What Do I Read Next? 00 V2 Gale Group,2000-11 Military Order of World Wars ,1996-06-15 In this ambitious study of the intense and often adversarial relationship between English and American literature in the nineteenth century Robert Weisbuch portrays the rise of American literary nationalism as a self conscious effort to resist and finally to transcend the contemporary British influence Describing the transatlantic double cross of literary influence Weisbuch documents both the American desire to create a literature distinctly different from English models and the English insistence that any such attempt could only fail The American response as he demonstrates was to make strengths out of national disadvantages by rethinking history time and traditional concepts of the self and by reinterpreting and ridiculing major British texts in mocking allusions and scornful parodies Weisbuch approaches a precise characterization of this double cross by focusing on paired sets of English and American texts Investigations of the causes motives and literary results of the struggle alternate with detailed analyses of several test cases Weisbuch considers Melville s challenge to Dickens Thoreau s response to Coleridge and Wordsworth Hawthorne s adaptation of Keats and influence on Eliot Whitman s competition with Arnold and Poe s reshaping of Shelley Adding a new dimension to the exploration of an emerging aesthetic consciousness Atlantic Double Cross provides important insights into the creation of the American literary canon Great Cinema Detectives John Howard Reid,2006-08-03 Providing an overview of the entire thriller genre this book examines over 160 movies from classic Hollywood and British studios including such essential film noir entries as Murder My Sweet The Dark Corner The Maltese Falcon and Afraid To Talk Great cinema detectives are represented by William Powell all six of his Thin Man pictures are detailed and discussed Basil Rathbone Sherlock Holmes Warner Oland Charlie Chan Sidney Toler Charlie Chan Peter Ustinov Hercule Poirot Margaret Rutherford all four of her Miss Marple films are covered and others including the Saint the Falcon Bulldog Drummond and Philo Vance From director Alfred Hitchcock comes Notorious Saboteur Number 17 and Rich and Strange A few comedies and spoofs such as Satan Met a Lady an amazing re make of the original Maltese Falcon with Bette Davis and Warren William and Who Done It with Abbott and Costello round out the survey Staatliche Subventionierung kirchlicher Privatschulen Rudolf Halberstadt,1977 Book Review Index ,2002 The Mereon Matrix Lynnclaire Dennis,Jytte Brender McNair,Louis H. Learning Disabilities Lynne V. Feagans, Elizabeth J. Short, 2012-11-12 Although experts agree that various types of learning disabilities do exist few attempts have been made to classify learning disabled children into subtypes The editors of this collection feel that the lack of subcategorization has frustrated previous research efforts to obtain a generalizable body of knowledge in the field To meet this critical need for definitive information this book presents basic reviews and theoretical approaches used to subtype learning disabled children ranging from a behavior genetics approach to a dimensional approach It also demonstrates actual research methods utilizing theoretical approaches Inflammatory and Autoimmune

Dale, Angela Vincent, 2010-01-19 Inflammatory disorders of the nervous system although individually uncommon collectively make up 10 20% of acute paediatric neurology presentations and many are potentially treatable Research into them is lagging behind adult research but better diagnosis and often simple treatments could lead to substantial clinical benefit and reduction in long term disability This book provides a detailed and comprehensive summary of the childhood diseases that are or are likely to be caused by the immune system The authors not only describe these disorders and their treatments comprehensively helping pediatricians and pediatric neurologists to improve their understanding and recognition of the conditions but also highlight recent and exciting developments that will be of considerable importance in the future Women and Mathematics Lynn H. U.S. Museum Histories and the Politics of Interpretation Laura Schiavo, 2023-12-08 U S Museum Histories and the Politics of Interpretation is the first collection to examine the history of museums in the United States through the lens of the political and ideological underpinnings at the heart of exhibitions collecting and programming Including contributions from historians art historians anthropologists academics and museum professionals the book argues that museums have always been embedded in the politics and culture of their time whether that means a reification of hegemonic notions of race gender and progress or a challenge to those normative structures Contributions probe the political nature of collection and interpretation as concept and practice and museum work as both reflective of and contributing to the politics and circulation of power in different historical moments As a whole the volume provides detailed readings of museums that demonstrate the ways in which these trusted cultural institutions have intervened in shifting concepts of nation community indigeneity race citizenship inclusion identity localism and memory U S Museum Histories and the Politics of Interpretation makes arguments about the historically and politically rooted nature of cultural production in museums that apply to institutions across the globe It is essential reading for students and scholars of museum studies public history cultural history art history and memory Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 ,1987 Congressional Record United States. Framed Sanford Levinson, 2012-03-01 In his widely acclaimed volume Our Undemocratic Constitution Sanford Levinson boldly argued that our Constitution should not be treated with sanctimonious reverence but as a badly flawed document deserving revision Now Levinson takes us deeper asking what were the original assumptions underlying our institutions and whether we accept those assumptions 225 years later In Framed Levinson challenges our belief that the most important features of our constitutions concern what rights they protect Instead he focuses on the fundamental procedures of governance such as congressional bicameralism the selection of the President by the electoral college or the dimensions of the President s veto power not to mention the near impossibility of amending the United States Constitution These seemingly settled and hardwired structures contribute to the now almost universally recognized dysfunctionality of American politics Levinson argues that we should stop treating the United States Constitution as uniquely exemplifying the American constitutional tradition We should be aware of the 50 state constitutions often interestingly different and perhaps better than the national model Many states have updated their constitutions by frequent amendment or by complete replacement via state constitutional conventions California s ungovernable condition has prompted serious calls for a constitutional convention This constant churn indicates that basic law often reaches the point where it fails and becomes obsolete Given the experience of so many states he writes surely it is reasonable to believe that the U S Constitution merits its own updating Whether we are concerned about making America more genuinely democratic or only about creating a system of government that can more effectively respond to contemporary challenges we must confront the ways our constitutions especially the United States Constitution must be changed in fundamental ways The Publishers Weekly ,2002 Resources in Education ,1985 Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 United States.
