Translators' Strategies and Creativity Ann Beylard-Ozeroff,Jana Králová,Barbara Moser-Mercer,1998-05-15 In their contributions the authors reflect upon Lev s thinking on translation as a communication process and on Popovi s insistence on the importance of re creating a text both at the surface and deep levels Examples are drawn from literary translation technical translation from audio visual translation and from interpreting and the authors point out that translators in all domains inevitably come up against linguistic textual and other constraints which if they are to be resolved successfully call upon a translator s and interpreter s strategies and creativity The authors argue that this is the essence of professional decision making in translation according to Lev translation is a decision making process and that translation teachers should help students develop an understanding of translation strategies and of the vital role that creativity plays throughout the translation interpreting process Sprachmittlung in der geheimen Kommunikationsüberwachung Nadja Capus, Cornelia Griebel, Ivana Havelka, 2024-12-13 Dieses Buch steht an der Schnittstelle von Rechts und Translationswissenschaft Es thematisiert die Sprachmittlung im Rahmen der geheimen Kommunikationsüberwachung K durch die Justiz Terroristische Netzwerke oder Gruppen des organisierten Verbrechens agieren multinational und in verschiedenen Sprachen Zur Aufklärung schwerer Straftaten kann die Polizei die Telefone Fahrzeuge oder Wohnungen dieser Personen akustisch überwachen Dabei kommen regelmäßig Sprachmittlerinnen und Sprachmittler zum Einsatz Ihre Arbeit kann den Erfolg polizeilicher Ermittlungen entscheidend beeinflussen Dieses Buch präsentiert erstmals und aus interdisziplinärer Perspektive eine Gesamtschau der Tätigkeit der K Sprachmittlung im Rahmen strafrechtlicher Ermittlungen Den Verfasserinnen ist es gelungen die theoretischen Grundlagen ihrer Disziplinen der Rechtswissenschaft Übersetzungs- und Dolmetschwissenschaft zu fusionieren Das Ergebnis ist ein Beleg dafür dass die Sprachmittlung unverzichtbarer Bestandteil der K und des Strafverfahrens ist Investigating Translation Allison Beeby, Doris Ensinger, Marisa Presas, 2000-12-08 This volume brings together a selection of papers presented at an international conference on Translation Studies in Barcelona in 1998 The papers illustrate four areas that are of particular interest in translation research today in Europe Asia and Latin America The purpose of the first section Investigating Translation Paradigms is to reach a critical revision of existing paradigms and to develop new ones in approaching the translated text The second section Investigating the Translation Process focuses on the skills knowledge and strategies that make up translation competence The third section Investigating Translation and Ideology addresses not only the invisible influence of ideologies on the translator but also the role of translators in transmitting ideology The fourth section Investigating Translation Receivers envisages translators as communicators caught between the opposing trends of localisation and globalisation This tension can be seen in the selection of the papers some of which reflect on research carried out in recently established translation centres in Spain while others discuss the latest work of scholars from long established centres in other countries Fundamental Aspects of Interpreter Education David Sawyer, 2004 The author offers an overview of the Interpreting Studies literature on curriculum and assessment A discussion of curriculum definitions foundations and guidelines suggests a framework based upon scientific and humanistic approaches curriculum as process and as interaction Language testing concepts are introduced and related to interpreting By exploring means of integrating valid and reliable assessment into the curriculum the author breaks new ground in this under researched area Case studies of degree examinations provide sample data on pass fail rates test criteria and text selection A curriculum model is outlined as a practical example of synthesis flexibility and streamlining This volume will appeal to interpretation and translation instructors program administrators and language industry professionals seeking a discussion of the theoretical and practical aspects of curriculum and assessment theory This book also presents a new area of application for curriculum and language testing specialists De-/Re-Contextualizing Conference Interpreting Ebru

Diriker,2004-08-26 This groundbreaking study explores Simultaneous Conference Interpreting SI by focusing on interpreters as professionals working in socio cultural contexts and on the interdependency between these contexts and actual SI behavior While previous research on SI has been dominated by cognitive and psycholinguistic approaches Diriker s work explores SI in relation to the broader and more immediate socio cultural contexts by investigating the representation of the professional in the meta discourse and by exploring the presence of interpreters and the nature of the interpreted utterance at an actual conference Making use of participant observations interviews and analysis of conference transcripts Diriker challenges some of the widely held assumptions about SI She suggests that the interpreter s delivery represents not only the speaker but a multiplicity of speaker positions and that this multiplicity may well be a source of tension or vulnerability as well as strength for interpreters Her analysis also highlights how interpreters negotiate meaning in SI and underscores the need for more concerted efforts to explore SI in authentic contexts Revisiting the Interpreter's Role Claudia V. Angelelli,2004-09-23 Through the development of a valid and reliable instrument this book sets out to study the role that interpreters play in the various settings where they work i e the courts the hospitals business meetings international conferences and schools It presents interpreters perceptions and beliefs about their work as well as statements of their behaviors about their practice For the first time the administration and results of a survey administered across languages in Canada Mexico and the United States offer the reader a glimpse of the interpreters views in their own words It also discusses the tension between professional ideology and the reality of interpreters at work This book has implications for the theory and practice of interpreting across settings Interpreting in the 21st Century Giuliana Garzone,Maurizio Viezzi,2002 This volume contains selected papers from the 1st Forle Conference on Interpreting Studies The papers seek to take stock of the situation at the turn of the 21st century in research training and the profession Tapping and Mapping the Processes of Translation and Interpreting Sonja Tirkkonen-Condit,Riitta Jääskeläinen,2000 This volume brings together cognitive psychologists who look at process phenomena from various linguistic vantage points It examines simultaneous interpreting methodology how to glean information from data and particular features of the processes of translation Triangulating Translation Fábio Alves dos Santos,2003-01-01 The articles which appear in this volume stem from papers presented in a sub section of the II Brazilian International Translators Forum dedicated to process oriented research in translation The congress s main theme namely Translating the Millennium Corpora Cognition and Cultures is reflected in the seven contributions which aim at fostering the dialogue among translation researchers interested in process oriented investigations This book highlights one of the main axes focusing on the interfaces between cognition and translation and more precisely on the investigation of translation processes from three main vantage points theoretical perspectives empirical investigations and pedagogical applications The Routledge Handbook of Interpreting, Technology and AI Elena Davitti,Tomasz Korybski,Sabine Braun,2025-05-26 This handbook provides a comprehensive overview of the history development use and study of the evolving relationship between interpreting and technology addressing the challenges and opportunities brought by advances in AI and digital tools Encompassing a variety of methods systems and devices applied to interpreting as a field of practice as well as a study discipline this volume presents a synthesis of current thinking on the topic and an understanding of how technology alters shapes and enables the interpreting task The handbook examines how interpreting has evolved through the integration of both purpose built and adapted technologies that support automate or even replace human interpreting tasks and offers insights into their ethical practical and socio economic implications Addressing both signed and spoken language interpreting technologies as well as technologies for language access and media accessibility the book draws together expertise from varied areas of study and illustrates overlapping aspects of research Authored by a range of practicing interpreters and academics from across five continents this is the essential guide to interpreting and technology for both advanced students and researchers of interpreting and professional interpreters

Multiple Voices in the Translation Classroom Maria González Davies, 2004-01-01 The main aim of this book is to provide teaching ideas that can be adapted to different learning environments and that can be used with different language combinations The pedagogical approach and the activities tasks and projects are based on Communicative Humanistic and Socioconstructivist principles the students are actively involved in their learning process by making decisions and interacting with each other in a classroom setting that is a discussion forum and hands on workshop Clear aims are specified for the activities which move from the most rudimentary level of the word to the more complicated issues of syntax and finally to those of cultural difference Moreover they attempt to synthesize various translation theories not only those based on linguistics but those derived from cultural studies as well This volume will be of interest to translation teachers to foreign language teachers who wish to include translation in their classes to graduates and professional translators interested in becoming teachers and also to administrators exploring the possibility of starting a new translation programme

Translation Universals Anna Mauranen, Pekka Kujamäki, 2004 Translation universals is one of the most intriguing and controversial topics in recent translation studies Can we discover general laws of translation independent of the particularities of individual translations Research into this is new serious empirical work only began in the late nineties The present volume offers the state of the art on the issue It includes theoretical discussion on alternative conceptualisations and new distinctions around the basic concepts Several papers test hypotheses on universals in the light of recent work in different languages and some suggest new ones emerging from empirical work over the last two to three years The book contributes to the search for generalities in translation the methodological solutions available and presents emerging evidence on the kinds of regularities that large scale research is bringing forth On a more practical level the applicability of the hypotheses and findings to translator education is as always a concern for translation studies
