Al-Qur'an, the Guidance for Mankind - English Translation of the Meanings of Al-Qur'an with Arabic Muhammad Farooq-i-Azam Malik, 1997 Al Qur an the Guidance for mankind is a unique translation of the Holy Qur an in contemporary American English It includes the Biography of the Prophet Muhammad peace be upon him his mission as a Prophet his ranking as in the human history Text is paragraphed by theme and theme is written in the margins on each page for easy reference Its features include 1 Field Testing the Communication of Divine Message The unique feature of this translation is its field testing for over 3 1 2 years to improve the communication and understanding of the Divine Message Translation passages were given to the New Muslim and Non Muslim high school and college students for reading under the supervision of various Ulema scholars After reading the person was asked to explain as to what he/she understood from the passage. If his/her understanding was the same as is in the Arabic Text of the Holy Qur'an then we concluded that we have been successful in conveying the Divine Message properly. If his/her understanding was different than what the Qur'anic verses were stating we kept on rewording the translation until those verses were understood properly. It was tremendous patience on part of the participants. May Allah reward them all.

2 Simplicity In this translation Simple Language and Direct Approach is used for appealing to the common sense of scholars and common people.

3 Understandability There are no foot notes to refer and no commentary or lengthy explanations to read. All necessary explanations have been incorporated right there in the text with italic type setting to differentiate from the translation of the meanings of Qur'anic Arabic Text.

4 Outline of Pertinent Information Before the start of each Srah information relating to its Period of Revelation, Major Issues, Divine Laws and Guidance has been presented as an outline. Then a summary of the preceding events has been tabulated for the reader to understand the historical background to grasp the full meaning of the Divine Message.

5 Reviews, Input and Approvals This project was started in 1991 and initial draft completed in 1994. Then the Translation was sent to different Ulema Scholars in Town and throughout United States for their review and input. After their reviews and input it was sent to Jme Al Azhar Al Sharif in Egypt, Ummal Qur in Saudi Arabia and International Islamic University in Pakistan for their review, input and approval. This translation was published after their reviews and approvals.

The Koran in English Bruce B. Lawrence, 2017-06-12. The untold story of how the Arabic Qur'an became the English Koran. For millions of Muslims the Qur'an is sacred only in Arabic, the original Arabic in which it was revealed to the Prophet Muhammad in the seventh century to many Arab and non-Arab believers alike. The book literally defies translation. Yet English translations exist and are growing in both number and importance. Bruce Lawrence tells the remarkable story of the ongoing struggle to render the Qur'an's lyrical verses into English and to make English itself an Islamic language. The Koran in English revisits the life of Muhammad and the origins of the Qur'an before recounting the first translation of the book into Latin by a non-Muslim, Robert of Ketton's twelfth century version paved the way for later ones in German and French but it was not until the eighteenth century that George Sale's influential English version appeared. Lawrence explains how many of these early translations while part of a Christian agenda to know the enemy often revealed grudging respect for their Abrahamic rival. British expansion in the modern era produced an anomaly: fresh English translations from the original Arabic not by Arabs or non-Muslims but by South Asian Muslim scholars. The first book to explore the complexities of this translation saga, The Koran in English also looks at cyber Korans, versions by feminist translators and now a graphic Koran, the American Qur'an created by the acclaimed visual artist Sandow Birk.
