Mahmoud Darwish:

Mahmoud Darwish Muna Abu Eid, 2016-05-31 Mahmoud Darwish is the poet laureate of the Palestinian national struggle. His poems resonate across the entire Arab world and more than any other single figure perhaps since the death of Yasser Arafat he represents a unifying figurehead for Palestinian national aspirations. In this the first comprehensive biography of Darwish in English Muna Abu Eid examines the poet's intellectual status on two fronts both national and public and offers a critical assessment of Darwish's national and political life. Based on Darwish's own writings and interviews with people who worked with him and situating Darwish's poetry within the wider context of Palestinian struggles inside Israel this book explores the influence of Darwish's life and work in the Palestinian territories and in the diaspora from the destruction of his Galilee village and displacement of his family during the 1948 Nakba to his return and infiltration back into the homeland and the struggle for survival inside Israel to his internal and external exiles in Haifa Moscow Cairo Beirut Tunisia Paris and even Ramallah.

Weniger Rosen Mahmud Darwish, 2012 Mahmoud Darwish wurde 1941 im Dorf al Birwe bei Akko Palästina geboren. Nach mehreren Inhaftierungen verließ er Israel und ging 1970 ins Exil. Darwish gilt als einer der herausragenden Dichter der arabischen Welt und als die poetische Stimme des palästinensischen Volkes. Zuletzt lebte er in Amman und Ramallah. Er starb 2008 in Houston, Texas. Khalid Al Maaly geboren 1956 verließ 1979 aus politischen Gründen den Irak. Er lebt seit 1980 als Schriftsteller, Übersetzer und Verleger in Köln. 1991 erhielt er den Förderpreis des Landes Nordrhein-Westfalen.

Mahmoud Darwish Khaled Mattawa, 2014-06-12 In Mahmoud Darwish: The Poet's Art and His Nation Mattawa pays tribute to one of the most celebrated and well-read poets of our era. With detailed knowledge of Arabic verse and a firm grounding in Palestinian history, Mattawa explores the ways in which Darwish's aesthetics have played a crucial role in shaping and maintaining Palestinian identity and culture through decades of warfare, attrition, exile, and land confiscation. Mattawa chronicles the evolution of his poetry from a young poet igniting resistance in occupied land to his decades in exile where his work grew in ambition and scope. In doing so, Mattawa reveals Darwish's verse to be both rooted to its place of longing and to transcend place as it reaches for the universal and the human.

Israel Denial Cary Nelson, 2019-06-07 A work of rigorous intellectual inquiry critiquing the BDS movement in academia. Jewish Journal Israel Denial is the first book to offer detailed analyses of the work faculty members have published individually and collectively in support of the Boycott, Divestment, and Sanctions (BDS) movement. It contrasts their claims with options for promoting peace. The faculty discussed here have devoted a significant part of their professional lives to delegitimizing the Jewish state While there are beliefs they hold in common including the conviction that there is nothing good to say about Israel they also develop distinctive arguments designed to recruit converts to their cause in novel ways They do so both as writers and as teachers Israel Denial is the first to give substantial attention to anti Zionist pedagogy No effort to understand the BDS movement s impact on the academy and public policy can be complete without the kind of understanding this book offers A co publication of the Academic Engagement Network Trauma and Memory Studies:

transnational connections through written texts and engaged with contemporaneous decolonization movements throughout the Arab world challenging both Israeli policies and their own cultural isolation Maha Nassar's readings not only deprovincialize the Palestinians of Israel but write them back into Palestinian Arab and global history Kijk!, 2000

Jahrbuch der Deutschen Akademie fuer Sprache + Dichtung 2003, Multiculturalism in Israel Adia Mendelson-Maoz, 2015-03-15 By analyzing its position within the struggles for recognition and reception of different national and ethnic cultural groups this book offers a bold new picture of Israeli literature Through comparative discussion of the literatures of Palestinian citizens of Israel of Mizrahim of migrants from the former Soviet Union and of Ethiopian Israelis the author demonstrates an unexpected richness and diversity in the Israeli literary scene a reality very different from the monocultural image that Zionism aspired to create Drawing on a wide body of social and literary theory Mendelson Maoz compares and contrasts the literatures of the four communities she profiles In her discussion of the literature of the Palestinian citizens of Israel she presents the question of language and translation and she provides three case studies of particular authors and their reception Her study of Mizrahi literature adopts a chronological approach starting in the 1950s and proceeding toward contemporary Mizrahi writing while discussing questions of authenticity and self determination The discussion of Israeli literature written by immigrants from the former Soviet Union focuses both on authors who write Israeli literature in Russian and of Russian immigrants writing in Hebrew The final section of the book provides a valuable new discussion of the work of Ethiopian Israeli writers a group whose contributions have seldom been previously acknowledged The picture that emerges from this groundbreaking book replaces the traditional homogeneous historical narrative of Israeli literature with a diversity of voices a multiplicity of origins and a wide range of different perspectives In doing so it will provoke researchers in a wide range of cultural fields to look at the rich traditions that underlie it in new and fresh ways

Literature and Culture Michael R. Griffiths, 2017-05-15 From the Truth and Reconciliation Commission in South Africa to the United Nations Permanent Memorial to the Victims of Slavery and the Transatlantic Slave Trade many worthwhile processes of public memory have been enacted on the national and international levels But how do these extant practices of memory function to precipitate justice and recompense Are there moments when such techniques performances and displays of memory serve to obscure and elide aspects of the history of colonial governmentality This collection addresses these and other questions in essays that take up the varied legacies continuities modes of memorialization and poetics of remaking that attend colonial governmentality in spaces as varied as the Maghreb and the Solomon Islands Highlighting the continued injustices arising from a process whose aftermath is far from settled the contributors examine works by twentieth century authors representing Asia Africa North America Latin America Australia and Europe Imperial practices throughout the world have fomented a veritable culture of memory The essays in this volume show how the legacy of colonialism s attempt to transform the mode of life of colonized peoples has been central to the largely unequal phenomenon of globalization

Proust among the Nations Jacqueline Rose, 2024-05-31 Known for her far reaching examinations of psychoanalysis literature and politics Jacqueline Rose has in recent years turned her attention to the Israel Palestine conflict one of the most enduring and apparently intractable conflicts of our time In Proust among the Nations she takes the development of her thought on this crisis a stage further revealing it as a distinctly Western problem In a radical rereading of the Dreyfus affair through the lens of Marcel Proust in dialogue with Freud Rose offers a fresh and nuanced account of the rise of Jewish nationalism and the subsequent creation of Israel Following Proust's heirs Beckett and Genet and a host of Middle Eastern writers artists and filmmakers Rose traces the shifting dynamic of memory and identity across the crucial and ongoing cultural links between Europe and Palestine A powerful and elegant analysis of the responsibility of writing Proust among the Nations makes the case for literature as a unique resource for understanding political struggle and gives us new ways to think creatively about the violence in the Middle East Melancholy Acts Nouri Gana, 2023-08-01 CHOICE

OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC TITLE How do the literatures and cultures of oppressed societies survive and flourish in spite of the overdetermining conditions of precarity and injustice of which they are a product and against which they protest Might the symptom of oppression become simultaneously the agent of its critique Melancholy Acts offers richly nuanced reflections on these questions through a series of wide ranging engagements with Arab thought literature and film in the aftermath of the 1948 dispossession of Palestinians and the 1967 military defeat of Arab armies Melancholy Acts offers a psychoaffective theory of cultural production that arises out of the disjunction between political impoverishment and cultural resistance to colonial and neoliberal oppression Such a theory allows the author to trace the melancholy disposition of Arabic literary and filmic productions and to discern the precarious rhetorical modes of their critical intervention in a culture that is continually strained to its breaking point Across six chapters Melancholy Acts reads with rigor and sensitivity contentious topics of Arab contemporaneity such as secular modernity and manhood Arab nationalism and leftism literary and artistic elitism or commitment Islamism and martyrdom The book tracks the melancholy politics that inform the literary and cultural projects of a multitude of Arab novelists Ghassan Kanafani and Naguib Mahfouz poets and playwrights Mahmoud Darwish Nizar Qabbani and Saadallah Wannous filmmakers Nouri Bouzid Moufida Tlatli Youssef Chahine and Hany Abu Assad alongside the work of such intellectuals as Hussein Muruwwa Malek Bennabi Karima Lazali George Tarabishi and Fethi Benslama from within the Arab world as well as such non Arab thinkers as Freud Lacan Adorno Fanon Spivak Butler and Ick Melancholy Acts charts a fresh and bold new approach to Arabic and comparative literature that combines in interlaced simultaneity a high sensitivity to local idioms as they swerve between symptom and critique with nuanced knowledge of the geopolitics of theory and psychoanalysis Around the World in 80 Books David Damrosch, 2021-11-04 Restlessly curious insightful

Palestinian Culture and the Nakba Hania Nashef, 2018-10-30 The Nakba not only resulted in the loss of the homeland but also caused the dispersal and ruin of entire Palestinian communities Even though the term Nakba refers to a singular historic event the consequence of 1948 has symptomatically become part of Palestinian identity and the element that demarcates who the Palestinian is Palestinian exile and loss have evolved into cultural symbols that at once help define the person and allow the person to remember the loss Although accounts of the Palestinians experience of the expulsion from the land are similar the emblems that provoke these particular memories differ Certain mementos memories or objects help in commemorating the homeland This book looks at the icons narratives and symbols that have become synonymous with Palestinian identity and culture and which have in the absence of a homeland become a source of memory It discusses how these icons have come into being and how they have evolved into sites of power which help to keep the story and identity of the Palestinians alive The book looks at examples from Palestinian caricature film literature poetry and painting to see how these works ignite memories of the homeland and help to reinforce the diasporic identity It also argues that the creators of these narratives or emblems have themselves become cultural icons within the collective Palestinian recollection By introducing the Nakba as a lived experience this book will appeal to students and scholars of Middle East Studies Cultural Studies Literature and Media Studies Arabic Literature for the Classroom Mushin al-Musawi, 2017-04-21 This book presents theoretical and methodical cultural concerns in teaching literatures from non American cultures along with issues of cross cultural communication cultural competency and translation Covering topics such as the 1001 Nights Maqamat Arabic poetry women s writing classical poetics issues of gender race and class North African concerns language acquisition through literature Arab spring writing women s correspondence issues connected with the so called nahdah revival movement in the 19th century and many others the book provides perspectives and topics that serve in both the planning of new courses and accommodation to already existing programs
