

Example of Reader-response Criticism: 3 Idiots Film (Source: studymoose.com)

...the first lesson in the movie was the pursuit of excellence through passion and not just the pursuit of success. The movie emphasized that success is just a by-product of the pursuit of excellence through continued improvement and that success should not be chased because it happens automatically in life and geared towards excellence. The film also reiterated an old adage that when one's profession is also his hobby then passion becomes the profession which eventually leads to excellence in life. The motion picture also imparted the importance of life and showed the audience how beautiful it is. The film encouraged its audience to live life to the fullest as if it's their last day on earth because life is God's gift to man. The movie also stressed the beauty of life and that the pursuit of happiness is the "end all and be all" of living. Furthermore, the importance of making a difference to the lives of others is also highlighted in the film.

The 3 idiots film also gave emphasis to the importance of hard work and the danger of living a mediocre life. Although the movie encouraged humility in pursuit of excellence, as one of the characters best said it "Legs down to earth and eyes looking beyond the sky" people must not be afraid to fail and must not be terrified in going out of their comfort zones. People must push their boundaries to the limits. Additionally, most Filipinos can relate to the movie especially because the plot revolves around the importance of education, poverty, friendship and love for family which are close to every Filipino's heart...
