Islamic Financial Markets and Institutions Farhad Taghizadeh-Hesary, Hassanudin Mohd Thas Thaker, M. Ishaq Bhatti, Anwar Allah Pitchay, 2025-09-28 Islamic finance has experienced significant growth particularly in the Middle East driven by financial innovation and the expansion of asset securitization This progress is crucial for the future development of Islamic financial institutions IFIs but it also requires a strong regulatory framework and effective monetary policies to ensure stability and inclusivity Maintaining compliance with Islamic law while addressing modern financial challenges presents unique complexities from risk sharing mechanisms to the integration of digital banking This book examines the evolving landscape of Islamic finance exploring the challenges that IFIs face including limited financial inclusion the dominance of non Muslim ownership and gaps in regulatory oversight It emphasizes the importance of transparency standardized regulations and incorporating Shariah compliance into financial supervision Through empirical research and case studies from various markets including Iran Malaysia and Indonesia the book highlights the risks and opportunities within Islamic financial markets Key topics include financial inclusion regulatory reforms the resilience of Islamic finance during economic crises and the role of fintech in expanding access to Islamic financial services The book also discusses innovative financial instruments such as Islamic crowdfunding green sukuk and Takaful highlighting their potential to promote sustainable development It argues that while Islamic finance offers ethical and stable alternatives to conventional banking stronger governance technological integration and policy reforms are necessary to ensure its long term viability Bringing together insights from leading researchers and practitioners this book provides a comprehensive analysis of the current state and prospects of Islamic finance It is an essential resource for policymakers financial regulators and industry professionals looking to enhance financial stability and inclusivity within the Islamic financial system

Value Investing in Asia Peir Shenq (Stanley) Lim, Mun Hong Cheong, 2017-10-06 A practical step by step guide to value investing in Asian stocks Value Investing in Asia offers a uniquely targeted guide to investors seeking new opportunities in Asian markets Most value investing advice is geared toward US markets leaving out the key guidance that pertains specifically to investing in publicly listed Asian companies guidance that is critical for success This book focuses on the opportunities and challenges of Asian markets including current and historical case studies that illustrate various successes risks and pitfalls Step by step guidance helps you unearth great opportunities in Asia from understanding the macroeconomic situation to narrowing down on specific investment opportunities Invaluable for both new and experienced investors this practical reference shows you how to apply value investing principles specifically to Asian stocks Investing in Asia comes with an inherent set of unique challenges that must be understood before any decisions are made some of these challenges are the result of operating practices some are the result of regulatory issues and others come from the markets themselves yet regardless of the source value investors in particular bear the brunt of the obstacles This book shows you what you need to know and how to invest intelligently in Asian companies Step by step approach guides investors towards the practical application of value investing principles in Asia Navigate the challenges unique to Asian investing Examine real life case studies that illustrate both risk and opportunity Delve into the key markets in Greater China and South East Asia Includes exclusive interviews with well known value investors in Asia Despite the challenges and risks Asian markets represent significant opportunity especially for investors seeking value Value Investing in Asia offers a practical reference for new and experienced investors with real world guidance toward intelligently investing in Asian markets

Financial Markets and Institutions in Malaysia (UUM Press) Norhafiza Nordin,Norzalina Ahmad,Nur Hafizah Mohammad Ismail,Sabariah Nordin,2022-04-10 Many students find it difficult to understand financial market concepts Most of the recommended textbooks are written by foreign authors This book explains the concepts and provides local examples for readers to explore and understand the subject matter better The topics are related to financial markets financial institutions and financial instruments Examples are presented so that the students and anyone interested in learning about financial markets can easily understand the concepts The main objective of this book is to enable key concepts and issues that underlie financial markets to be accessible to all Each chapter comes with review questions to assist students and readers in checking their understanding of the subject matter
