ELT Revisited Marcela Malá, Zuzana Šaffková, 2016-08-17 This volume brings together selected papers presented during the 9th International Conference of the Association of Czech Teachers of English titled Teaching for Tomorrow and hosted by the English Department of the Faculty of Science Humanities and Education at the Technical University of Liberec, Czech Republic. The conference brought together English Language Teaching (ELT) professionals from primary, secondary and tertiary education to discuss a variety of English as a Foreign Language (EFL) related topics ranging from reports on language research to viewpoints and insights on classroom practice. The contributions are grouped into three sections: a) Focus on Selected Language Topics, b) Increasing Learner Autonomy and c) Innovative Teaching English as a Foreign Language (TEFL) ideas. Papers were carefully chosen in order to appeal to a broad audience. Consequently, there are articles which have a mainly theoretical bent and those which have a more practical leaning. Although the conference was hosted in the Czech Republic and the majority of participants were from this country, the book is relevant to any context where English is taught as a foreign or second language. Therefore, teachers, advanced students of English, language researchers and indeed anyone engaged in the EFL profession will find this collection both educational and thought provoking.

Grammar in ELT and ELT Materials Graham Burton, 2023-06-06 This book investigates the content of the grammar syllabus typically employed in mainstream English Language Teaching. Using a mixed methods approach, the author examines how the syllabuses used in coursebooks are actually constructed, how they evolved and how valid their contents are as a basis for teaching. The research reported consists of a broad exploration of primary sources in order to outline the evolution of ELT pedagogical grammar, ten interviews with key ELT authors and publishing professionals which allows for the investigation of the decision-making processes underlying the choice of grammar content in ELT teaching materials and finally the presentation of case studies which examine three areas of grammar, analysing the evolution of their treatment in ELT materials both historical and contemporary and comparing their current treatment to data on real learner use.
