Meatsplaining Jason Hannan, 2020-10-01 The animal agriculture industry like other profit driven industries aggressively seeks to shield itself from public scrutiny To that end it uses a distinct set of rhetorical strategies to deflect criticism These tactics are fundamental to modern animal agriculture but have long evaded critical analysis In this collection academic and activist contributors investigate the many forms of denialism perpetuated by the animal agriculture industry What strategies does the industry use to avoid questions about its inhumane treatment of animals and its impact on the environment and public health What narratives myths and fantasies does it promote to sustain its image in the public imagination powerful timely and essential David Nibert author of Animal Oppression and Human Violence Domestification Capitalism and Global Conflict Meatsplaining equips us to identify the lies at the heart of animal agriculture It is an excellent and timely compilation on an exceedingly vexing problem Carol J Adams author of The Sexual Politics of Meat and Burger Meatsplaining is the first book to give an apt name to the animal agriculture industry's relentless campaign of disinformation and denialism Written in a clear lively and accessible style Meatsplaining will surely educate the public about the horrors of animal agriculture Marc Bekoff author of The Animals Agenda Freedom Compassion and Coexistence in the Human Age Cruelty thrives in secrecy and the meat industry is highly skilled at concealing the routine abuse and misery that flourishes on modern farms Meatsplaining cuts through the spin and exposes the meat industry's massive PR machine It explores how Big Meat uses language obfuscation and denial to misdirect the public's attention away from its commodification of sentient animals environmental devastation and the looming health crisis caused by eating animals This book is a must read for animal advocates and anyone else who no longer wants to be lied to Camille Labchuk Executive Director Animal Justice This book provides a necessary corrective to the fantasy world created by meat industry propaganda As we grapple with a global zoonotic pandemic and biodiversity crisis it is urgent for us to start thinking clearly about who and what is on our plates John Sorenson Brock University

Conversations in Food Studies Colin R. Anderson, Jennifer Brady, Charles Z.

Levkoe,2016-09-30 Few things are as important as the food we eat Conversations in Food Studies demonstrates the value of interdisciplinary research through the cross pollination of disciplinary epistemological and methodological perspectives Widely diverse essays ranging from the meaning of milk to the bring your own wine movement to urban household waste are the product of collaborating teams of interdisciplinary authors Readers are invited to engage and reflect on the theories and practices underlying some of the most important issues facing the emerging field of food studies today Conversations in Food Studies brings to the table thirteen original contributions organized around the themes of representation governance disciplinary boundaries and finally learning through food This collection offers an important and groundbreaking approach to food studies as it examines and reworks the boundaries that have traditionally structured the academy and that underlie much of food studies literature Handbook of Critical Agrarian Studies Akram-Lodhi, A. H.,Dietz, Kristina,Engels, Bettina,McKay, Ben M.,2021-12-14 Exploring the emerging and vibrant field of critical agrarian studies this comprehensive Handbook offers interdisciplinary insights from both leading scholars and activists to understand agrarian life livelihoods formations and processes of change It highlights the development of the field which is characterized by theoretical and methodological pluralism and innovation Shakespeare and Disgust Bradley J. Irish,2023-02-09 Drawing on both historical analysis and theories from the modern affective sciences Shakespeare and Disgust argues that the experience of revulsion is one of Shakespeare s central dramatic concerns Known as the gatekeeper emotion disgust is the affective process through which humans protect the boundaries of their physical bodies from material contaminants and their social bodies from moral contaminants Accordingly the emotion provided Shakespeare with a master category of compositional tools poetic images thematic considerations and narrative possibilities to interrogate the violation and preservation of such boundaries whether in the form of compromised bodies compromised moral actors or compromised social orders Designed to offer both focused readings and birds eye coverage this volume alternates between chapters devoted to the sustained analysis of revulsion in specific plays Titus Andronicus Timon of Athens Coriolanus Othello and Hamlet and chapters presenting a general overview of Shakespeare s engagement with certain kinds of prototypical disgust elicitors including food disease bodily violation race and sex disgust Disgust the book argues is one of the central engines of human behaviour and somewhat surprisingly it must be seen as a centrepiece of Shakespeare s affective universe Gender and Food Marcia Texler Segal,Vasilikie (Vicky) Demos,2016-09-02 Volume 22 explores the complex relationships between gender and food in a variety of locations and time periods using a range of research methods Gender inequality as it affects the struggle for access to land the affordability of food and its nutritional value is identified as a major social policy issue
