highlights that the Bengali filmic imaginary existed over and above the imaginary of the Indian nation This book argues that a definitive history of Bengali cinema presents an alternative understanding to the currently influential notion of the Hindi film as the Indian or national cinema It suggests that the Bengali cinema presents a history which brings to the fore the deeply contested terrain of national cinema and shows the creation of the alternative imaginary of the Bengali film The author indicates that the case of the Bengali cinema demonstrates the emergence of a public domain that set up a definitive discourse of difference with respect to the all India Hindi film popularly classified as Bollywood cinema and which pre-empted its subsumption within the more pervasive culture of the Bombay Hindi cinema As the first comprehensive historical work on Bengali cinema this book makes a significant contribution to both Film and Cultural Studies and South Asian Studies in general
