How Race Is Made In America Immigration Citizenship And The Historical Power Of Racial Scripts American Crossroads:

How Race Is Made in America Natalia Molina, 2014 How Race Is Made in America examines Mexican Americans from 1924 when American law drastically reduced immigration into the United States to 1965 when many quotas were abolished to understand how broad themes of race and citizenship are constructed These years shaped the emergence of what Natalia Molina describes as an immigration regime which defined the racial categories that continue to influence perceptions in the United States about Mexican Americans race and ethnicity Molina demonstrates that despite the multiplicity of influences that help shape our concept of race common themes prevail Examining legal political social and cultural sources related to immigration she advances the theory that our understanding of race is socially constructed in relational ways that is in correspondence to other groups Molina introduces and explains her central theory racial scripts which highlights the ways in which the lives of racialized groups are linked across time and space and thereby affect one another How Race Is Made in America also shows that these racial scripts are easily adopted and adapted to apply to different racial groups The Critic in the World Amy Lindeman Allen, Francisco Lozada, Yak-hwee Tan, 2024-11-01 A Pact of Love with Criticism A Pact of Blood with the World Building on the legacy of Fernando F Segovia the pioneering essays in this volume redefine the intersection of biblical studies and geopolitics Through a thorough exploration of how ancient texts and modern readers influence and reflect geopolitical dynamics each contributor reveals how biblical narratives have shaped and been shaped by historical power structures territorial conflicts and climate changes and cultural exchanges Essays employ contemporary geopolitical concepts that move beyond traditional readings to offer fresh insights into the strategic and ideological forces behind scriptural texts An annotated interview with Fernando F Segovia traces his immigration journey as an adolescent and its indelible imprint on his scholarship as a postcolonial critic Contributors include Efra n Agosto Amy Lindeman Allen Reimund Bieringer Mark G Brett Ahida Calder n Pilarski Greg Carey Jorge E Castillo Guerra Jin Young Choi Stephanie Buckhanon Crowder Gregory L Cu llar Musa W Dube Neil Elliott Eleazar S Fernandez Bridgett A Green Leticia A Guardiola S enz Jacqueline M Hidalgo Knut Holter Ma Maricel S Ibita Ma Marilou S Ibita John F Kutsko Sung Uk Lim Francisco Lozada Jr Luis Men ndez Antu a Rub n Mu oz Larrondo Robert Myles Wongi Park Mitri Raheb Elisabeth Sch ssler Fiorenza Fernando F Segovia Yak hwee Tan Ekaputra Tupamahu Gerald O West Hans J H de Wit and H Daniel Zacharias Relational Formations of Race Natalia Molina, Daniel Martinez HoSang, Ramón A. Gutiérrez, 2019-02-05 Relational Formations of Race brings African American Chicana Latinx Asian American and Native American studies together in a single volume enabling readers to consider the racialization and formation of subordinated groups in relation to one another These essays conceptualize racialization as a dynamic and interactive process group based racial constructions are formed not only in relation to whiteness but also in relation to other devalued and marginalized groups The chapters offer explicit guides to understanding race as relational across all disciplines time periods regions and social groups By studying race relationally and through a shared context of meaning and power students will draw connections among subordinated groups and will better comprehend the logic that underpins the forms of inclusion and dispossession such groups face As the United States shifts toward a minority majority nation Relational Formations of Race offers crucial tools for understanding today's shifting race dynamics

Toward a Latino/a Biblical Interpretation Francisco Lozada Jr., 2017-11-03 Engage an interdisciplinary approach In Toward a Latino a Biblical Interpretation Francisco Lozada Jr explores the complex and diverse issues related to Latino a biblical interpretation After laying the theoretical foundation he offers three sample readings of biblical texts to lead readers through the intricacy of interpretation that has historically and culturally surrounded understanding what it means to do Latino a biblical interpretation Throughout Lozada attempts to work out various strategies that Latinos as have employed to read biblical texts He argues that Latino a biblical interpretation is concerned with identity and belongingness with a goal of transforming liberating the Latino a community Features An introduction to what it means to do Latino a biblical interpretation A demonstration of three different reading strategies correlation dialogical and ideological that Latinos as employ in reading biblical texts An exploration of whether one has to be Latino a to do Latino a biblical interpretation

Nepantla Squared Linda Heidenreich, 2020-10-2021 Lambda Literary Awards Finalist Nepantla Squared maps the lives of two transgender mestiz s one during the turn of the twentieth century and one during the turn of the twenty first century to chart the ways race gender sex ethnicity and capital function differently in different times To address the erasure of transgender mestiz realities from history Linda Heidenreich employs an intersectional analysis that critiques monopoly and global capitalism Heidenreich builds on the work of Gloria Anzald a s concept of nepantleras those who could live between and embody more than one culture to coin the term nepantla marking times of capitalist transition where gender was also in motion Transgender mestiz s too embodied that movement Heidenreich insists on a careful examination of the multiple in between spaces that construct lives between cultures and genders during in between times of shifting empire and capital In so doing they offer an important discussion of race class nation and citizenship centered on transgender bodies of color that challenges readers to rethink the way they understand the gendered social and economic challenges of today

Collisions at the Crossroads Genevieve Carpio, 2019-04-16 There are few places where mobility has shaped identity as widely as the American West but some locations and populations sit at its major crossroads maintaining control over place and mobility labor and race In Collisions at the Crossroads Genevieve Carpio argues that mobility both permission to move freely and prohibitions on movement helped shape racial formation in the eastern suburbs of Los Angeles and the Inland Empire throughout the nineteenth and twentieth centuries By examining policies and forces as different as historical societies Indian boarding schools bicycle ordinances immigration policy incarceration traffic checkpoints and Route 66 heritage she shows how local authorities constructed a racial hierarchy by allowing some people to move freely while placing limits on the mobility of others Highlighting the ways people of color have negotiated their place within these systems Carpio reveals a compelling and perceptive analysis of spatial mobility through physical movement and residence An Archive of Skin, An Archive of Kin Adria L. Imada,2022-02 Preface encountering the photographs Chronology of significant events Introduction an archive of skin an archive of kin Ocular experiments and unruly technologies of the body A criminal archive of skin Dressing the body Laundry and the intimacy of care Dreaming in pictures Queer kinship and subaltern family albums Epilogue healing encounters at the settlement Empire's Tracks Manu Karuka,2019-01-29 Empire s Tracks boldly reframes the history of the transcontinental railroad from the perspectives of the Cheyenne Lakota and Pawnee Native American tribes and the Chinese migrants who toiled on its path In this meticulously researched book Manu Karuka situates the railroad within the violent global histories of colonialism and capitalism Through an examination of legislative military and business records Karuka deftly explains the imperial foundations of U S political economy Tracing the shared paths of Indigenous and Asian American histories this multisited interdisciplinary study connects military occupation to exclusionary border policies a linked chain spanning the heart of U S imperialism This highly original and beautifully wrought book unveils how the transcontinental railroad laid the tracks of the U S Empire Assimilation Catherine S. Ramírez,2020-10-27 For over a hundred years the story of assimilation has animated the nation building project of the United States And still today the dream or demand of a cultural melting pot circulates through academia policy institutions and mainstream media outlets Noting society s many exclusions and erasures scholars in the second half of the twentieth century persuasively argued that only some social groups assimilate Others they pointed out are subject to racialization In this bold discipline traversing cultural history Catherine Ram rez develops an entirely different account of assimilation Weaving together the legacies of US settler colonialism slavery and border control Ram rez challenges the assumption that racialization and assimilation are separate and incompatible processes In fascinating chapters with subjects that range from nineteenth century boarding schools to the contemporary artwork of undocumented immigrants this book decouples immigration and assimilation and probes the gap between assimilation and citizenship It shows that assimilation is not just a process of absorption and becoming more alike Rather assimilation is a process of racialization and subordination and of power and inequality

Plantation Pedagogy Bayley J. Marquez,2024-02-06 Throughout the nineteenth and twentieth centuries teachers administrators and policymakers fashioned a system of industrial education that attempted to transform Black and Indigenous peoples and land This form of teaching what Bayley J Marquez names plantation pedagogy was built on the claim that slavery and land dispossession are fundamentally educational Plantation pedagogy and the formal institutions that encompassed it were thus integrally tied to enslavement settlement and their inherent violence toward land and people Marquez investigates how proponents developed industrial education domestically and then spread the model abroad as part of US imperialism A deeply thoughtful and arresting work Plantation Pedagogy sits where Black and Native studies meet in order to understand our interconnected histories and theorize our collective futures Transborder Los Angeles Yu Tokunaga, 2022-10-18 Focusing on Los Angeles farmland during the years between the Immigration Act of 1924 and the Japanese Internment in 1942 Transborder Los Angeles weaves together the narratives of Mexican and Japanese immigrants into a single transpacific history In this book Yu Tokunaga moves from international relations between Japan Mexico and the US to the Southern California farmland where ethnic Japanese and Mexicans played a significant role in developing local agriculture one of the major industries of LA County before World War II Japanese Mexicans and white Americans developed a unique triracial hierarchy in farmland that generated both conflict and interethnic accommodation by bringing together local issues and international concerns beyond the Pacific Ocean and the US Mexico border Viewing these experiences in a single narrative form Tokunaga breaks new ground demonstrating the close relationships between the ban on Japanese immigration Mexican farmworkers strikes wartime Japanese removal and the Bracero Program How Race Is Made in America Natalia Molina, 2014-01-01 How Race Is Made in America examines Mexican Americans from 1924 when American law drastically reduced immigration into the United States to 1965 when many quotas were abolished to understand how broad themes of race and citizenship are constructed These years shaped the emergence of what Natalia Molina describes as an immigration regime which defined the racial categories that continue to influence perceptions in the United States about Mexican Americans race and ethnicity Molina demonstrates that despite the multiplicity of influences that help shape our concept of race common themes prevail Examining legal political social and cultural sources related to immigration she advances the theory that our understanding of race is socially constructed in relational ways that is in correspondence to other groups Molina introduces and explains her central theory racial scripts which highlights the ways in which the lives of racialized groups are linked across time and space and thereby affect one another How Race Is Made in America also shows that these racial scripts are easily adopted and adapted to apply to different racial groups Girlhood in the Borderlands Lilia Soto, 2018-07-31 How gender and generation shape perceptions of place and time as told through the voices of Mexican teenage girls This book examines the lived experiences of Mexican teenage girls raised in transnational families and the varied ways they make meaning of their lives Under the Bracero Program and similar recruitment programs Mexican men have for decades been recruited for temporary work in the U S leaving their families for long periods of time to labor in the fields factories and service industry before returning home again While the conditions for these adults who cross the border for work has been extensively documented very little attention has been paid to the lives of those left behind Over a six year period Lilia Soto interviewed more than sixty teenage girls in Napa California and Zinap cuaro Michoac n to reveal the ruptures and continuities felt for the girls surrounded by the movement of families ideas and social practices across borders As they develop their subjective selves these Mexican teens find commonality in their fathers absence and the historical structural and economic conditions that led to their movement Tied to the ways U S immigration policies dictate the migrant experiences of fathers and the traditional structure of their families many girls develop a sense of time lag where they struggle to plan for a present or a future In Girlhood in the Borderlands Soto highlights the structure of feeling that girls from Zinap cuaro and Napa share offering insight into the affective consequences of growing up at these social and geographic intersections

Boyle Heights George J. Sánchez,2022-07-12 The radical history of a dynamic multiracial American neighborhood When I think of the future of the United States and the history that matters in this country I often think of Boyle Heights George J S nchez The vision for America s cross cultural future lies beyond the multicultural myth of the great melting pot That idea of diversity often imagined ethnically distinct urban districts the Little Italys Koreatowns and Jewish quarters of American cities built up over generations and occupying spaces that excluded one another But the neighborhood of Boyle Heights shows us something altogether different a dynamic multiracial community that has forged solidarity through a history of social and political upheaval Boyle Heights is an in depth history of the Los Angeles neighborhood showcasing the potent experiences of its residents from early contact between Spanish colonizers and native Californians to the internment of Japanese Americans during World War II the hunt for hidden Communists among the Jewish population negotiating citizenship and belonging among Latino migrants and Mexican American residents and beyond Through each period and every struggle the residents of Boyle Heights have maintained remarkable solidarity across racial and ethnic lines acting as a unified polyglot community even as their tribulations have become more explicitly racial in nature Boyle Heights is immigrant America embodied and it can serve as the true beacon on a hill toward which the country can strive in a time when racial solidarity and civic resistance have never been in greater need

Badges without Borders Stuart Schrader,2019-10-15 From the Cold War through today the U S has quietly assisted dozens of regimes around the world in suppressing civil unrest and securing the conditions for the smooth operation of capitalism Casting a new light on American empire Badges Without Borders shows for the first time that the very same people charged with global counterinsurgency also militarized American policing at home In this groundbreaking expos Stuart Schrader shows how the United States projected imperial power overseas through police training and technical assistance and how this effort reverberated to shape the policing of city streets at home Examining diverse records from recently declassified national security and intelligence materials to police textbooks and professional magazines Schrader reveals how U S police leaders envisioned the beat to be as wide as the globe and worked to put everyday policing at the core of the Cold War project of counterinsurgency A smoking gun book Badges without Borders offers a new account of the War on Crime law and order politics and global counterinsurgency revealing the connections between foreign and domestic racial control
