Sharing Cities Duncan McLaren, Julian Agyeman, 2015-12-04 How cities can build on the sharing economy and smart technology to deliver a sharing paradigm that supports justice solidarity and sustainability The future of humanity is urban and the nature of urban space enables and necessitates sharing of resources goods and services experiences Yet traditional forms of sharing have been undermined in modern cities by social fragmentation and commercialization of the public realm In Sharing Cities

Duncan McLaren and Julian Agyeman argue that the intersection of cities highly networked physical space with new digital technologies and new mediated forms of sharing offers cities the opportunity to connect smart technology to justice solidarity and sustainability McLaren and Agyeman explore the opportunities and risks for sustainability solidarity and justice in the changing nature of sharing McLaren and Agyeman propose a new sharing paradigm which goes beyond the faddish sharing economy seen in such ventures as Uber and TaskRabbit to envision models of sharing that are not always commercial but also communal encouraging trust and collaboration Detailed case studies of San Francisco Seoul Copenhagen Medellin Amsterdam and Bengaluru formerly Bangalore contextualize the authors discussions of collaborative consumption and production the shared public realm both physical and virtual the design of sharing to enhance equity and justice and the prospects for scaling up the sharing paradigm through city governance They show how sharing could shift values and norms enable civic engagement and political activism and rebuild a shared urban commons Their case for sharing and solidarity offers a powerful alternative for urban futures to conventional race to the bottom narratives of competition enclosure and division creative drivers Written itself as a collaborative project between Karen Savage and Dominic Symonds this is a strikingly original take on the economics of working together Ireland's 1916 Rising Mark McCarthy, 2016-05-06 In light of its upcoming centenary in 2016 the time seems ripe to ask why how and in what ways has memory of Ireland's 1916 Rising persisted over the decades In pursuing answers to these questions which are not only of historical concern but of contemporary political and cultural importance this book breaks new ground by offering a wide ranging exploration of the making and remembrance of the story of 1916 in modern times It draws together the interlocking dimensions of history making commemoration and heritage to reveal the Rising's undeniable influence upon modern Ireland's evolution both instantaneous and long term In addition to furnishing a history of the tumultuous events of Easter 1916 which rattled the British Empire's foundations and enthused independence movements elsewhere Ireland's 1916 Rising mainly concentrates on illuminating the evolving relationship between the Irish past and present In doing so it unearths the far reaching political impacts and deep seated cultural legacies of the actions taken by the rebels as evidenced by the most pivotal episodes in the Rising's commemoration and the myriad varieties of heritage associated with its memory This volume also presents a wider perspective on the ways in which conceptualisations of heritage culture and identity in Westernised societies are shaped by continuities and changes in politics society and economy In a topical conclusion the book examines the legacy of Queen Elizabeth II's visit to the Garden of Remembrance in 2011 and looks to the Rising's 100th anniversary by identifying the common ground that can be found in pluralist and reconciliatory approaches to remembrance Dialogue Gap Peter Nixon, 2012-02-06 The book that bridges the chasm between communication and understanding in negotiations For years Peter Nixon worked with people from all walks of life teaching them the art of negotiation But it soon became apparent that the issue was not negotiation itself but dialogue between parties We have become experts at sending information via email text message Internet TV and other forms of media communicating but not engaging in an active dialogue defined by collaborative thinking In Dialogue Gap Nixon explores this growing disconnect and its significance in an increasingly globalized world where the ability to engage with others in order to address issues like climate change cultural differences etc has become essential Helps the reader differentiate communication and dialogue Explores the make up and causes of the Dialogue Gap and what constitutes good dialogue the right people talking about the right issues in the right way at the right time and in the right place Identifies the most common reasons people don't dialogue effectively and provides helpful tips on how to engage in more effective productive dialogues Effective dialogue is essential for general success ensuring that all key stakeholders in business politics or elsewhere get what they want in the most efficient and productive way possible Looking at successful and failed dialogues the author has experienced first hand in Asia Europe North America the Caribbean and the Middle East in both the public and private sector from across industries Dialogue Gap provides essential information for making the most of your interactions with others Grundlagen der Allgemeinen Betriebswirtschaftslehre Manfred

Quarch, 2020-07-20 Die digitale Disruption ist eine der prägenden Entwicklungen des 21. Jahrhunderts. Immer neue sich stetig wandelnde Geschäftsmodelle müssen in den regulatorischen Rahmen der analogen Welt eingefügt werden. Besonderes Augenmerk gebührt dabei der Digitalisierung des Finanzmarkts, die regelmäßig mit dem Neologismus FinTech überschrieben wird. Exemplarisch für diese Entwicklungen untersucht Benedikt M. Quarch die Europäische Regulierung der ökonomisch bedeutendsten FinTech-Erscheinung des sog. Crowdlendings, also der kreditbasierten Schwarmfinanzierung. Auf der Grundlage einer ökonomischen Analyse beleuchtet er rechtsvergleichend die nationalen Crowdlending-Regulierungsregime in Frankreich, den Niederlanden und Deutschland sowie das einschlägige Unionsrecht samt der jüngsten Gesetzgebungspläne, welche die Europäische Kommission in ihrem FinTech Aktionsplan vorgestellt hat. Gemeinsamkeiten und Unterschiede der verschiedenen Regulierungsansätze werden methodisch herausgearbeitet und zum Abschluss in einen
