What is American? Walter Hölbling, Arno Heller, 2004 Identity is one of the central cultural narratives of the US on which both dominant and resistant discourses draw This critical anthology honors the topic's diversity while concentrating on one central aspect that of newness Construction of identities their invention reinvention and reformulation are discussed within four thematic categories New Concepts and Reconsiderations Migration and Multiple Identities Individuation and Privatized Identity Construction and Reinventions and Virtual Identities Written by European as well as US scholars ranging from the 19th century to the utopian future from mainstream canonized figures to transgender performers from a critique of individualism to a celebration of loneliness the articles present a cross section of current research on US identities

Spies and Holy Wars Reeva S. Simon, 2010-11-15 Illuminating a powerful intersection between popular culture and global politics Spies and Holy Wars draws on a sampling of more than eight hundred British and American thrillers that are propelled by the theme of jihad an Islamic holy war or crusade against the West Published over the past century the books in this expansive study encompass spy novels and crime fiction illustrating new connections between these genres and Western imperialism Demonstrating the social implications of the popularity of such books Reeva Spector Simon covers how the Middle Eastern villain evolved from being the malleable victim before World War II to the international techno savvy figure in today's crime novels She explores the impact of James Bond pulp fiction and comic books and also analyzes the ways in which world events shaped the genre particularly in recent years Worldwide terrorism and economic domination prevail as the most common sources of narrative tension in these works while military tech novels restored the prestige of the American hero in the wake of post Vietnam skepticism Moving beyond stereotypes Simon examines the relationships between publishing trends political trends and popular culture at large giving voice to the previously unexamined truths that emerge from these provocative page turners

Gender Bending Detective Fiction Heather Duerre Humann, 2017-02-28 Since the middle of the last century views on gender norms have shifted dramatically Reflecting these changes storylines that involve cross dressing and transgender characters have frequently appeared in detective fiction characters who subvert the conventions of the genre and challenge reader expectations This examination of 20th and 21st century crime novels reveals what these narratives say about gender identity and gender expression and how they contributed to the evolution of detective fiction

Pathfinder, 1952 Horwitz Publications,

Pulp Fiction and the Rise of the Australian Paperback Andrew Nette, 2022-07-12 This is the first book length study of

Sydney based Horwitz Publications the largest and most dynamic Australian pulp publisher to emerge after World War II Although best known for its cheaply produced sometimes luridly packaged softcover books Horwitz Publications played a far larger role in mainstream Australian publishing than has been so far recognised particularly in the expansion of the paperback from the late 1950s onwards Horwitz Publications Pulp Fiction and the Rise of the Australian Paperback examines the authorship production marketing and distribution of Horwitz pulp paperbacks It includes ground breaking material on the conditions of creative labour the writers artists and editors involved in the production of Horwitz pulp The book also explores how Horwitz pulp paperbacks acted as a local conduit for the global modern the ideas sensations fascinations technologies and people that came crashing into the Australian consciousness in the 1950s and 1960s Historical

Dictionary of Film Noir Andrew Spicer,2010-03-19 Film noir literally black cinema is the label customarily given to a group of black and white American films mostly crime thrillers made between 1940 and 1959 Today there is considerable dispute about what are the shared features that classify a noir film and therefore which films should be included in this category These problems are partly caused because film noir is a retrospective label that was not used in the 1940s or 1950s by the film industry as a production category and therefore its existence and features cannot be established through reference to trade documents The Historical Dictionary of Film Noir is a comprehensive guide that ranges from 1940 to present day neo noir It consists of a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography a filmography and over 400 cross referenced dictionary entries on every aspect of film noir and neo noir including key films personnel actors cinematographers composers directors producers set designers and writers themes issues influences visual style cycles of films e g amnesiac noirs the representation of the city and gender other forms comics graphic novels television and videogames and noir s presence in world cinema It is an essential reference work for all those interested in this important cultural phenomenon Firearms

Icons of Mystery and Crime Detection Mitzi M. Brunsdale,2010-07-26 This book provides an introduction to 24 iconic figures real and fictional that have shaped the detective mystery genre of popular literature Icons of Mystery and Crime Detection From Sleuths to Superheroes is an insightful look at one of our most popular and diverse fictional genres providing a guided tour of mystery and crime writing by focusing on two dozen of the field's most enduring creations and creators Icons of Mystery and Crime Detection spans the history of the detective story with series of critical entries on the field's most evocative names from the originator of the form Edgar Allan Poe to its first popular running character Sherlock Holmes from the Golden Age of Sam Spade Philip Marlowe and Charlie Chan in fiction and films to small screen heroes such as Columbo and Jessica Fletcher Also included are other accomplished practitioners of the craft of mystery crime storytelling including Agatha Christie Tony Hillerman and Alfred Hitchcock Cracking the Hard-Boiled Detective Lewis D. Moore, 2015-01-24 The hard boiled private detective is among the most recognizable characters in popular fiction since the 1920s a tough product of a violent world in which police forces are inadequate and people with money can choose private help when facing threatening circumstances Though a relatively recent arrival the hard boiled detective has undergone steady development and assumed diverse forms This critical study analyzes the character of the hard boiled detective from literary antecedents through the early 21st century It follows change in the novels through three main periods the Early roughly 1927 1955 during which the character was defined by such writers as Carroll John Daly Dashiell Hammett and Raymond Chandler the Transitional evident by 1964 in the works of John D MacDonald and Michael Collins and continuing to around 1977 via Joseph Hansen Bill Pronzini and others and the Modern since the late 1970s during which such writers as Loren D Estleman Liza Cody Sara Paretsky Sue Grafton and many others have expanded the genre and the detective character Themes such as violence love and sexuality friendship space and place and work are examined throughout the text Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

Modernism, Middlebrow and the Literary Canon Lise Jaillant, 2015-10-06 In the 1920s and 1930s the Modern Library series began to bring out cheap editions of modernist works Jaillant provides a thorough analysis of the series mix of highbrow and popular literature and argues that the availability and low cost of modernist works helped to expand modernism's influence as a literary movement The Mystery Fancier (Vol. 3 No. 1) March-April 1979 Kim Philby, Rex Stout, 2010-08-01 Volume 3 Number 1 of The Mystery Fancier contains Gene Stratton Porter Mistress of the Mini Mystery by Jane S Bakerman The Len Deighton Series by Jeff Banks and Harry Dawson Kim Philby Master Spy in Fact and Fiction by Theodore P Dukeshire Bouchercon 1978 IX and Counting by Donald A Yates The Nero Wolfe Saga Part XI by Guy M Townsend and An Index of Books Reviewed in TMF Volume 2 compiled by David H Doerr The Politics and Poetics of Translation in Turkey, 1923-1960 Şehnaz Tahir Gürçağlar, 2008-01-01 The present book is a bold attempt at revealing the complex and diversified nature of the field of translated literature in Turkey during a period of radical socio political change On the broad level it investigates the implications of the political transformation experienced in Turkey after the proclamation of the Republic for the cultural and literary fields including the field of translated literature On a more specific level it holds translation under focus and explores the discourse formed on translation and translators while it also traces the norms not observed by translators throughout the 1920s 1950s in two case studies The findings of the study suggest that the concepts of translation both affected and were affected by cultural processes in the society including ideological and poetological ones and that there was no uniform way of defining or carrying out translations during the period under study The findings also point at the segmentation of readership in early republican Turkey and conclude that the political and poetological factors governing the production and reception of translations varied for different segments of readers
