercial aviator responsible for the welfare of many lives, this isn't a very long story. It's all too short in fact but every bit worth reading. The adventures of this quiet, totally fearless aviator Ron Sutphin is the brother I never knew until now and a larger than life American hero I've come to love. CS Norwood.

zhang's story like many others remains largely untold until the details described in this book. This book combines family memories and Tian zhang's letters tracing Tian zhang's life journey as a pilot. With vivid narrative of Tian zhang's athleticism, love of nature and courage in his formative years, the book illustrates the molding of a hero. The book also chronicles the hardships of the early Chinese air force, the life journey of the young Chinese pilots combating the Japanese invaders in nearly a decade of bloodshed, and the way in which the Chinese and American pilots ally to defeat the mutual enemy during WWII. This book is a tribute to the bravery, dedication, and love of freedom of these heroic and patriotic pilots, largely unknown but never forgotten in the hearts and minds of their loved ones. This book is written by one such surviving niece and American lawyer who, along with the Taiwan Embassy, finally in 2016 placed a photo of a WWII aviator's hat and pilot goggles in an urn dedicated to the Taiwan National Air Force Cemetery, publicly recognizing Tian zhang as a national hero.

BOOK JACKET Jayhawk Jay A. Stout, 2023-01-15 The vivid story of Philippine-born George Cooper, who flew 74 missions over the Pacific. Born in the Philippines to an American father and a Filipina mother, George Cooper was one of the few surviving veteran pilots who saw action over such fearsome targets as Rabaul and Wewak. Not just another flag-waving story of air combat, Jayhawk describes the war as it really was: a conflict with far-reaching tentacles that gripped and tore at not only the combatants but also their families, friends, and the way they lived their lives. Stout examines the story of Cooper's growing up in gentle and idyllic pre-war Manila and how he grew to be the man he was. Stout reviews Cooper's journey to the United States and his unlikely entry into the United States Army Air Forces. Trained as a B-25 pilot, Cooper was assigned to the iconic 345th Bomb Group and flew strafing missions that shredded the enemy but likewise put himself and his comrades in grave danger. A husband and father, Cooper was pulled two ways by the call of duty and his obligation to his wife and daughter. And always on his mind was the family he left behind in the Philippines, who were in thrall to the Japanese.
