Face the Music Peter Duchin, Patricia Beard, 2021-12-07 In this poignant memoir the internationally celebrated bandleader reflects on family illness grief and a bygone era of glamour contemplating not just his career but the history of midcentury music and nightlife and the enormously important role that the bandstand played in his life The internationally famous bandleader Peter Duchin's six decades of performing have taken him to the most exclusive dance floors and concert halls in the world He has played for presidents kings and queens as well as for civil rights and cultural organizations But in 2013 Duchin suffered a stroke that left him with limited use of his left hand severely impacting his career Days of recuperating from his stroke and later from a critical case of Covid 19 inspired Duchin to reconsider his complicated past His father the legendary bandleader Eddy Duchin died when Peter was twelve his mother Marjorie Oelrichs Duchin died when he was just six days old In the succeeding decades Duchin would follow his father to become the epitome of mid 20th Century glamour But it was only half a century later in the aftermath of his sudden illnesses that he began to see his mother and father not just as the parents he never had but as the people he never got to know and at the same time to reconsider the milieu in which he has been both a symbol and a participant More than a memoir Face the Music offers a window into the era of debutantes and white tie balls when such events made national headlines Duchin explores what glamour and society once meant and what they mean now With sincerity and humor Face the Music offers a moving portrait of an extraordinary life its disruptions and revitalization

From the Minds of Jazz Musicians David Schroeder,2017-11-22 From the Minds of Jazz Musicians Conversations with the Creative and Inspired celebrates contemporary jazz artists who have toiled struggled and succeeded in finding their creative space The volume was developed through transcribing and editing selected interviews with 35 jazz artists conducted by the author between 2009 and 2012 in New York City with a historical essay on each artist to provide context The interviews feature musicians from a broad range of musical styles and experiences ranging from Gerald Wilson born in 1918 to Chris Potter born in 1971 Topics range from biographical life histories to artists descriptions of mentor relationships revealing the important life lessons they learned along the way With the goal to discover the person behind the persona the author elicits conversations that speak volumes on the creative process mining the individualistic perspectives of seminal artists who witnessed history in the making The interviews present the artists candid and direct opinions on music and how they have succeeded in pursuing their unique and creative lives      Stan Getz Nicholas Churchill,2004-12-29 Some may only know the jazz legend Stan Getz tenor saxophonist for his bossa nova hits Desafinado and The Girl from Ipanema However Getz born in 1927 began to play professionally at age 15 and his rich musical career lasted until shortly before his death on June 6 1991 He played in a wide variety of musical settings such as big band orchestral quartet and duo The incredible beauty of his sound sparked the late jazz great John Coltrane to say We would all play like Stan Getz if we could When Getz died jazz trumpeter Dizzy Gillespie said He was sheer genius And there s one thing about this man he was the most melodic player on the jazz scene This bibliography the first of its kind contains a total of 2 576 bibliographic citations with 2 292 of them annotated It includes references to periodical literature articles from news wire services books dissertations films videos television programs radio broadcasts and Web sites The citations are primarily from English language sources Materials in English and French as well as a handful of items from other languages are annotated This work includes a preface that contains the scope of the work a user s guide and a list of more than 340 periodicals cited The main body of the work is divided into the following sections album reviews performance reviews discographies and discographical information transcriptions biographical and critical works filmography and appendix Album reviews are provided for 240 albums along with the discographical details for each of these albums The appendix contains unannotated citations to materials in Danish Dutch German Italian Norwegian Spanish and Swedish      Here and Now! Pat Martino,2011-09-01 Book By age 16 Pat Martino was already working as a member of R but more important learning to transcend the instrument itself and live his life completely in the moment More than just the remarkable story of one of the most original and profoundly influential guitarists in jazz history this extraordinarily revealing autobiography is also a survival manual of sorts in overcoming incredible adversity and learning to live in the here and now      Queen Nadine Cohodas,2007-12-18 Queen is the landmark biography of the brief intensely lived life and soulful music of the great Dinah Washington A gospel star at fifteen she was discovered by jazz great Lionel Hampton at eighteen and for the rest of her life was on the road playing clubs or singing in the studio making music one way or another Dinah s tart and heartfelt voice quickly became her trademark she was a distinctive stylist crossing over from the race music category to the pop and jazz charts Known in her day as Queen of the Blues and Queen of the Juke Boxes Dinah was regarded as that rare first take artist her studio recordings reflecting the same passionate energy she brought to the stage As Nadine Cohodas shows us Dinah suffered her share of heartbreak in her personal life but she thrived on the growing audience response that greeted her signature tunes What a Diff rence a Day Makes Evil Gal Blues and Baby You ve Got What It Takes with Brook Benton She made every song she sang her own Dinah lives large in these pages with her seven marriages her penchant for clothes cars furs and diets and her famously feisty personality testy one moment and generous the next This biography meticulously researched and gracefully written is the first to draw on extensive interviews with family members and newly discovered documents It is a revelation of Dinah's work and her life Cohodas captures the Queen in all her contradictions and we hear in this book the voice of a natural star born to entertain and to be loved      At the Jazz Band Ball Nat Hentoff,2010-06-01 Nat Hentoff renowned jazz critic civil liberties activist and fearless contrarian I'm a Jewish atheist civil libertarian pro lifer has lived through much of jazz's history and has known many of jazz's most important figures often as friend and confidant Hentoff has been a tireless advocate for the neglected parts of jazz history including forgotten sidemen and women This volume includes his best recent work short essays long interviews and personal recollections From Duke Ellington and Louis Armstrong to Ornette Coleman and Quincy Jones Hentoff brings the jazz greats to life and traces their art to gospel blues and many other forms of American music At the Jazz Band Ball also includes Hentoff's keen cosmopolitan observations on a wide range of issues The book shows how jazz and education are a vital partnership how free expression is the essence of liberty and how social justice issues like health care and strong civil rights and liberties keep all the arts and all members of society strong      MINDFlow, the Path to Mindfulness-in-flow in Relationships, Work and Home Life Ron

Cacioppe,2019-05-13 This innovative book combines two very special states of awareness mindfulness and flow into a new and unique state called mindflow The practice of mindflow leads to a stress free healthy fulfilling and effective life in today's complex and challenging environment It brings together current understanding and research of mindfulness and flow with ancient practices of meditation and mindfulness to describe the extra ordinary state of mindfulness in flow It is both a how to do and a how to be book It considers the states and practices of mindfulness meditation and flow and a process that leads to the experience of mindfulness in flow where a person completely engages in an activity yet is mindful and aware of the surrounding environment Mindflow leads to positive outcomes in daily life relationships work and for the world Over 50 practical techniques and applications are described here so the reader can experience mindflow in every part of life      From the Minds of Jazz Musicians, Volume II David Schroeder,2023-10-13 From the Minds of Jazz Musicians Volume II

Conversations with the Creative and Inspired is a follow up to Volume I's celebration of contemporary jazz artists who have toiled struggled and succeeded in finding their creative space Volume II was developed through transcribing and editing selected interviews with 29 jazz artists conducted by the author since 2011 along with a historical essay on each artist The interviews feature musicians from a broad range of musical styles and experiences with their beginnings ranging from the 50s to the early 80s Topics range from biographical life histories to descriptions of mentor relationships revealing the important life lessons they learned along the way With the goal to discover the person behind the persona the author elicits conversations that speak of the creative process mining the individualistic perspectives of seminal artists who witnessed history in the making By comparing and contrasting each artist's perspective to discover similarities in their career paths these volumes are an important research tool for students and academics offering direct information from leading figures in the jazz world      Audio ,1993      Billboard ,2001-11-17 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly
