Wired to Run Scoop Skupien, 2009-01-01 Over 35 million people will go running this year in the United States alone For some of us it's more than just a hobby over 11 million of us are runaholics Runners and addicts Addicts and runners The two hardly seem to go together unless you're one of those people who periodically put a couple of miles on your running shoes and then think things like Boy this feels good I could go all day long Then you do Or at least try to Running and addiction as in running addiction do indeed go together like chocolate and peanut butter as Wired to Run makes so perfectly clear Written by Scoop Skupien a habitual runner for the past 30 years and the founder of Runaholics

Anonymous Wired to Run is a humorous trip through the world of runaholics and a host of issues that the running obsessed can't quite leave in their dust. It's a good-natured satire of healing groups that will keep readers, whether they're runners or run enablers, laughing page after breathless page. Central to the book and the whole online Runaholics Anonymous organization is Skupien's 12-Step program for recognizing and dealing with this mental and very physical disorder. From 'We admit that we are powerless over running' to 'We reach the Pinnacle: the ability to run in moderation,' the self-help style mixes laughs with actual training tips and other helpful advice. The combination, along with hilarious analysis of six different running types that encompass just about anyone who's ever broken a sweat, pokes great fun at runners, their odd habits, and their running rituals. It's definitely fun on the run.
